WOLVERINE BEER

Worthy of its famous name

The last word in modern equipment, the use of only the finest ingredients under the supervision of a well known German brewmaster, of the old school accounts for the fine quality of Wolverine Beer. Try it—and appreciate the difference yourself. On draught at all good places.

TELEPHONE CO.

SOCIALLY,

A TELEPHONE PAYS ITS WAY

There are fewer lonely days and dreary evenings for those who have telephone service. It brings you the voices of friends and family, and takes yours to them. And when impromptu "get-togethers" are arranged, those who can be reached by telephone usually are the ones invited.

A telephone is worth its cost in social advantages alone. Also, it helps find employment, saves trips to the stores or elsewhere in stormy weather, and is PRICELESS PROTECTION in emergencies, enabling you to summon doctor, firemen or police instantly, day or night.

Interest in remodeling of the

is increasing each week.

Nearly one hundred enjoyed the

Mrs. Carl Waack directed the suc-

Among the most enthusiastic are the young people of the

Raymond Berg. Their play last Friday night together with the slides, "On to Alaska with Buchanan," was a great success. The lecture was given by two sons of Dr. Charles F. Kuhn of Detroit.
The play was directed by Mrs.
Zingeman and musical numbers were given by Ray Berg, Dorothy Clark and Snooky Meyers.

C. C. Vallade of Detroit will give the message at a special Len-
