FAIR PLANS BIG FARM PROGRAM

Barn Dance, Rural Events
Featured at Chicago
Aug. 11 to 18.

Chicago.—Four million persons have entered the gates of the new World's Fair since it opened here May 28. Most of the throngs that have thrilled to the new spectacle, the new "foreign villages," which offer to themselves a "tour of the world," the new shows and the new rest entertainment projects, are city dwellers. Chicagoans, visitors from other cities all over the United States and visitors from foreign countries have poured in, in large numbers.

But the real farmer-visitor's invasion of a Century of Progress has not yet begun. It will reach its peak when the Fair celebrates Farm Week, from August 11 to August 18, inclusive. Last year Farm Week accounted for the largest single week's attendance of the entire Fair. Plans to make the celebration interesting and important to farmers are even more elaborate now than last year, according to the events division of the exposition.

WLS Barn Dance at Fair.
Saturday, August 11, will lead off the program with a massive farm parade, including bands, farm implements, machinery and equipment and farm animals. Depicting the modernization of agriculture, it will be one of the longest and most comprehensive parades of the entire exposition.

Sunday, August 12, will see special music and farm programs interlarded with the observance of Chicago Incorporation day, with Chicago acting as host to the out-of-town multitude.

Norford Tugwell, assistant secretary of agriculture, has been invited to be the principal speaker of the Farm Organization day program Monday, Tuesday will be Farm Radio day, with the entire WLS "Barn Dance" presenting a program in the Court of States; 40,000 persons saw this event in 1933.

Aerial Sham Battle Planned.
The farmer's wife will have her day Wednesday, August 15, which has been named Farm Women's day, with special programs arranged to pay tribute to the women who battled to carve a nation out of the wilderness. Farm Youth day, Thursday, will be full of recognition of the future farmers of the land, with emphasis on 4-H club work.

Programs of interest to rural newspapers and magazines will feature Farm Press day, Friday, Saturday, August 18, will be farm music day, with its high spot the gigantic Chicago-Land Music Festival in Soldier Field, adjoining the Fair grounds. This annual event has attracted more than a half million persons in the four years of its existence. This day will also see many special contests, such as milk-maid, husband-calling and hog-calling contests.

Saturday is also Illinois day. There will be a review of 10,000 troops and demonstrations by anti-aircraft, artillery units, shooting with tracer bullets at balloon targets towed by airplanes.

Farm Exhibits Are Many.
During Farm Week parties of farmers will be taken on free guided tours of the Fair grounds. Farm visitors, with only a limited time to spend, will in this way be able to see everything of vital interest to them.

Henry Ford's industrialized barn, where he shows how the farmer may, at low cost, raise soy beans, obtain the residue and process it himself, making industrial products, for which he can obtain a profitable revenue, is one of the new exhibits. Another is the International Harvester company's radio-controlled tractor, which demonstrates how farming may be done from an easy chair on the veranda. Model farm homes will attract many rural sightseers, as will the exhibits of the great packing plants and the automobile manufacturing.

The Brook Hill Dairy farm, with its model farm of 1930, shows the last word in modern milk production, from cow to bottle. The International Egg-Laying contest is a huge installation where the farmer may study the latest egg-production methods first-hand. Scores of commercial exhibitors will have displays of prime interest to Farm Week visitors.

Special Rates Lower Cost.
Special railroad and bus rates will make it easier for the farmer to get to the Fair this summer. Automobile agencies and oil stations will give him assistance in highway travel. At the Fair, he will find costs surprisingly low. Restaurants are cheaper, transportation is cheaper, there is plentiful free entertainment and eighty per cent of all the comfort stations are free.

Probably one of the leading attractions for rural visitors will be the foreign villages, so faithful in reproductions of life and scenes in fifteen countries that they offer the equivalent of a tour of the world, right on the Fair grounds.

Habits of Bre's 'Possum
Bre's 'Possum is a queer fellow. In daytime he hides and sleeps. When the sun has fallen and the dense forests are still, he likes best to travel. Anywhere, almost everywhere, he will go in search of food. Into the apple orchard he may wander provided there are no perambulating trees nearby. He also feeds on locusts and wild grapes and satisfies his appetite on any wild fruit within convenient distance of his resting place.

BARNES CIRCUUS TO SHOW AT PONTIAC NEXT WEEK FRIDAY

Three special trains will haul the Al G. Barnes Circus into Pontiac railroad yards early Friday morning, August 17, where two performances will be given that day.

Great stars from 18 foreign countries, the respective champions in their line, participate in the gigantic display of acrobatic numbers. The trained wild animal displays in massive steel girded arenas with lions, tigers, jaguars, all subjugated by master trainers, will be seen.

The wonder spectacle of all time, the "Fiesta of the Rio Grande," a gorgeous processional fiesta of old Spain, is used this season as a prelude to the circus proper. More than 1,000 men, women, horses, camels, and elephants take part in this pantomime of enchantment.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. Doors will be opened an hour earlier to permit an inspection of the zoo or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Redrick and his military band.

High School Band Will Present Concert Friday

Farmington high school band will present a concert Friday night at 8 o'clock. A special feature will be a saxophone quartet with Dorothea McCullie, Virginia Hibern, Dwayne Murphy and Edward Eaton. A free dance will be given after the movies. Music will be furnished by Doug Parker's Syncopators and sponsored by a Farmington business men.

History repeats itself—when you least expect it.

Star Of "Stand Up And Cheer" Is At Northville

"Baby, Take a Bow," coming to the Northville Penman Allen Theatre Saturday, August 11, introduces a five-year-old Shirley Temple in her first title role. After her overnight success in "Stand Up and Cheer!" little Shirley has become one of the outstanding personalities on the screen.

When a wife is faced with uncertainty about her husband, what should she do?

The usual thing is to sue for divorce, of course, but Genevieve Temple finds a new and unusual method of dealing with this situation in "Uncertain Lady," coming to the same theatre Wednesday, August 15. There will be a double feature program with Ken Maynard in "Smoking Guns," a picture in which the star escaped death by inches during the filming of this American western drama.

CANOE CAMPS ESTABLISHED ON NORTH MICHIGAN RIVERS

Canoe camps! They're something entirely new in the plans of the Department of Conservation for the development of recreational advantages.

The first canoe camp in the state is being established on Muskegon river in Houghton Lake state forest, three miles west of US 27 and southwest of Houghton Heights.

At convenient stop-over location for canoeists on sight-seeing and fishing trips downstream, the site is to be provided with all suitable camping facilities, including a pump, tables, stoves and sanitation structures. Every effort will be made to preserve as much as possible of the natural beauty of the location.

WEST FARMINGTON

A joint reunion of the Morris and Roggenkamp families was held at the J. E. Morris home Sunday, July 29. Friends and relatives from Detroit, Farmington, Novi, Pontiac and Oshkosh, Wisconsin attended. A picnic lunch was served for dinner and supper.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Kleinschmidt and family, of Oshkosh, Wis., have returned after a 10-day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris.

Margery Morris spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Becker of Detroit.
