MR. AND MRS. ELWOOD C. SAVAGE, former residents of Livonia, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary by repeating their vows in Faith Bible Church, Marion, Mich., where they now live. Their three sons and two daughters were at the service and reception which followed. They are Wallace Savage of Plymouth, Melvin and Wesley Savage of Livonia, Mrs. Geraldine Leonard of Wayne and Mrs. Virginia Horn of Redford Township.

Livonians Give $500 To Fund

The Metropolitan Club of Livonia, through the efforts of its Motorcycle Club, has donated $500 worth of toys for the annual Christmas party of the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan. Some of the money will also be used to replenish supplies at

17 League Units Study Bussing

Members of 17 chapters of the League of Women Voters in the Detroit metropolitan area have begun a study on integration and bussing. Materials on these subjects have been placed in the West Bloomfield Township Library on Orchard Lake Road. The material may be checked out but may not be removed from the library.

Mrs. Richard Gould, 32650 Briarcrest Road, Farmington, president of the West Bloomfield - Farmington League, urges all interested to make use of the materials.

Mrs. Craig Lesly and Mrs. William Hase are representatives of the league for the area.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM STYES

Redford Couple Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Styes, Redford Township residents for 37 years, recently marked their 50th wedding anniversary with a party given by their children and grandchildren.

During World War II he was a foreman in the Ford Motor Co. Highland Park plant and Mrs. Styes worked at the Detroit Diesel Co. plant.

The couple have a daughter, Mrs. Marie Neal, of Deering Street in Livonia, and a son, Lewis R. Styes, of Farmington. There are 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Styes were married in St. Ignace, Mich., on Nov. 8, 1921, and lived in the Brightmoor area in Detroit until moving to their present home at 15816 Lenore.

Mr. Styes has been self-employed most of his life.

Teenagers May Enter Contest

Applications are being accepted for the Miss Michigan Teen-Ager Pageant to be held at the Detroit Hilton, April 21 and 22.

Girls between the ages of 13 and 17 will be judged on their scholastic achievements, civic contributions, poise, personality and appearance. This is not a bathing suit or talent contest. Judging will be handled by a panel.

Applications may be obtained by writing Official Certification Headquarters, 126 Bunn Drive, Rockton, Ill. 61072.

Girls who apply must be U.S. citizens and must be residents of Michigan or attend school in Michigan.

The winner, Miss Michigan Teen-Ager, will participate in civic events throughout the state during her reign and will compete in the national finals in Atlanta, Ga. Her expenses will be paid to the finals.

Singers Invited To Join Group

The We-Way-Co (Western Wayne County) chapter of the Sweet Adelines, Inc., now has openings for new members. All interested should contact the president, Mrs. Kenneth Schrader, 14701 Thornridge, Plymouth. The chapter is open to all western Wayne County residents.

The singers meet every Wednesday evening at 8 in the music room of the Plymouth Central School, Main and Church.

Members are giving a benefit performance tonight at 7:30 in Carlson, Sullivan and Molloy Halls of the Plymouth State Home. They will meet at Mrs. Schrader's home afterwards for refreshments.

CHRISTINE BEHRENDSEN of Garden City was chosen first runnerup for the Miss Professional Cosmetologist contest held in Lansing recently. The contest was part of the state conference and fashion forecast of the Michigan Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists' Assn. Mrs. Behrendsen is first vice-president of the new affiliate, No. 39, which covers the western suburbs.
