"TOBACCO ROAD" ENTERS SECOND WEEK AT CASS

"Tobacco Road," Jack Kirkland's dramatization of Erskine Caldwell's powerful novel of the south, with James Kirkwood as the star, begins the second week of its engagement at the Cass Theatre, Detroit, on Sunday night, Oct. 20. Mr. Kirkland has sensitively caught the spirit of the Erskine Caldwell novel and has added all the ingredients that make for an ideal stage picture for this play. In addition to his truthful pictures of a phase of southern life, has its lighter side and humor abundant throughout its action.

"Tobacco Road" is the only stage play of the past decade which threatens to eclipse even the record of "Able's Irish Rose."

Mr. Kirkwood's performance of Jester Lester, with its rich earthy fun has been acclaimed as one of the masterpieces of character acting of the American stage. "Tobacco Road" deals with the southern share-cropper as found in the back districts of Georgia and is an accurate document of conditions as they exist in that part of the world. The distinguished cast which supports Mr. Kirkwood comprises Naud Lambert, Florence Gerald, Lillian Ardell, Cynthia Arden, Elaine Ellis, Robert Rose, Tilden Davis, Marshall Hall, Donn Bennett, Walter Ayres and Jean Bodin.

an increase of 2392%

It takes mild ripe tobacco to make a good cigarette.

During the year ending June 30, 1900, the Government collected from cigarette taxes
$3,969,191
For the year ending June 30, 1934, the same taxes were

an increase of 8725%
—a lot of money.

Cigarettes give a lot of pleasure to a lot of people.

More cigarettes are smoked today because more people know about them—they are better advertised. But the main reason for the increase is that they are made better—made of better tobaccos; then again the tobaccos are blended—a blend of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos. Chesterfield is made of mild, ripe tobaccos. Everything that science knows about is used in making it a milder and better-tasting cigarette. We believe you will enjoy them.
