The Farmington Enterprise Thursday, December 12, 1935

FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR - No. 7

Exchange Men To Fete Grid Team

Grid Leading Members of Farmington Ex-change Club will play host to the farmington high school tootball team at a baiquet to be held in the dining room of the Methi-odist Church (Wednesday, Decem-her 18. Arrangements for the even-ing's program will be made by Coach Kammeirer to secure Wallie Weber, head hae coach and as-sistant to Coach Harry Köpke, of the University of Michigan foot-hall staff, as speaker for the even-ing if Weber is unable to attend, Kammerer promises to hare some other Michigan mentor present. Formerly It was an annual cus-tom of the Exchange Club to fete her football team, but during the subspended. Thirty-two players, assistant coach, will be present this year at the revival of the cus-tom. Farmington High School this fall

Coach Rainneger will Area? For a statatic coach, will be present this year at the revival of the cust and the revival of the revised and the revival of the revised and revised the revised and revised re

Charles White Is First Christmas Seal Buyer

First buyer of tu ber cu los is Christmas seals in Farmhgton is, Mr. Charles White, 33205 Shiawas-see avenue, officials of the Michi-gan Tuberculosis Association an-nounce.

gan Tuberculosis Association an-nounce. Mr. White's purchase, besides being Farmington's first, added a new mamber to the Association's order of First Seal Buyers and à new name to the Christmas seal honor roll. Helping to continue the fight against the White Flague dururing 1936; the saile of tuberculosis Christmas seals will be continued throughout the nation until Christ-mas Day. In Michigan, 52,000,000 seals were distributed this year. Funds raised will support the activ-tiles of the Michigan Tuberculosis ities of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and affiliated units fur Association and affiliated units au-ing the coming year. Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis As-sociation, commended the generous spirit which is bringing early re-turns from communities all over turns from communities all over Michigan. "It is fine to know that people throughout the state are support-ing the cause so enthusiastically," said Dr. Douglas. "It would be dif-ficult to estimate the good their contributions will a cc om plish. Their generosity means new Hope for hundreds of tuberculosis sick in Michigan."

Township Taxes To Be Collected Next Week

Collected Next Week Farmington Township's collect-ing period for 1935 county and school taxes is acheduled to begin during the county week. Township Treasurer Loretta E Cox will in all probability begin receiving remit-tances Monday, December 16. Tax collection will be at the formington State Bank in the of-de of City Clerk, N. H. Power. Afrs. Cox will be there during banking hours. In addition to the regular win-ter taxes, the dog tax is payable ter taxes, the dog tax is payable at this time, and may be paid to the Township Treasurer.

Bride Wants To Please Hubby With Doughnuts; Dough Vanishes Hardware

Farmington, Michigan

r the local sector of the sect

nut making. May I have your 'ceeding time she had the same re-recipe?" "Why certainly Lulu. Now I use as brides are wont to cry when sour milk, ergs, sugar, nutneg, their first experiments are fail-and soda and fry in deep fat." ures. Then Mrs. Irish went on to describe Lulu hatened to the home of Mrs. Irish. She didn't wait to be was going to make something kitchen, In a foriorn voice she different. The simple directions said, "Mrs. Irish. I can't see how, received from her neightor were you can make such wonderful followed out perfectly. The doubh doughnuts without using flour."

Vivier. Wednesday Farmington Ex-change Club members were guests of the Northville Club.

GARDEN CLUB HEARS TALK ON PEAT FORMATION

Judge Schulte Reads Wedding Rites for 10 Stock in married life took a pro

Paré To Lead Exchange Club Proves Popular Paul Pare will lead Farmington Exchange Club, during the pett als months term, his pennington for president chinonced Monilay. Elegion will be held Wedneiday. Foreing at the footbal banquet, hut nomination by the board of control is equivalent to election, there being no other candidates.

The young people of the Farm-figton area will have a recrea-tional center for the reminider of the winter months if they con-tinue to show the interest in the undercroft of the Methodist Church that they have displayed at the first two days of activities. The orom will be open Wednesday eye-nings from 7 to 9 and Saturday iteraions from 2 to b-30. Miss "Billie" Power, daughter Mr. Arthor Power, daughter Mr. Arthor Power won the table tennif tournament last Saturday. She defeated Bob Dawis to capture

Autor Datie Power, stadfielf of Mr. Arthur Power won like table tennik tournament last Staturday. She defeated Bob Davis to capture honora. Ross Van Volkenburger, P. C. Weilington and Jöward Legg were eilmilanted in the quarter finals. Fifty young people were on hand to abriek their delight at the Wednesday evening activities. Four Otess, checkers, and peoket phi-liards also proved to be very nov-ular. In the winter Arthur Poetrs, chairman of the lactivities, hope to have a table tame Arthur Poetrs, chairman of the lactivities, hope to have a table tame from ready tor both single shift down hope to have a table tame from neid fooring communities. The church board was from helf jooring communities. The church board was highly autipied with the enthusiasm and for the leading of recreational and for the leading of recreational autor that their recreational move-nent is nonsectarian in of harders, and that the facilities are open to all children of the community over 12 years of age. Two Famous Explorers

Two Famous Explorers To Speak in Detroit

Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews, ector of the American Museur ector of the American Museum of Natural History and the noted ex-plorer who discovered the dinos-aur eggs, and Father Bernard R.

and estimates and Father Bernard R. Hubbard, famous geologist, explor-er and "Gater Priest," will speak with motion pictures Sunday, Dee-ember 15, on the World Adventire Series at the Detroit Institute of Aris. At the same time the clvic and non-profit lectures organization will announce its winter season of Hubitrated lectures. At 3:30 p. m. Dr. Andrews will present again- by popular demand hs "Droitentions in the Gobil Des-ert" lecture. Father Hubbard will follow at 8:30 p. m. with his new mojton picture on "A Voyage to the ice Inferno."

motion picture on a voyage of Among the featured celebriles who will appear during the winter season are Burton Holmes, Lodent Haliburton and 16 other explor-ers; travelers and scientists. Dr. Thomas, Burte Hindus, Richard Haliburton and 16 other explor-ers; travelers and scientists. Dr. Thomas C. 'Poulter, broad-should-reed scientist. who was second in command of the recent Byrd Ami-ardle Expedition, will open the winter program on annary 5, with his motion picture lecture on "The Rescuo of Admiral Byrd."

LADY OF SORROWS CHURCH

Stock in married life took a pro-nonneed leap upward during the past week in Farmington when 10 people walked like the office of the Jusice of the Peece, and walked out as fire. Judge Schulle front for the for-lowing Schule for the for-base schule for the for-base schule for the for-head of the for-site of the for-lowing Schule for the for-lowing schule for the for-site schule for the for-ling schule for the for-site schule for the for-ter schule for the for-site schule for the for-ter schule for the for-site schule for the for-ter schule for the The ladles of Our Lady of Sor-rows Church will sponsor a salier kraut supper Tuesdar, December 17 The supper will be served in thy school auditorium, and serving will start at 5 o'clock.

Police Seek

Burglars

there being no other candidates. Lloyd Gullen has been nominat-ed vice-président, and Floyd Nich-ols was named scoretary. Emory Hatton will sgain serve as treas-urer. Pred Cook, Leo Gildemeister and Joe Norton will serve as the board of control Fred Cook, president for the six-months term which expires Dec-ember 31, announced that the Ex-change Club will again lend as-sistance to the Farmlington Good-fellows. The committee in charge of the arraingements are: Joe Him-Wedneday Farmlington Ex-

MAIL OVER 1934 MAIL OVER 1934 Farmingtob will mail at least 25 of 30 per cent more Christmas mall h 1935 than they did in 1934, ac-draling to an estimate made by yorman C. Lee, Farmington-posting post-master. Lee bases his prediction upon the Farmington-postage sale for 1935 types esales show an la-dresse of more than 31,200 over the estite 12 months of 1934. Starting on Saturday. December 24, the Farmington post office will be open until S p. m. to accommo-date Farmington post office will the open until S p. m. to accommo-date Farmington people and to the Christmas Day: Postmaster Lee advises Farming: There will be no mail delivery on due the Christmas cards in prefer-tive to one-and-a-hair cent stamps. When a card has a three cent drass mail, when it has a one-and-shat (if the porson to whom the Cards is malided has changed his ad-dress that first chas mail will be forwarded to the new address, yhereas the third class mail wills pelher forwarded nor returned to he addresser.

lether forwarded nor returned to the addresser. In a communication received by Lee from the office of James A. Farley, Postmaster General, the Farmington postmaster is advised to warn his patrons to do their PEAT FORMATION The initial meeting in the new year of Farmington Garden Citb Will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Irish, jon East Grand River avenue, of January 7. Mr. Straid, a peat salesmain from Grand Rapids, was the guest speaker at the December meeting of the club. His topic was "Peat Formation and its Uses." Strand Is a haitve of Sweden, and he prefaced his talk with a hird description of the activity for beind escription of the activity for beind escription of the activity for held was obsen a lover of flowers of his nativa country with those found in Northern Michigan. Strand's personal collection in native country with those found in Northern Michigan Country and flowers it there are 60 different kinds of or-cides many orchids, and many thousand specimens of other plants and flowers that have taken mearly and flowers that have taken mearly and flowers that have taken mearly a Mrs. D. Ritter was hostess for the attercoom. There were pres-ent 20 members! Mrs. W. Helb Bickling brought two arrangements of chrysattheumans. Tarmington posimaster is advised (o warn his patrons to do their Christmas shopping and mailing early, particularly sloce the volume of Christmas mail increases ap-proximately 200 per cent over the dverage mail of the year. Christmas letters and packages should be mailed at least a week or 10 days before Christmas Day, according to de distance. The public is further warned by Washingtoo drificials that addresses should be complete, with house number and iname of street, post-bifice box, or ruralrouite number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in he upper leif correr of every pleos of mail. They also ask the public colored envelopes. or the ray small envelopes.

nvelopes. Written matter in the nature of Written mintter in the nature of personal, correspondence cannot be enclosed in japarela. Parcels con-taining perinable articles should be marked "Perishable" kind packed in a suitable container. To expedite delivery the use of special delivery sithmas is advised. "Patrons on tural routes should buy stamps in advance of day of using. Carriers will have estra quantity of isamps. No unstamp-ed Christmas cards will be col-lected from hores on tural routes.

ected from boxes on rural routes

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE ISH FRY DECEMBER 13

The Farmington post of the American Legion will hold a fish fry Friday, December 13, at the Legion Home on East Grand River avenue, Ji will be a stag party, and all men in the community are lavited.

Farmington Man Selected As Republican County Chairman

Interest of Farmington and vi-cinity in Republican politics of Oakland county is helphened by the selection of Howard M. War-ner, mayor of Farmington, as chairman of the Oakland County

Burglass Authorities are still seeking to solve the burgiary of the kenners Hardware store at 3333 Grand Piers avenue, between 11, on a nind Piers avenue, between 11, on a ni which he himsel has displated ability which he himsel has displayed in party activities of recent years. In accepting the chairmanship, Mr. Warner effectively spiked an-other of the rumors which have had bim as a candidate for various of fices on divers occasions. Since the death of Senator Andrew L. Moore, Mr. Warner has been ru-mored as the candidate to succeed him, it being rephried that he vould be drafted by party leaders. Mr. Warner (as be party leaders, Mr. Warner told The Enterprise Tharsday momolog that he had no intention of running, nor did he know where the rumor might have originated. Mr. Martin's resignation was oc-originated. Mr. Martin's resignation was oc casioned by the fact that his posi-tion as assistant prosecuting at torney prevented him from carry ing on the county chairmanship as he felt it should be handled.

Salem Evangelical Church To Give Pageant

Farmington people who attend church services Christmas Eve at the Salem Evangelical Church will see the presentation of a Christ-mas pageant entitled "The Infant King," by the Sunday School. Mrs", Leo Gildemeister is in charge of the program the program. Members of the Sunday Schoo Membern of the Sunday School classes will represent various Bib-licat characters. Chief among the characters are the Christmas Mei-senger, heralds, shepards, angels, magt, and Simeon. As an added feature the star of Bethlehem will be portrared by, a group of eight upoung girls. Rehearsals of the pageant began last Sunday and will continue every Sunday until Christmas. Fractice is held during the cus-tomary lesson period.

Forrest Dickerson To

Lead F. & A. M. Lodge Forrest A. Dickerson will guide the destilnes of Parmington Lodge, No. 151 P. & A. M. during the coming year. He was selected wor-ablpful master at Monday eve-ning's meeting in the Town Hall He succeeds Delos Hamila. Other officers elected were: Robert B. Cook, senior warden; Charles N. Diamond, Jundor war-den; William C. Way, treasure; Cohries N. Diamond, Jundor war-den; William C. Way, treasure; Charles N. Diamond, Jundor war-den; William C. Way, treasure; James L. Hogie, secretary; Carl C. Harrison, senior descon; Ed-ward A. Alerander; Junior descon and Raiph J. Autea, tyler, Public installation of the newly elected officers will take place Monday evening, December 16. The meeting will be open to Masons and their families. The American Lecton is holding Lead F. & A. M. Lodge

The American Legion is holding a feather party at the Town hall Friday, December 20.

HOWARD M. WARNER Library To Get New Books

Lovers of good books will soon

Lovers of rood books will soon be able to call for new fiction at the Farmington Library, so ne of the first moves made by the newly appointed Library Committee was to order 13 books. It is reported by Miss Kennedy, librarian, that these books will be ready to be loaned out to readers by December 21. The committee is availing the decision on the proposed acquisi-tion the Peoples State Bank decision on the proposed acquisi-lion in the State Bank the State Banks for which include sommission haves action the to mornite will not proceed with their improvement plans to any great extent. The Library Committee, of which

Mrs. Irish is Mrs. Inish, is chairman, heid a meeting, Saiurday, Ai thai time it was decided to order the new books, and is sort old books. Many books are in need of repairs, and the committee will attend to these. Others will be disposed of the others will be disposed of the area by the bibliotic house. The books added to the Library list are: chairman beld a Detroit publishing house. The books added to the Library list arg: "White Orchids," by Grace L. Hill; "Storm Signals," by J. C. Liacoh; "Sjelendor of Engles," by H. Topping Miller; "Young Renny," by Mazo De La Roche; "Crystal Tree," by L. P. Hauch; "Beauty from Aibes," by G. L. Hill; "Oil from the Lamps of China," by Ho-hart: "Pour Emress, Goes Thu," bart: "Four Emress, Goes Thu," bart: "Rouge," by Katheen Norris; "Madear Outgae," by Katheen Nor-is; "A Sozely Figure," by Mar-garet C. Banning: "The House on the Roat," the Margo, G. Eber-hardt. In stock, If they do not, other books will have to be substituted. The library is also the recipient of four new books that will be ready for the use of city and township readers by Decem-(Continued on back; page)

Livonia Youth Given

90 Day Jail Sentence

John Sewell, one of three Li-vonia township youths recently ar-rested by Deputy Sherlif Devinent for the robbery of the Nitz service station in Clarenceville, pleaded guilty and will serve 90 days in Jall, after which he will be releas-ed on probatium for two years. Sontence was passed by Judge Roczers

Rogers. The two others arrested by the The two others arrested by the Turner, police are Harrison Graves and Er Collins. It nest Traven. Because they are Grace, c minors their case was tried in the fontia Juvenile Court. Traven was partice of the the travent was lytenelle Anne. Himmels, The robbery occurred November Rohlmoon 28: Burtanee was gained through Davidson 28: Burtanee was gained through Davidson as alde aboor. A valuable watch, and Stott, g merichandles were stolen. It was the second time within a year that the Nitz station was robbed. UNIVER

UNIVERSITY HIGH

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

Three Men Hijack Load Near Novi

5 Cents a Copy

Three armed men hl jacked a truck load of beer on Grand River truck load of beer on Grand River avenue, north of Novi, Wednesday evening, and tied the driver to a tree on Farmington road, three quarters of a mile from Maple road. It was the first highching re-ported in Oakland county since repeal. The driver, Clayton Bunce, of Detroit, was bound with adhesive tape, and his hands were tied in front of him. When he complain-ed of the cold the men put his front of him. When he complain-ed of the cold the men put his gloves on. Bunce freed himself loose short-ly after the hi-jackers left and walked through the woods to a farmbouse occupied by Walter Johnson and Harry Lundberg. Bunce was driving from Detroit to Manlistee when the three men drove up in a sedan, represented themselves as officers, and com-the in-jackers placed Bunce Into their car, and the tiffd forve off wild the truck. The hi-jackers com-manded hime to lid lover. Two of the min-jackers placed Bunce Into their car, and the tiffd forve off wild the truck. The hi-jackers com-manded Bunce to lid down on the rear floor of the car while-one of the men heid a revolver against his body. Ther uwck afor pass to botted beer, 30 half-barrels and 16 quarts, all filled.

COURT TEAM TO OPEN LEAGUE SCHEDULE FRIDAY

With two practice games behind with two practice games beind them the Farmington High School basketball team open their South-western Oakland league schedule at Milford Friday night, and make weatern Oakland league schedule at Milford Friday night, and make their initial appearance on their home flöör Thörsday, December 13, against Brighton. The contests with University and Northville high schools proved to Coach Kammerer inthe his team lacks size and experience. The coa-tests were well played, however, and the local color bearers show plenty of spirit. Parmington fams still talk about the surprise beating the underdog Farmington team gave the Milford squad in the district tournament at Milford last spring, and have high hopes that their team can repeat in he first game of league competi-tion. Milford, this year, also has an inexperienced team, as it men were lost by graduation last seeason. Milford, however, is always lough for any team to beat. This will be the first game of the year for Milford.

Brighton will furnish the opposi-Brighton will furnish the opposi-tion for the first encounter on the Farmington floor. Following this game basketball competition will be halted until January 10 when Reego Harbor, comes to Farming ton. •At Ann Arbor University high took a 5 to 0 lead in the first quar-At and they never relinquished it, took a 5 to 0 lead in the first quar-ter, and they never relinquished it, as they went on to win 26 to 9. The gume was not as bad as the score might indicate. Farmington's pass-ing excelled University high's. Farmington's under-the-baskeff work however, didn't click, whereas Uni-versity high was making these shots count to pile up the com-manding lead. Carl Smith, playing his first game as a regular guard, was the star of the evening's play. Tony Himmelepach also played an out-slanding game for Farmington. Rahph Bantfield was the bright spot in the 18 to 13 detest suffered by the Farmington second team. FARMINGTON

FARMINGTON

	FARMINGTON
		₽G	\mathbf{FT}	\mathbf{P}
Î	Lee, f.	1	0
	Smith, f.	0	0
Ì	Turner, f.	1	0
	Collins, f	0	0
	Grace, c	0	0
	Linklater, c	ò	0
ļ	Davis, g	-1	.0	•
	Mitchell, g	0	0
ł	Himmelspach, g	0	0
	Robinson, g	1	0
i	Davidson, g	0	1
	Scott, g	0	0
		_	_	-

. 4 1

FG FT

 $\begin{array}{ccc}
 2 & 0 \\
 1 & 0 \\
 2 & 1
\end{array}$

0 1 1 3

PF

6 0 3