adjustments, the commission suited.

"Our investigation has shown," the opinion stated, "that there are some telephone exchanges in Michigan in which the rates are not sufficient to pay the cost of the service. There are other exchanges in which we believe we should now our judgement, it now belongs."

The majority of changes are to become effective immediately, but those which involve plant changes may not go into effect until the first of September or October.

The commission also discovered Singing Evangelist Albert E. Hesketh of Hamilton, Oniario, who will conduct tent meeting revivals at Grand River and Maple avenue beginning Sunday evening at 7:45.

The commission also discovered that the Michigan Bell has 45 different schedules of rates in its 248 exchanges, and has ordered the company to make a survey with a view to grouping the exchanges in eight or ten groups and simplifying the rate schedules.
