Seven Ring Circus To Show in Detroit

With the most impressive and brilliant seven-ring stage program in its history, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, which will exhibit in Detroit three days, July 19, 20, 21, offers this season, as a sensational super-feature, a herd of African piny elephants, the first ever to set foot on this continent. These tiny tuskers are not babies, but full-grown, middle-aged midget elephants, the rarest animals on the face of the earth. Accompanying them is a herd of miniature African piny ponies, the world's smallest beasts of burden. The piny elephants have proven the great attraction of the Big Show has ever placed before the public, not even excepting its presentations in the past of the discolored Ubagulu, the giraffe-necked women from Burma, the sacred white elephant of Siam, Jumbo, Tom Thumb and Goliath, the sea elephant.

Among the scores of new features, to say nothing of the new importations from Europe and Asia, including the incredible Naito troupe, the Royal Bokara troupe, the Imperial Viennese equestrian troupe, the great Frederico and a free running horse, pony and elephant liberty act of sixty members, is Col. Tim McCoy, the seren's most outstanding western star, at the head of his congress of rough riders of the world—Cosacs, cowboys, cowgirls, vaqueros, Sioux and Blackfoot warriors and Australian bushrangers. Col. McCoy, plainsman, cavalry officer the U. S. Army Reserve and friend of the Indian, is the idol of American boys and girls, and he will be seen in both the main performance and the wild west.

The Greatest Show on Earth heads into this territory on four million railroad trains of 100 cars, with 1600 people, 7 herds of full-sized elephant actors, 1000 menagerie animals and 700 horses. Its tented city covers 14 acres of ground. There are 31 large tents, including the world's largest big top, seating 16,000 persons.

This is the peak season for youth and beauty among the 800 world famous arena artists with the show. In the air, in the three quarters on the four stages and in the quarter-mile hippodrome track will be seen hundreds of pretty girls. In the 60-ft aerial ballet, the most beautiful mid-air display ever produced, there are beautiful comment wherever the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus exhibits.
