Skylines and Playgrounds —in Michigan!

CONSIDER Michigan's busy and beautiful cities, and plan to spend at least a part of your vacation visiting them this summer.

Visit mighty Detroit, with its tower to the clouds, and its playgrounds for the young. Then visit the University of Michigan and that of Michigan State College; view the State Capitol; arrange a trip through a great industrial plant.

The products of Michigan's cities have made them world-famous, for their commodities are shipped to every quarter of the globe. They are growing in interest and importance, as in population and industry.

Each offers the vacationist opportunities for inexpensive entertainment and summer sports. And each is the center of a region of lakes, rivers, hills and valleys that call to the lover of the out-of-doors.

Could you spend a more pleasant and interesting vacation anywhere than in the great cities of your own State?

Explain Michigan's vacation advantages to your friends who live beyond our borders.

In the hope of promoting the interests of Michigan, this series of advertisements is being published in newspapers throughout the State by a Michigan organization that can prosper only as the citizens of Michigan prosper.
