

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Will Eckler and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Stelzer of Flint on Sunday. Miss Norma Stelzer returned with them for a visit here.

More See of Bakersfield, California, was a week end guest of Dr. J. H. Holcomb.

Miss Ernestine Pierce has returned from Camp Knight at Cheboygan.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lee and son Don, have moved into the house on Oakland avenue, known as the Riddle house, recently purchased by them.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eckler and family visited Mrs. Randall Yale at Hurley hospital, Flint last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Thornton were host and hostess to fifty people attending the East Novi School reunion on Saturday, August 1, at their home on the 3 Mile road.

A brief business meeting followed the pot luck dinner, the same officers being re-elected. They are Miss Lulu Becker, president and Mrs. Morine Lapham Fry of Detroit, secretary and treasurer.

The oldest person at this reunion was Mr. Sidney Court of Clare, who is 94 years old. Mr. Court, a former patron of the East Novi school, was accompanied by his daughter from Clare, Mrs. Florence Becker, who was next in distinction, for she is 84 years old. Other guests were from Pontiac, Royal Oak, Northville and Novi as well as from Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Shene will entertain at their home on Ecorse Road in Inkster, at the next annual reunion.

More than fifty friends of Rev.

and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and daughter Amariylla of Corcoran, California greeted them at a reception at the Community Hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Called to Detroit from Corcoran on an abbreviated business trip, the friends here and the Johnsons were mutually glad of this opportunity to meet again. Rev. Johnson having been the pastor in the Farmington Methodist church from September 1930 until the spring of 1933, when he accepted a pastorate at the First Methodist church in Pontiac. To restore the ill health of Mrs. Johnson and Amariylla, Rev. Johnson took his family to Corcoran, California where Mr. Johnson has been the minister of the Methodist church. Rev. Johnson showed his motion pictures, beginning with local Farmington scenes, then those enroute to the coast and also many California scenes. A social time followed the pictures. Refreshments and wafers were served. Mrs. William Irish and Mrs. Fred Warner, presiding at the table. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Amariylla plan to leave Michigan for Corcoran, with Mrs. Johnson's father, Fred Johnson of Metamora accompanying them, on Friday, by auto. Rev. Johnson showed these motion pictures at the First Methodist church in Pontiac, on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham entertained Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson at dinner on Friday and Saturday evening, and also on Monday night. Mrs. Durham and Mrs. Johnson spent Saturday in Detroit.

Mrs. F. C. Zebornick entertained at luncheon and cards at her home at Shady Nook on last Thursday. The guests were Mrs. A. G. Netter, Mrs. Max McCurdy, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Elmer Dohany, Mrs. Viola McGieck, Mrs. Wm.

McGillough, Mrs. Karl Ritter and Mrs. Minette Hennig.

Mrs. Fred Warner entertained Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Amariylla at luncheon at Devon Gables on Wednesday.

The Garden Club met with Mrs. John Dalrymple on Tuesday afternoon. The date of September 13 was set for the annual flower show to be sponsored by the Farmington Garden Club. The classifications of the displays are to be extended. The children are to be encouraged to bring displays. Detailed plans will be announced later.

Mrs. Karl Ritter was hostess at a bridge luncheon on last Wednesday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Minette Hennig of Flint who has been her house guest during July.

In addition to the guest of honor, the place cards read as follows: Mrs. Elmer Dohany, Mrs. Max McCurdy, Mrs. F. C. Zebornick, Mrs. W. A. Gattiker of Pleasant Ridge, Mrs. E. A. Mason of Detroit, Mrs. E. A. Scully of Plymouth, Mrs. Robert Fitch of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. William Emery of Detroit. Another social occasion honoring Mrs. Hennig during the past week was a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Mason in Detroit at which Mrs. Ritter was also a guest. On Monday Mrs. Max McCurdy was hostess to Mrs. Hennig and Mrs. Ritter at the Detroit City Club.

Mrs. Harley Gibson returned Wednesday from a few days' visit with her mother, Mrs. William Bamber at Lake Chemung.

A producer-consumer picnic will be held at Riverside park, near Plymouth, Saturday, August 15. W. C. Irby, state secretary of the Alabama Farmer's Union, who has been influential in fostering cooperation between union labor and the Farmer's Union in his home state, will be the speaker. The public is invited. Those going are asked to watch for signs when they reach Riverside, for the exact location of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin McNulty attended the wedding of his sister Miss Corinne McNulty of Pontiac to Richard Lee of Pontiac at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNulty of Milford, last Thursday evening.

Mervin McNulty, for several years one of the registered pharmacists at the Meyer Drug Company at Five Points, Redford is now employed at the Smith-Bradley Drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamb and Marietta were Northville callers on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Florence Becker spent this week with her son, Frank Becker, and family in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goers and daughters spent Wednesday at Mt. Clemens.

Mrs. Roy (Myra Dickinson) Hatten of Detroit entertained a few schoolmates of former years at a luncheon at her home on Tuesday. Those present were Freddie Newton of Detroit, Bessie Seelye LeRoy of Ypsilanti, Charlotte Smith Stuckey of Redford, Mabel Kennedy Pray of Toledo and Elizabeth Bousford Lockman of Pontiac.

Miss Dorothy Lancaster is visiting this week at the light house at Thunder Bay Island as guest of Loyal Robb. Next week she will visit relatives at Long Lake and Hubbard Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rouss and family went to the Detroit Zoo last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Weaver have as their house guests this week Dr. Weaver's father, George Weaver, and his sister, Mrs. Don C. Gaffney of Lincoln, Nebraska.
