WHO ARE YOU? The Romance of Your Name

By RUBY HASKINS ELLIS

A Murray?

THIS name first originated with a family from Germany who called themselves Moravia. Settling in Scotland, they affixed their own nomenclature to the district which is now the shire of Moray. The root of the name in both Moravian and Gaelic signifies "great water".

The name Murray is a family of the first rank in Scotland. They have figured in Scottish history since the Twelfth century. The title of the head of the clan is the Duke of Athol, whose name has occurred time and again in the national affairs of Scotland. The family numbers among its descendants many peers and barons, including the earl of Dunmore, an important supporter of the Stuart cause in the 1688 revolution, and of the earl of Mansfield, a great statesman, buried in Westminster Abbey, 1793.

At one time this distinguished family had the sovereignty of the Isle of Man, which was afterward sold to the government.

There were Murrys who were prominent in both the Virginia and New England colonies in America.
John Murray, "Lord Dunmore," held the governorship of Virginia from 1771 to 1775. He was the eldest son of William Murray, third earl, and Catherine Nairne, and was born at Taymouth, Perthshire, in 1722. He returned to England, where he died at Ramsgate in 1800.

James Murray settled in Dover, N. H., 1863. Jonathan Murray came to Connecticut in 1689.

SIGNS OF FALL EVIDENCED IN ADVERTISEMENTS

Unmistakable signs of fall can now be found around the country.
Some of the leaves of trees are turning to bronze and red. There is a tang in the air that makes the step livelier.

In the stores, more evidence can be found that the end of the summer is here and autumn is with us.
Cook and Co., is showing many of the new clothes for school children. Fall painting is a job that may be done well with Hutton's Waterspar varnish and enamel.

The approach of winter is also occasion to think of the Farmington Lumber and Coal Co., and the hot water heaters offered by the Detroit Edison company.

The autumn is also a season popular with many vacationists who prefer to drive in their Ford V-8s sold by Olin-Russell, Inc. Bat-ling enjoys re-novated popularity in the fall and winter and the Farmington Mills is prepared to serve this need with its many different kinds of flours. Farmington Dairy's healthful milk supplies that extra energy needed by school children.
