Talk about your control pitchers. Nelson Cady of Livonia Hubert's Comie Mack baseball team rates high on the list.

In fact, he's perfect.

The 17-year-old Cady has pitched 16 innings so far this summer for the Hubert team, which for the most part is

F Flight Golfer Has Low Net

Low net prices made the members of Livonia Women's Golf League mind their Ps and Cs (putts and chips) at the July 9 round of play.

Lowest net was flinger Irene Adzema with 30. Mary Anne Seedot took E flight honors with 34 while Doris O'Connell and Lucille McNamara took C and D flights respectively with net scores of 36.

There was a three-way tie in B flight with Irene Pritchard, Joan Wiljanen and Laura Baumhart all carding nets of 37.

A fighters Kay Copolla and Jackie Stocks tied with 35. Kay, who shot a low gross 40 several weeks to hold the league "best score" record, came close again last week with a 45.

All American

National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame reached back into the early years of football to honor Michigan's Albert Benbrook, a consensus All-American guard of 1909-10. Benbrook captained the 1910 Michigan team that upset the undefeated Minnesota, 6-0, in the final game of the season.

Fleming Has Little Trouble Switching From Prep To Legion

Switching from the high school scene to the sandlots hasn't reduced the pitching brilliance of John Fleming.

During the last prep season, Fleming hurled Farmington to the Inter-Lakes Conference title and was voted a spot on the All-Observer team.

Now he's toiling for Farmington's American Legion team — and brilliantly as was the case Friday when he allowed only one hit in beating Berkley, 6-2.

He fanned five and walked three — and all the free tickets came in the fourth inning. The one Berkley hit came off the bat of Doug Kirehan in the fifth.

and faced only 23 men in the seven-inning battle.

He had to be sharp and effective to outbid Bill McMillan of Novi, who yielded only four hits.

HURBERT PUT two of the hits together in the fourth inning for the game's only run. Mike Gee singled and took third on Randy Hickerson's single. Then when Tim Rose rolled out, Gee strayed across with the game's decisive tally.

* Rod Crane went two for three as Northville Reef turned back Red Holman, 4-3.

TOM'S SERVICE turned back Crowe's Royals, 6-4, Saturday as Chuck Price bested Brian Dinsmore.

The teams were tied 4-4 going into the sixth inning when Terry McEvoy and Bill Lindblom singled and scored on Frank Gubick's hit with the tie breaking and insurance runs.

Lindblom had two hits in a winning cause.

North Farmington gained a 3-1 verdict over Garden City East with Dave Nauman the winning pitcher. He allowed six hits and struck out five.

A walk to Harvey Sell and John Haine's homer knocked in the first North Farmington run. Then in the fourth, singles by Greg Brooks, Doug Moore and Sell brought in the next two North Farmington tallies.

Dennis Kesik's double batted in the only East-run. Two hit pitching by Kevin Renas (enabled Redford Tooling (Churchill) to down Farmington Harrison, 4-1.

Renas had a one hit shutout going until the seventh and final innings when Ed Frankle singled in the only Harrison run. He struck out five.

George Panoff singled in the first two runs for Redford Tooling and a single by Doug Lloyd knocked in the other two.

Farmington took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Ray Ponke singled, stole second and scored on Rich Stringer's single.

Two more runs zoomed across in the second on singles by Bruce Economeau, Ponke and Tony Wenson. Ponke and Wenson knocked in runs with their blows.

Randy Stringer's hit followed a walk in the third and chased in another Farmington run. Then in the fourth Rich Stringer doubled another run across and Randy Stringer singled in his brother for the Farmington team's final run.

Stringer Fans 13; Farmington Wins Two

They say that Texans like to tell tall stories.

Well, Rich Stringer, who until recently was a Texan, has a tall one to tell. And, he won't be kidding anybody.

It was Rich who pitched a no-hitter Sunday as Farmington blanked Auburn Heights, 7-0, and then swept the doubleheader by winning the nightcap, 7-3.

Stringer is freshly arrived from Dallas with his family, which includes twin brother Randy, who also plays on the Farmington team.

Rich fanned 13 and the only man to reach base got there on an error.

Farmington, meantime, scored twice in the first inning on a double by Ray Ponke and singles by Tony Wenson and Dan McGrath.

Three runs came in the fourth with Ponke and Wenson doubling and Randy Stringer and John Holappa getting singles. McGrath knocked in two more in the sixth.

In the second game, John Fleming allowed six hits and fanned nine as Farmington rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the first inning.

Farmington came right back to tie the score when Ponke singled in Paul Kupferschmidt and Fleming as he helped like his RBI total for the day to six.

He had two more RBIs in the sixth after Kupferschmidt doubled and a walk followed.

The Court Jester

by BILL CAMERON

If you watched the Wimbledon men's finals match on T.V. last week, you were exposed to a superb exhibition of power tennis. By the judicious use of three strokes, serve, return - of - serve and volley, John Newcomb, of Australia, managed to outlast Stan Smith, U.S.A.

The touring pros and world-class amateurs have mastered these three strokes, so well that that type of tennis has become boring to watch. There were games in which the receiver was fortunate enough to return two serves. That is not my opinion of exciting tennis.

THE WOMEN'S FINAL match was the complete opposite with many exciting points being played. The
