

Silver Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Maas of Oakland avenue celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday. Among the guests during the day were Mrs. Louise Maas, Miss Maas, Miss Marcella Schuster of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maas, Mr. and Mrs. Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. George Nacker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Maas, and Mr. and Mrs. John Maas. The honored couple received gifts from their guests, and a potluck supper was served.

Services Discontinued at West Point Park Church

The membership of the West Point Park Presbyterian Church will be disbanded until there is sufficient demand for its reorganization. It was decided at a meeting of the congregation Sunday afternoon.

The action was taken as the result of the difficulty of securing a meeting place and other obstacles. It is possible that the Sunday School may be reorganized by the Presbytery. Dr. Kenneth Miller, now executive secretary for the mission churches of the Detroit Presbytery, presided at the meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. Miller Given Farewell Party

Thomas Gillespie's beautiful new home was open Saturday evening for a farewell reception planned by the Presbyterian Women's Association of West Point Park for Rev. and Mrs. Roy Miller, who are leaving Rosedale Gardens this week, and moving to Saline, Michigan. A fair sized crowd was in attendance. Presentation of a handsome friendship quilt made by the ladies of the association was made to Mrs. Miller and a name-engraved leather bill-fold, containing a modest gift, was given to Rev. Roy Miller.

Mrs. Emerson Ault Leaves For Mississippi

Mrs. Emerson Ault of West Point Park and her youngest daughter, Miss Lora Ann Ault, left Friday morning for Jackson, Mississippi, where they will join her husband, Emerson Ault, who is employed there, and make their permanent residence. They were accompanied by Mrs. Marvin Adia, whose car was used, and by Mrs. Robert Borland of Redford. The latter two ladies will return in about two weeks.

Junior Odd Fellows Nominate Officers

The second nomination of officers of Claret Lodge, No. 8, Junior Odd Fellows, Claretville, was held Monday evening, November 16. The first nomination was held at the regular Monday meeting last week. The election will be held on November 23. The officers of the Junior Odd Fellows Lodge are: Chief Ruler, Deputy Ruler, Recorder, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, and Advisor. The latter office is to be filled by a senior member of the Odd Fellows Lodge.

West Farmington P.T.A. Observes Education Week

"Colonial School Days," by the fifth and sixth grades was the main feature at the West Farmington P.T.A. held Monday evening with an attendance of 37.

Mrs. Guy Poppy and Mrs. Roy Howard gave readings on "Early Education Through the Ages." This program was held in observance of National Education Week. Community singing was followed by a poem "A Thought for these Autumn Days," read by Mrs. Dorothy Kobman. Refreshments and a social hour followed.

A pot luck supper will be given Friday evening, Nov. 20 by the P.T.A. Proceeds will be used for the Girls 4-H sewing club.

Woman's Club Takes Part In Exhibit

The Farmington Woman's Club was one of 17 clubs of the county to display an exhibit at the art exhibit, sponsored by the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Board of Commerce Building, Pontiac.

Mrs. Karl G. Ritter, who was the chairman for the club, had the following displays: a knitted dress, crocheted gloves, a needle-point hanging, and an oil painting of tulips.
