"Friday's" First Shoes

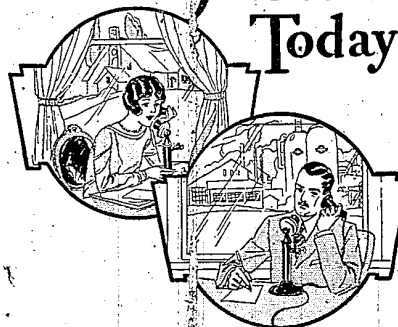

Bare footprints in the sand told Robinson Crusoe that he was not alone on the island. Later, after including "Friday" in his family, he made his first shoes of goat-skin and bark, joined with string.

We also have "first" shoes—those for your tiny infant. In our selection are shoes for boys, girls, and men and women. All priced to fit your purse as individually as the shoe fits your foot.

WHO ARE YOU?

The Romance of Your Name

By RUBY HASKINS ELLIS

A Monnet?

THIS family took its name from a town in France near the River

Ala. In the latter sixteenth century Pierre Monnet was massacred in Paris on St. Bartholomew's day for his adherence to the king of Navarre. Pierre was the ancestor of the Protestant Monnets of the Huguenot province, and it was to him or his son that the coat of arms was granted in 1570.

His descendants, Isaac, Robert and Pierre, who were Huguenot refugees, left France and went to London, where in 1688 they were naturalized and became British subjects. They later came to America. Isaac settled in Calvert county, Maryland, about 1700 and married Elizabeth Williams. Robert made his home in Cecil county, Maryland, and married Margaret Darrell.

Pierre joined the Huguenot colony on Staten Island, where he lived and died.

MOUSE TRAPS

BY CLAYTON RAND

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse trap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

Emerson may have been preaching good business gospel when he spoke that classic, but for these more competitive times it is the bunk.

Such a man today would preach to himself, mice would build nests with his book and the path to his doorway would grow rank with weeds.

A man today with a better book, sermon, or mouse trap either advertises the fact by beating a path to his neighbor's door or he lives alone and dies forgotten in the wilderness.
