Donald Conover Is Wed In Columbia

The historic church of San Juan in Giron, Columbia, was the setting for the June 18 wedding of Nhora Rojas Arias and Donald A. Conover, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Conover of Farmington, formerly of Plymouth.

Many townspeople attended the wedding in the colonial village that has been designated by the South American country's government as a historical site not to be changed.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justo R. Rojas of Bucaramanga, Columbia. The marriage ceremony was performed by her uncle, Father Andello Arias, parish priest of the San Juan church.

THE BRIDE's attendants were her sisters, Margarita and Julieta Rojas Arias, her cousin, Nubia Gomez, and the bridegroom's sister, Nancy E. Conover.

A reception dinner and dance in the Professional Club in Bucaramanga followed the rites, and the couple honeymooned at Cartagena and Santa Marta, Columbia. Attending the wedding with Mr. and Mrs. Conover and their daughter, was Deborah Diekmann of Plymouth, Miss Conover's roommate at Northern Michigan University.

THE BRIDE earned a bachelor of arts degree in Columbia and taught high school in Bucaramanga. She now is completing a master's degree in applied linguistics at the University of Kansas.

Her husband, a graduate of Plymouth High School, has degrees from the University of Michigan, the University of Illinois and Yale University, and is completing his doctorate in sociology at Yale.

They will live in Kansas and New Haven for the next year, and then will spend two years in Columbia while the new Mrs. Conover fulfills her scholarship obligations by teaching in a Colombian University.

Couple Is Wed In Guitar Mass

In a guitar mass at St. Valentine's Catholic Church, Marijo Wickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Wickens of Redford Township, became the bride of Robert Paul Eddy, son of Paul Eddy of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Sherrill.

A white satin pillow trimmed in blue and white lace on which the ring bearer carried the wedding rings had been made by the bride's grandmother.

During the wedding ceremony, the bridegroom's sister, Carol, made her first communion.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore an old-fashioned gown of white organza featuring a high neckline. The lace trimming on her pinfore-styled gown matched the lace trimming the mantilla veil and chapel train. She carried a bouquet of blue stephanotis with blue lace streamers.

The bridesmaids all wore light blue voile dresses with a flower print in shades of blue. They carried blue colonial bouquets.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Evelyn Schroeder and the bridesmaids were Mrs.

Sharon Wickens, sister-in-law of the bride; Laurie Eddy, the bridegroom's sister; and Deloris White.

THE BROTHER and sister of the bridegroom, Jerry and Paula, were the ringbearer and the flower girl.

Tony Leger was best man. Groomsman included Jon Wickens, the bride's brother; Bill Eddy, the bridegroom's brother; and Tim Sartori. They wore Edwardian tuxedos.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in lime green.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Holiday Inn. The couple honeymooned on Mackinac Island and will make their home in Southfield.

St. Paul Church Scene Of Nuptials

Christina Lynn Savage became the bride of Kit Kyle Baker in a June 26 ceremony in St. Paul Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Savage of Redford Township, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Kenneth Baker of Ionia.

The Rev. William McGaughy officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE's candlelight gown of sheer fabric over taffeta was made by her mother. It featured lace trim on the sheer, fitted sleeves and a lace border on the full-length train.

A matching headpiece held the bride's veil, and she carried a cascade of white carnations, mums and baby's breath.

Peggy Moore of Livonia, maid of honor, wore a pink printed chiffon dress with long, full sleeves.

The bridesmaids, Martha Hawthorne of Tecumseh and Kathy Baker, sister of the bridegroom, wore similar gowns in blue. All wore picture hats and carried pink and blue carnations and button mums.

The best man was Rick German of Colon. Roger Fenner, also of Colon, and

MRS. KIT KYLE BAKER
(Christina Lynn Savage)

Douglas Savage, brother of the bride, were ushers.

BOTH MOTHERS and grandmothers of the bridal pair were in shades of blue. The two mothers wore corsages of pink sweetheart roses, and the grandmothers had pink carnations.

A reception for 150 guests at the bride's home followed the ceremony. The newlyweds drove to Tucson, Ariz., where they will live while the bridegroom is stationed at Davis - Monthan Air Force Base.

Livonians Wed

At a ceremony July 3 in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Livonia, Kathleen Sue Brown became the bride of Kevin Tomas Kelly, son of Mrs. Patricia Kelly of Livonia and Mr. Kelly of Lansing.

Judy Brooks was maid of honor and Greg Kelly was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Godfrey Sellers of Loveland Street, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dianne Burrell, to James Richard Gysel, son of Mrs. Peggy Ann Gysel of Ingram Street, Livonia. An Aug. 21 wedding is planned.
