Simple Tombstones Used for the Kings of Egypt

ings of Egypt from the first asty, almost 3400 B. C., had ad-topped stelae—the familiar bstone shape — included in their ple tombs, with inscriptions on

Then came the sge of glant, pyramid tombs for Egypt's kings; The pharaohs who planned their pyramids with seenest interest included in the tooms a place or places where the faithful living could go to put offerings for the dead. These offerings, explains a writer in Science Service, would be deposited on an offering-table and let down into the ground before a niche inscribed under the owner's name and titles. And the niche was so shaped that archeologists call it a "false door." For through this fake doorway, never intended to swing open to human touch, the spirits of the dead kings were supposed to pass, when

'HOUSECLEAN' YOUR SKIN!

housectean" it.
want is a penetrating face cream y Esther Face Gream is. Lady Gream actually benetrates the oes it in a gentle and soothing sesto work on the imbedded waxy ks it up—dissolves it—and makes ness and fineness.

As Lady Esther Face Cream cleaness the kin, it also lubricates it, it resupplies it with fine oil that keeps it soft, smooth and supple Try Lady Esther Face Cream today and sehow your clean resonance.

For Sale by Oak Pharmacy the dead to eat and enjoy the offerings.

Later in Egypt, the common man copied kings and began to provide cautiously for his own welfare in the future world.

His tomb was relatively small and simple, but the false door of the old kingdom liad survived in the guise of a formbistone or stela set up to mark his resting place.

English Church Only One
Having Bells on Ground
A church in Suffolk at East Bergholt clims to be the only one in the world with its church bells on the ground, writes a London correspondent in the Chicago Tribune.

correspondent in the Chicago Tribinte.

Cardinal Woisey began to build the beltry, but his downfall interrupted its construction and, from hat day the bells have been housed in a wooden, belicage among the paying stodes: Their tongues point upward and a platform runs between them. The junger grasps a wooden stick, send it off against the metal, and at feel in the bit. There are ropes, as well, but these are used only for chirality.

Only the itreble is modern. The second, Gabriel, is in its original form as dist in 1450. The stird, founded in 1601, carries in Latin the words: "My name is Mary. For my tone II am known as the rose of the world." The fourth-showscoins of Charles I.— on the face and the tenor, weighing 28 hundred weights and the control of this church have a creat repulation for "singles," and are proud of their place in campaloology.

in thy flight, make me a child again," I want to go to the big nine day circus of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, starting May 29.

The most Closely read Advertising Medium in America The NON-METROPOLITAN NEWSPAPER Saya HENRY EWALD

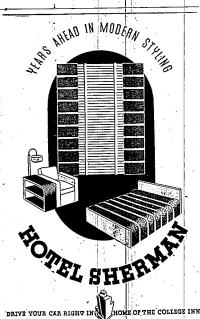

Be sure that your advertising "GOES TO TOWN"

And Does a REAL Sales Job!

ADVERTISE CONSISTENTLY

in

The Farmington Enterprise

RED NICHOLS-HIS ORCHESTRA WITH THE CRATY SHOW

1700 BATHS 1700 ROOMS CHICAGO

Swell Idea

By STANLEY CORDELL O Associated Newspapers. WNU Service.

LOYD BRIGHTON, the author, sat at his deak and stared at the blank heat of, paper in his typewriter and regretted last night's party. He had a drunk too much and stayed up too late. His mind wouldn't function, which was bad, 'because he had remisted his publishers a story for Minutes passed and Lloyd became to do her windjammins?

Lloyd remembered his resolution of a year ago to get himself an office downtown, where he could go and work alone and quiet. He should have carried out the resolution months ago. Tomorrow he'd most certainly get in touch with a real estate man about touch with a real estate man about it.

But that didn't help him much right now. Right now he needed an idea. He had to have an idea. Thinking about an loffice only detracted from his ability to concentrate on a story. It was Mrs. Newbury who had reminded him of the office. It was Mrs. Newbury who was proving the greatest source of annoyance. Right now it was Mrs. Newbury who was the chief obstacle standing in the way of getting an idea.

He waited five triinutes, hoping that Mrs. Newbury would depart. But she didn't. Apparently she was pretty excited, for her voice rose in high cadence.

"—And so." Mrs. Newbury we saying rauceusly. "hey were married, and set off on their honeymon. By stralene! Imagine! It was Brenda's idea. About the airplane. I mean. Bernda declared that she was only going to be might ferred honeymoon. By affect one and she was not better—be's the groom — agreed to the airplane in the was and she was not be to the displane with the standard out and flew in his Canada and came down at the might had been and she was not be well as the same and she was not well as the same and she was not be same and she was not well as the same and the s ferent honeymoon. And Peter—he's the groom—agreed to the airplane idea.

"Well, they started out and flew up into Canada and came down at jittle town about a hundred miles over the border. And what do you think? They were larrested! Imagine! Arrested on your honeyricon! It seems that they should have stopped at the border to be didn't as comething, and the didn't as the seems that they should have stopped at the border to be
didn't as the seems that they should have stopped at the border to be didn't as been warried that a young couple, posing as beineymooners, but who were actually gangsters. in disguise, were expected in that locality, and naturally they thought that Peter and Benda were the gangsters and—"
Lloyd's eyes opened wide and his lower jaw sagged. By George, here was his story right here!
He rushed back to his deak caught up paper and pencil and sprinted back to the door, the call has "well." Mas, Niewbury was saying, "Peter finally persuaded the junctities to let him use the telphone. He called up Philadelphia on long distance and got a friend on the wire, and the friend explained to the Canadian police who Peter was. Well, that was all right, except that the authorities insisted that Peter had to go back to the border to get his papers from the custom officials. So Peter Sartiel back, leaving Breeda in the own under the surface of the call with the subback, leaving Breeda in the own wife. "What?"
"Young Serenda was there abaed of him!"

wife. "What?"

"Why, Brenda was there ahead of him!"

At this moment Lloyd decided he couldn't stand the suspense any

At this moment Lloyd decided he couldn't stand the suspense any longer. Fushing the door wide, he strode into the room of the strode into the strong i inew you would. I just knew it!"

"What do you mean, you knew it?"
"Why that's what I told my husband. But he said not to come over here and disturb you with my silly ideas. Imagine!—Silly ideas!"
"It's a swell iden," said Lloyd,
"go far. How did Brenda get down to the braders. I don't knyw. I thought you'd be able to flyfre that part oul. Goodness knows. I've done my share."
"What? You' mean it isn't a true story? You mead it up?"
"O' course! Isn't it ducky? I said to Paul, I said, Mr. Brighton is a writer. He'll know how Brenda got down to the border. That's really a small part. Why, land!" I said, probably hell effer me something when he writes the story and sells it, it's that good!"

HATTONS ARMINGTON HARDWARE CO.

E. O. Hatton

Farmington

is herreby Given and indistration of the estates above named persons, who imappeared and have not of more than seven yeard from for a continuous of more than seven yeard, and to landore L. Goode, Administrator of Oakland by the order of this court he petition of anted to isadore L. Goode, Administrator of Calkiand or Calkiand or Calkiand or Calkiand or Calkiand or Calkiand or Calkiand of Chas, 12 while Administrator of the Michigan or Calkiand O s ordered that this notice be none in each week for guecossive weeks in the ngtone Enterprise, a the nation of the

May 27-June 10

Frontiac, Mich.

May 27-June 10

F. C. No. 113

F. C. No. 113

S. TAT E. D. S. 1884.

Mr. A. J. Armstrong

Mr. A. J. Armstrong

Manue Blessel missing persons, and aspected and the Estates of the above name persons, who in the Ministration of the estates of the above name persons, who in the Ministration of the estates of the above name persons, who in the ministration of the estates of the above name persons, who is the ministration of the estates of the ministration of the states of Ministrator of Oakland the Ministrator of the State of Ministrator of the State of Ministrator of the Ministrator of Oakland the Ministrator of Oaklan published once in each week for three successive weeks in the Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed and nublished nasad speed of the successive weeks and successive the successive su

A true copy:
FLORENCE DOTY,
Probate Register.
ISADORE L GOODE,
Attorney for Petitioner,
1005 Peoples State Bidg., Pontiac, Mich.

Europe by roving Portuguese and Italian sailors, and selective breed-ing in the hands of patient, devoted peasants, from the Alps to the Scotpeasants, from the Alps to the Scot-tish highlands, has evolved the many varieties of today, in yellow, buff, orange, green cinnamon; white, blue, fawn and the copper red and black.

ADVERTISEMENTS Are Your Guides To Value

Experts can roughly estimate product by looking at it. More accurately, by examining it. Its appearance, its texture, the balance of it, all mean something to their

But no one person can be an steel, brass, wood, leather, foodstuffs, fabrics, the material that makes up a list of personal And even experts are fooled, sometimes, by

There is a surer index of value-than the senses of sight and touch . . . knowledge, of the maker's name and for what it stands. Here is the most cer-tain method, except that of actual use, for judging the value of any manufactured goods. Here is the only guirantee against capteless workmanship, or use of shoddy materials.

Merchandise must be good or it couldn't be consistently Advertised.

BUY ADVERTISED GOODS

SCREENS SCREEN PORCHES SPECIAL

Combination Storm and Screen 1 1/8 inch, up to 3ft x 7ft Doors.

$7.89

Installed with hardware Carpenter work of all kinds

McCulley & Leonhardt 34125 Oakland Ave. Phone 152-R