large amount of effort which it is realized would be entailed. Growers from all over the area are expected. Farmington, Novi, and Lyon Township are the leading producers of apples in this area. Howard McCracken is chairman of the group of growers, others who are active including Don Burton, Louis Spicer, George Simmons, Charles Halsted, James Lappham, Roger Hubbell, Russell Butson, Harry McCracken, Arthur Green, Gage Halsted.

Freak Gale Causes Property Damage

Property damage and a flood condition were results of driving rain and hail storm that hit the Farmington area shortly after noon Monday. Wind, nearly reaching the hub caps of cars parked at the curb on some streets. The heavy downpour and hail caused ruin of many flower gardens in the vicinity. Green house owners suffered the greatest loss. The hail broke panes of glass in a number of green houses. City property owners reported flooded basements following the rain. Older residents of the area were of the opinion the rain was the heaviest in several years.

Harold and Mrs. Jamieson returned on Monday from a visit of several days from Mr. Jamieson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jamieson of Owendale.

County Tag Day To Be June 26

Plans are well under way for the annual County Tag Day, sponsored by the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary to be conducted simultaneously in every city and village of the County on the last Saturday of June. This day has been set aside in Oakland County especially for the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Tag Day.

Proceeds from previous Tag Days have enabled the Hospital to continue the work of the Clinic a very worthwhile activity that has been carried on for the past seven years.

Mrs. Schulte has charge of Tag Day in Farmington, to be held Saturday, June 26, 1937. She greatly desires your cooperation in making this year the best yet.
