Exchange Vows By Candlelight

MRS. JAMES M. HEARD
(Denise L. Grout)

Susan Kesler Wed To David Berge

A candlelight ceremony July 3 in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church in Livonia united Susan Gayle Kesler and David Scott Berge in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kesler of Grove Drive, Livonia. Dr. and Mrs. W. Berge of Pittsford, N.Y., are the bridegroom's parents. The Rev. Arthur Beumler officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Shirley Hardin on a harpsichord.

THE BRIDE'S gown was silk organza with alencon lace trimming the sheer sleeves and bordering the train. A camelot headpiece held her fingertip veil, and her cascade bouquet was of phalaenopsis orchids, ivy and stephanotis. Kathy Kesler, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a white

In a candlelight ceremony held in the Rosedale Park Lutheran Church, Saturday, July 10, Denise Louise Grout became the bride of James Marvin Heard. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Herbert Kaas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Grout of Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard, also of Plymouth, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

ALENCON LACE appliques embroidered with pearls were scattered on the bride's white silk organza gown and chapel length train. An elbow length veil of imported silk illusion was held by a floral headpiece trimmed in bouvardia flowers.

The bride's sister, Cheryl Ann, was the maid of honor, and the matron of honor was Nancy Johnston. Bridesmaids were Kathleen Logie, Mary Swanson and Pamela Powell. Julie Blount, the bride's cousin, and Shelley Heard, sister of the bridegroom, were the junior bridesmaids. Kathleen Heard, the bridegroom's sister, was the flower girl.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns of yellow peau de sole with mock vests of moss green Venice lace and carried bouquets of miniature white and yellow sweetheart roses. Dressed in white, the flower girl carried a nosegay of white and yellow daisies.

JACK JOHNSTONE was the best man. Robert Heard, Richard Blount and David Savage were the ushers. Guy Grout and David Blount were the junior ushers. They wore black brocade tuxedos in Edwardian style and white ruffled shirts.

For the dinner reception in the Mayflower Meeting House, the bride's mother chose a powder blue silk worsted gown with a beaded empire waist. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale pink gown with a beaded bodice. The mothers wore corsages of white sweetheart roses and the bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Rhoads, received a white orchid corsage.

After honeymooning at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, the newlyweds will live in Plymouth where the bridegroom will be employed as a printing representative.

Linda Parker Is Bride

Two Livonians who attended Schoolcraft College, Linda Susan Parker, and Hugh O. Walton, were married July 10 in St. Edith Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Parker of Summers Street, Livonia, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris G. Walton of Texas Street, Livonia.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown styled with a Venetian lace bodice and sleeves and a white crepe floor-length skirt. The long veil formed a train and was bordered with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, ivy and white sweetheart roses centered with a yellow sweetheart rose corsage.

Diane Parker was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a sleeveless yellow floral print gown with a scoop neckline. She wore yellow roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of yellow, white and orange daisies. Jayne Reynolds and Kyle Button of Livonia and Linda Gerbest of Akron, Ohio, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor. They wore white daisies in their hair and carried bouquets of white and yellow daisies.

HARVEY BRANDON of Livonia was best man and Ken Anderson of Toledo, Brian Walton of Detroit, the bridegroom's cousin, and Bruce Parker, the bride's brother, were the ushers. Mrs. Parker wore a sleeveless lime green chiffon dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a light beige dress with lace sleeves. A reception was held in Roma Hall.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan. They will live in Westland.

The bride graduated from Stevenson High School and attended Schoolcraft. The bridegroom graduated from Franklin High School and from Schoolcraft. He is presently attending the School of Architecture at Lawrence Institute of Technology in Southfield.
