IRVING THEATRE FEATURES DRAMA, COMEDY, MYSTERY

A drama in the clouds "Reported Missing" with William Gargan and Jean Rogers, and "When Thief Meets Thief" featuring Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Valerie Hobson, comprise the double feature at the Irving Theatre, Friday and Saturday. For the matinee on Saturday, there will be a Kiddle Cartoon Party and the eighth episode of "S.O.S. Coastguard." The Saturday midnight feature, at no extra cost, will show Warren William and Madeline Carroll in "Midnight Madonna."

Two great pictures will make up the bill for the big double feature program Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. "The Man Who Cried Wolf" with Lewis Stone, Barbara Read and Tom Brown and "Easy Living" with those two stellar performers in the leading roles, Jean Arthur and Edward Arnold. The program will also include an interesting edition of "The March of Time" and selected short subjects.

The last feather party will be held on Monday, December 20th at 9 p. m.

Visits Home Town

Howard Elsenrod, one of the most active members of Groves-Walker Post, American Legion, when he lived in Farmington, and a past commander of the post, is a visitor in Farmington from his home in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he is a guard at the Federal prison. His arrival was timely in that it enabled him, on the third day of his stay, to assist when fire broke out at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Eisenrod.

'PARENTS NIGHT' IS PLANNED BY BOY SCOUTS

A "Parents Night" to be held some time in January is engaging the attention of Boy Scouts of Troop 45, Farmington. The date will be announced soon.

The troop has made plans for filling Christmas baskets and is ready to aid other organizations in delivering baskets.

A committee of Scouts has been selected to take charge of ushering at the Band Concert to be given December 21. Elmer McCurdy is in charge.

It is hoped to have all candidates for membership in the troop tested or more advanced and the troop in uniform by the time of the big Round-Up, February 25.

At the regular meeting of Troop 45 a demonstration of wood and soap carving was given. The scouts are becoming interested in making things out of wood. Some of this work will apply on their merit badges and advancement in Scouting.

Scouts appreciate having parents at regular meetings as well as at the special events. Parents are urged to attend and see and hear what your boys are doing.

New Marking System Installed In School

This year the Farmington High School students find a new system of marking of their cards. They not only receive their grades on their cards but also citizenship marks. The citizenship marks are figured on this basis: (1) Very good conduct in class, (2) Good citizen in school, (3) Average citizen in school, (4) Poor attitude toward school, (5) Very poor attitude toward school.

To be on the honor roll this year the students must have at least a "B" average in both grades and citizenship.

CHINATOWN TALKS LONGEST AFTER MIDNIGHT

Midnight is one of the peak hours for calls in San Francisco's famous Chinatown telephone central office. The Chinese do not gossip or use their telephones at great length during business hours, but when the theatres let out at midnight, they are wont to call up their friends and engage in long conversations.

News items are always welcome by this newspaper.
