WEST FARMINGTON

Mrs. Edward Grimmer entertained the West Farmington Extension Group at her home on Halsted Road, Thursday, January 27, with an attendance of seventeen members and two visitors. A lesson on "Candle Wick Tinting" was given by the leaders, Mrs. Dorothy Korman and Mrs. Emma Kurtz.

The officers of the Willing Workers, an organization for the benefit of the West Farmington Cemetery, have postponed the February 6 meeting, to be held at a later date.

Several from here attended the family supper given by the W. C. T. U. at the Methodist Church at Walley Lake Thursday evening.

Mrs. Lawrence Geiger and son Lee called on Edith Graham Friday afternoon.

William Knapp has been out of school Monday and Tuesday with a bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp entertained the Walley Lake Baptist choir members at a birthday lunch and party at their home, Saturday evening, in honor of their son William Knapp's birthday anniversary.

START NEW PROJECTS

Students in both the Art and the Art and Crafts classes are making projects of papier-mache.

They mold their project of clay, let the clay harden, and then oil it well. After they have the object oiled well they paste strips of paper over it until it is the right thickness. When the mache is thoroughly dried, the clay is broken and removed from the inside. The object is now ready to be painted. Many serviceable and interesting objects have been made in this manner.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE ROLL
Forty students of Farmington High School have a clean record for absence and tardiness for the first semester of the current school year. These students have not been absent or tardy since school started last September.

The Sophomore Class leads the high school with fifteen members with perfect attendance records. The Freshmen are second with eleven and the Seniors and Juniors have seven and six respectively.

The names of those students having perfect attendance records appear below:

GIRLS' TEAM IMPROVES

There was only three points difference in the final score of the girls' game last Friday evening at Keego Harbor which the Keego Harbor girls won 12 to 9.

The game was both close and exciting throughout. At the end of each quarter except the last, the score was tied.

Farmington took an early lead of four points on baskets by Meryl Markle and Ruth Kripko, but Keego Harbor rallied and scored the next three baskets to take the lead 5 to 4. Meryl Markle scored the final basket of the first half and the score was tied at six points.

Only four points were scored in the third quarter, a basket for Keego Harbor and a basket by Jean Reid for Farmington.

Going into the last quarter with the score tied at eight points, Keego Harbor scored two baskets while Farmington was only able to score one point on a foul shot by Meryl Markle and when the whistle blew ending the game, Keego Harbor was leading 12 to 9.

GRADE NEWS
The following children have their names on the Reading Club Honor Chart because they have read and reported on ten or more books.

Margaret Brown, Billy Dalnes, Lillian Douglas, Elizabeth Goodfellow, Naomi Green, Betty Hull, Elizabeth Johnson, Robert Miller, Marie O'Connor, Marjorie Schroeder, Elliott Tyler, Willie Van Hull, Allan Warner.

We have about twenty-five good books in our room library. It has been fun getting books this year. We pay fines if we keep a book longer than one day without checking it in and also for leaving our desks untidy at night. We had a Christmas gift shop and sold real gifts. We made a little money. With the gift shop money we bought two good books, one by Bianco, "The Good Friends," and the other by Myers and Embree, "Pioneers and Their Children."

The other nine books which we bought are: "Bambole"—Saltin; "Fairy Tales"—Grimm; "Granny's Wonderful Chair"—Browne; "Heldi"—Johanna Spyri; "Mitzi and Fritz of Germany"—Brandels; "Little Dutch Tulip Girl"—Brandels; "Adventures of Danny Merriow"—Morse; "Burgess"—Here Trucks; "Here"—L. Mitchell; "Mary Poppins"—Traverse.

Mr. Burns has added the following books to our library for which we are very grateful.

"Three Little Warriors"—Wheelock; "Carlos and Lola"—Sowers; "The Book of Cowboys"—Halliday; "Wheels and Trains"—Peteraborn; "Japanese Twins"—Lucy Perkins; "Swiss Twins"—Lucy Fitch Perkins; "Norwegian Twins"—Lucy Fitch Perkins; "Here's Juggins"—Amy Stone; "Nancy Alden"—Eliza White; "Little Jeannes Henry"—Billie Crude.

LOSLEY CORNERS

Among those from Hope Chapel who attended the Christian Education Conference held at Hill Crest, Detroit, were Mr. Goodfellow, Henry and Mrs. Stuart, Walter and Mrs. Dixon, Rev. and Mrs. Knepp, and Mrs. Robert Fredericks. Following supper a most instructive program was carried out.

Rev. C. E. Bagwell, former pastor at Hope Chapel spoke on "Christian Education." Dr. Richardson from Benton Harbor on "The Adult Problem." Dr. Hutton, pastor of Hill Crest, on "Evangelism." The guest speaker, being Dr. Ralph Mofsee, well known as the Secretary for the Detroit Council of Churches, Dr. Mofsee gave a three point address that was most inspiring.

Point 1, the true meaning of the term "Protestantism." Point 2, "The Need of Reverence in Our Churches." Point 3, "The Need for Trained Teachers in Religious Instruction."

Sunday School board meeting Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon.

The Woman's Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. William Horie, on Middle Belt Road. A class on interior decorating sponsored by the Wayne University will meet Wednesday mornings for a period of 8 weeks, also at the home of Mrs. Horie.

Cliff Brown, wholesale egg dealer combined business with pleasure last week. Taking his mother and dad along, stopping to visit relatives at Yale before going to Peck.

The Woman's Aid will serve a Father and Son Banquet to the Otterbein Brotherhood, February 25.

Robert and Harold Grossnickle are ill with colds. Mrs. E. Spretnue has an infected ear. A speedy recovery is hoped for all by their friends.

SITE GRADING COSTS $2,200,000
Such was the condition of the site of the New York World's Fair of 1939 when its engineers took it in hand, that the task of leveling the ground entailed the moving of 6,800,000 cubic yards of earth and earth at a cost of $2,200,000. But this great amount of work was accomplished in 190 days by shifts of workmen employed twenty-four hours a day.

INSTALLER FINDS MISSING LAD AS PHONE HELPS HUNT

When a two-year-old child strayed away from his home in Washington, D. C. recently and was missing for about seven hours, his mother realized how necessary a telephone in the house was. She had been using a neighbor's telephone to spread the alarm, but as evening came on, the need of a telephone in the home became even more apparent.

Arrangements were made with the telephone company whereby the telephone could be installed immediately. This was done, and while the installer, William Hoofnagle, was working, the child's mother showed him a picture of the missing youngster. He finished the installation and left.

In fifteen minutes he returned with the missing child.

Some ten or twelve blocks away he had encountered two boys with the youngster and, having seen his photograph, identified him at once.

LOWER ACCIDENT RATES
CUT PREMIUMS

Improvement in the highway accident experience should ultimately result in a reduction in insurance costs. Preventable accidents are responsible for a tremendous economic loss that comes as a result of handicaps and permanent injuries received to these accidents, property damage, the loss to business as a result of time lost by executives or employees and the interruption of service due to damaged equipment.

The standard drivers' license law, now operating efficiently in many states and the District of Columbia is a tested remedy, not an experiment.
