

"I'm glad we've got a Telephone"

WORRY...grandmothers, mothers and wives are especially subject to it. But they have fewer causes for worry when there's a telephone in the house!

For the telephone can cheer an anxious heart and fill a day with happiness. It can send warning of a tardy arrival... make a last-minute change in plans. It protects in emergencies as nothing else can. It lightens housework... increases social pleasures... often saves carfare or traveling expense. It enables employers to reach you easily and without delay.

And the telephone does all this so economically that it pays its way in service rendered daily.

SKIPPER ON TRIP TO MAKE FIRST OF ADVENTURE SERIES

The World Adventure Series of the Detroit Institute of Arts announces that its fall season will open Sunday, October 9, with a motion picture lecture, "Around the World in the Schooner Yankee," by Capt. Irving Johnson, famous author and adventurer. Captain Johnson is on the trip now and will return to this country shortly before he is scheduled to appear in Detroit.

Other world celebrities on the World Adventure Series next fall are Dr. Raymond L. Ditmars, curator of reptiles and mammals at the New York Zoo; Dr. Fay Cooper Cole, explorer and scientist; Dr. Colin Ross, famous German writer of travel books; Hettie Dylrenthorp, holder of the world's record for women in mountain climbing; Fred Payne Clatworthy, world traveler and photographer; Dr. Robert Cushman Murphy, explorer, and Julien Bryan, whose documentary films and lectures on Russia have entertained several capacity audiences in Detroit. Two other outstanding speakers will be announced later.

At the present the World Adventure Series is accepting reservations for season tickets covering all 10 of next fall's lectures. The season ticket affords the purchaser a considerable saving and entitles him to the same choice seat throughout the entire series. A small deposit holds the reservation until next fall. The World Adventure Series is located in the Detroit Institute of Arts, telephone Temple 2-7675.

Scout News

Troop 45 held an outdoor meeting Monday. Fourteen boys were present. A campfire lighted the field where the game, "Capture the Flag," was played. The Scoutmaster played on team 1 and guarded the prisoners so well that his team flag was in no danger and his master was able to capture the enemy's flag.

Around the campfire, Lee Monts, assistant scoutmaster, told of some campers who went out to look for a bear and found a porcupine.

After the troop was dismissed, a committee remained to extinguish the fire.

Troop members are looking forward to another outdoor meeting.

Our next Court of Honor comes Monday, May 2. Every member of the troop is asked to work on advancement and help recover the trophy captured by the Bond School troop.

Plan to go to summer camp. Ask the Scouts about the Camporee.

The University of British Columbia, via rugby team, champions of the province, has been invited to participate in the rugby tournament of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

OBITUARY

Mary A. Kennedy, daughter of William and Ann Kennedy was born in Farmington February 21, 1871, in the home on Grove street, where she passed away.

With the exception of a few years spent in Detroit, Northville and Grand Rapids, her entire life was spent in the place of her birth. Always active and interested in the church, library and Woman's Club, she always was ready to do her part.

She sang in the choir of the Baptist, Methodist and Universalist churches and in all the entertainments in the village, but during the past few years her strength failed her and she had to give up the many things she enjoyed.

She was the village librarian for 34 years until her death, which came suddenly Tuesday morning, April 12, 1938.

She leaves one brother, Michael Kennedy of Redford, and two sisters, Mrs. Flora Hendryx and Mrs. Lucy Steele of Farmington.

Edgar Kennedy and family of Detroit; Mrs. Mabel Pray, Toledo, Ohio; Meredith Steele and family, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Helen Bond, Pontiac, and Leo Hendryx and family, Farmington, are the nieces and nephews together with many cousins she left to mourn her loss.

Her funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Heene Funeral Home, with Rev. George Gullen of Detroit, former pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

WEST FARMINGTON

George B. Heliker who attends the University of Michigan, spent his Easter vacation last week with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Graham entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDonald of Royal Oak, Mrs. and Mrs. George Graham and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham of Walled Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Graham of West Farmington at Easter dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are the parents of a baby boy. Mrs. Johnson was Miss Velma Power. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. Sarah Murry called on her daughter, Mrs. Lowell Hunt, and family of Square Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heliker entertained the Walled Lake Baptist choir at a party Wednesday at their home on Maple Road. Mrs. Anthony Olvick called on Mrs. Edith Graham Tuesday. Charlotte Heliker, Dorothy Colstock, Evelyn See, Leola See, Marian See, Raymond See, William Knapp and John Olson took part in a cantata at Walled Lake Baptist church Sunday evening.
