

27 Farmington Girls Await Camp High Oaks Opening

The younger girls of this vicinity are patiently counting the days until July 5, which marks the opening of Camp High Oaks, located on the plot of ground north of Shawwassee and Grand River Roads, formerly owned by the Rev. Marquis.

Camp High Oaks, the name adopted by the group, will be open to girls in this area between the ages of 10 and 14, every Tuesday from July 5 through to August 23, from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. To join the camp the girls need not be affiliated with the girl scouts.

Outdoor activities will consist primarily of sketching, puppetry, folk dancing, clay modeling, cookery, signaling, trail riding, nature study and observation. Visitors will be permitted to watch the group from 1:30 to 3:30.

SATURDAY IS ALL COUNTY TAG DAY IN FARMINGTON

The annual All-County Tag Day will be held in Farmington Saturday, June 25. Sponsored by St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital Auxiliary, the event is to be held at the proceeds are to be used to aid in maintaining the clinic and other departments.

Simultaneously conducted in every city and village in Oakland County on Saturday, the local collections are under the supervision of Mrs. John J. Schutte and Mrs. Joseph DeVriendt.

For the past eight years tag day proceeds and other welfare projects have made it possible for the hospital to operate the clinic. Approximately 6800 cases were handled by the clinic last year.

Much has been accomplished by the wholehearted cooperation of all our citizens interested in the alleviation of suffering of our unfortunate neighbors," stated an auxiliary member, "and the committee hopes that this year the response from every section of the county will be as generous as heretofore. This is one cause that appeals to all of us, for we never know when illness or disaster will strike a member of our own family, therefore the committee welcomes the pennies, nickels, dimes and generous contributions from those who give them, and above all those

DETROIT DRIVER FINED FOR RUNNING TRAFFIC LIGHT

Edmund Bruze, 23, of 9682 Prairie avenue, Detroit, paid $15 and "heard the balance of his sentence suspended following his conviction on charges of failing to stop for the Farmington Road highway and being involved in an accident. Bruze, who was arrested at Nine Mile and Farmington Roads, May 30, at 7:10 p. m., was ordered by Judge John J. Schutte to pay a fine of $25 and costs amounting to $3.35 or spend 15 days in the Oakland County Jail.

Counting not guilty to charges when he appeared before Judge Schutte June 4, a trial was set for June 10. He was released on his personal recognizance.

Pay Fines
Three other drivers who were charged with various traffic offenses also paid fines.

Earl Guerne, 8016 Lyford, Detroit, was arrested by Deputy Joseph DeVriendt charged with passing another car on a hill and curve. He pleaded guilty and paid $5 in costs.

Pleading guilty to charges of running through a red signal light at U. S. 24 and Northwestern Highway on June 11 at 2 p. m. Valno E. Antkaman, 39, paid $1 in costs.

Thomas Reasoner, 33, of 2712 Northwestern Highway, was ordered by Judge Schutte to pay $3.35 in costs. He pleaded guilty to charges of driving 40 miles an hour through the Novi business district on Grand River Road May 8 at 5 p. m.

Two drivers heard their sentences suspended and one case was dismissed because the arrest was made in Wayne County.

Edgar McLaughlin, 40, a tool maker who lives at 5102 Spuyman avenue, Detroit, who has been driving for 23 years, had his sentence suspended after he procured a permit for a new operator's license. He was charged with driving a car after his former license had expired.

A suspended sentence was given Earl McHale, 21, of 6628 West Eight Mile Road. When charged with driving a car against traffic on Eight Mile Road he pleaded guilty. He told Judge Schutte that he was in a hurry to get some medicine for his mother.

The case against James R.

SHIELDS, 12803 HUBBELL AVENUE, DETROIT, WAS DISMISSED WHEN IT WAS LEARNED THAT HIS ALLEGED VIOLATION OCCURRED IN WAYNE COUNTY.

SUNSHINE SPECIAL LEAVES SCHOOL TUESDAY NOON

"All aboard on the Sunshine Special" will be the cry that 200 Farmington children will hear on Tuesday, June 25, when the annual children's outing sponsored by the Exchange Clubs of the Metropolitan area will be held at Edgewater Park.

Three school buses will transport the Farmington youngsters to the park. They will leave the high school at 12:30. Members of the committee will accompany the group.

An afternoon of rides and fun followed by a picnic will be given each child. The rides will be free.

Tickets for 200 children, including a group from the Sarah Fisher Home, will be available. The Farmington High School Band will furnish music at the outing.

Twenty Exchange clubs from this area are bringing children to the park. The committee will be divided into two sections. Children under 10 years of age will form one group, and those over 10 will be in a second section.

Members of the Farmington Exchange club will pay the expenses for the local group. The committee for this outing includes: Judge John J. Schutte, chairman, Paul Park, Earl Covert, Emory Heston, Howard Ott, Mathon Bradley and Dr. G. F. Weaver.

Holly Plans Centennial Celebration July 2

Holly, a village of 2,500, in Oakland county, is completing plans for a three-day Centennial celebration which will occur on July 2, 3, and 4. A committee of over 300 people has been taking an active part in the plans for the past several months. A continuous program is expected to be the most elaborate of any ever held in a town of its size, will fill every minute of the three days. Located as it is at the intersection of the Grand Trunk and Pere Marquette railways, half way between Flint and Pontiac, just off the Dixie Highway, and only 45 miles from Detroit, Holly is expected to play host to the greatest assemblage of people in the history. Featuring the Centennial program will be the daily showing of an historical pageant in which nearly 200 Holly people will take part.

Ganges Water Sacred
Benares, India, is the center of the real Hindu life and religion. Swarms of pilgrims travel miles to bathe in the sacred waters of the Ganges—to drink and have their faces—bathed. In their belief, washing away their sins and assuring the salvation of their souls. They stand by the hundreds waist deep in the murky water, lips moving in prayer, oblivious in their religious fervor to the curious onlookers. The terraced slopes leading to the river are crowded with priests, sacred cattle and many of India's three million holy men.

Oil Shale
Oil shale, a sedimentary deposit in which hydrocarbons are tightly locked in the rock structure, contains an oil reserve of 800 billion barrels, equivalent to a two-hundred years' supply. It would, according to an authority, produce enough gasoline to run all the motorcars in the world for four hundred years. The United States possesses more than a third of this reserve. Chicago is built on such a strata.

Fantasia, Musical Composition
A fantasia is a musical composition which is not restricted to any formal design or theme, but is freely constructed according to the composer's fancy. Examples of fantasia are found in the works of Bach, Brahms, Schumann and other composers. The term is also applied to melodies of popular airs.

Purpose of Banding Birds
Banding is done to make possible the scientific study of the habits and travels of migratory birds. Investigators trap the birds, attach numbered bands and release them. Information concerning each banded bird is filed in Washington, and when the birds are captured again reports are filed and the data traced.

"Music on the wires" is an apt title for this photograph of a myriad of birds which, bound North on their spring flight, paused to rest on these telephone wires in North Carolina. Only a little imagination is needed to see them as notes on a music staff drawn against the sky.

YOUNGSTER GETS INTO JAM WITH POLICE

Out of one kind of jam, into another, was the experience of a small boy in Boston a short time ago. Answering the telephones at the police station, an officer heard a child's voice demanding a patrol wagon and "a couple of cops in a hurry." The station was thrown into commotion until someone managed to make out that the voice at the other end of the wire belonged to a seven-year-old boy, and that he was complaining to the police because his ten-year-old brother wouldn't let him in the pantry for some crackers and jam. The officer advised the boy to let his brother to let him in the pantry and if it didn't do the trick and a patrol wagon would be sent. As there was no further call, it was assumed that the youngster was able to get his jam.
