

SALESMAN HEARS TRAFFIC VIOLATION CHARGE SUSPENDED

A Detroit salesman heard his sentence suspended by Judge John J. Schulte on charges of a traffic violation to which he pleaded guilty after he told the court that he possessed a merit card and a safety badge.

John Bell, 37, of 6627 Walton Street, Detroit, was arrested and charged with improper overtaking and passing on a hill on Grand River Road. When he answered before Judge Schulte this week he stated that he had never before received a traffic violation ticket of any kind, and that he had received a merit card for 15 years of safe driving, and a five year safety badge from his employers, the Goebel Brewing Company.

Three other drivers received suspended sentences, including a Farmington man, Edward Christensen, 28, an unemployed factory worker, who lives at 27305 Byron street, Southfield Township, had his sentence suspended Tuesday, although earlier in the month he had been ordered to pay costs amounting to $2.55. He was arrested May 29 charged with failing to stop for a through highway at the M-102 and Seminole intersection.

Suspended Sentences
Suspended sentences were also received by Napoleon J. Doniphe, 21732 Colgate avenue, Farmington Township, who was charged with failing to halt for a stop sign at a Farmington Road crossing, and Charles Cassin, 25, of 22342 Lakeway street, charged with failing to halt for a highway at Ludvig and Grand River.

Costs were paid by three drivers this week who pleaded guilty before Judge Schulte. Charges of passing on a hill over the yellow line on Grand River Road were made against Alvin Horan, 55, of 2919 Fifth street, Wyandotte, and Bartholomew Naso, 46 West Hancock street, Detroit. Horan paid costs amounting to $6 and Naso was fined $5.

Charged with driving against traffic on the Farmington Cut-Off, Henry Allemang, 1723 Wood Street, Melvindale plumber, paid $5 in costs.

Passing on a grade over the yellow line on Grand River Road was the charge made by a state trooper against Joseph A. Bickel, 41, of 12110 Mack Street, Detroit. When he was called away from the city on June 19 due to the death of a brother in Omaha, Albert Cottsem mailed $3 to Judge Schulte.

Ganges Water Sacred
Benares, India, is the center of the real Hindu life and religion. Swarms of pilgrims travel miles to bathe in the sacred waters of the Ganges—to drink and lave their faces—thus, in their belief, washing away their sins and assuring the salvation of their souls. They stand by the hundreds waist deep in the murky water, lips moving in prayer, oblivious to their religious fervor to curious onlookers. The terraced slopes leading to the river are crowded with priests, sacred cattle and many of India's three million holy men.

Ton of Blocks of Frozen Coffee is New Wrinkle for Dodging Heat-Waves on Grand Scale

THE Cakes? No—coffee cakes, but not the kind you dunk! More than a ton of 500-pound blocks of frozen coffee is shown here, ready for the use of ice-coffee orders expected as a result of Ice-Coffee Week and July heat-waves. Joseph Welsh, kitchen chef of the Hotel New Yorker, shown above, keeps this supply on hand for ice-coffee orders, using it as a base to avoid dilution and loss of flavor.

CITY NINE TO PLAY THREE CONTESTS THIS WEEK END

Providing the weatherman places his approval the Farmington Merchants Baseball team will have a busy week end on the home field when they play three games in three days.

After having been rained out last Sunday, when they were scheduled to play the Detroit Flash Lights, Manager H. P. Brennan's charges hope to make a creditable show-up against some high caliber opposition this week end. They will play the Wolverine Tool aggregation on Saturday, the Turpin A. C., a fast colored team, on Sunday, and the Novi Merchants nine on the Monday holiday.

The Wolverine Tool is a Detroit Federation Class A team, that is winning games at present in the elimination series of the Federation.

Farmington's Merchants have defeated the Novi nine on one occasion already this season, but Manager Fred Tremblay, has bolstered his Novi squad considerably and promises to give the locals some stiff opposition.

Harold Westphal, the big left-hander of the Farmington team, is scheduled to pitch one of the three games, Brennan states. All games are to be played on the Farmington Field, in the City Park, and are scheduled to begin at 2:30.

Purpose of Banding Birds
Bandings is done to make possible the scientific study of the habits and travels of migratory birds. Investigators trap the birds, attach numbered bands and release them. Information concerning each banded bird is filed in Washington, and when the birds are captured again reports are filed and the data traced.

COMMERCE MAN AWAITS SECOND APPEARANCE

Barney Poplaski, of Commerce Township, awaits his second appearance before Judge John J. Schulte, of Farmington, on charges of felonious assault.

Poplaski was remanded back to Judge Schulte for further examination by order of Judge George Hart, following the hearing of arguments by P. Gillette, attorney for the defendant and William Deheny, assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland County. Gillette moved to have the charges dismissed against Poplaski.

Police arrested Poplaski April 13 following a complaint made by Mrs. Lavern Richardson, also of Commerce Township. The complaint states that Lavern Richardson was assaulted with "a dangerous weapon: one 12 gauge shotgun but without intending to commit the crime of murder and without intending to inflict great bodily harm, less than the crime of murder."

Poplaski was examined before Judge Schulte May 6, and bound over to the present term of the Circuit Court. He was released on $1,000 bond.

dressed in pink silk marquisette and carried a bouquet of bronze snapdragons mixed with sprays of white baby breath. Bridesmaids Gladys and Marcella Bachelor wore pale blue and pink marquisette, respectively. Earl Billings, dressed in blue and white, was the ring bearer.

Brothers Usher

Harry Killing was the groom's attendant. Two brothers of the bride, Russell and Donald Bachelor, were ushers.

Places were laid for 80 guests at the reception in the church dining hall following the wedding.

Friends were present from Farmington, Pontiac, Birmingham, Walled Lake, Detroit, Royal Oak, and Spencer and Merrill, Wisconsin. Mrs. Herman Packham, of Spencer, the groom's mother, was in attendance.

The couple left for a trip to Niagara Falls, and will return to Farmington before leaving for their new home in Spencer, where the groom is employed.

Spicer Newlyweds
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spicer, a third couple in the newlywed group will reside on Grand River west of Farmington with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Spicer, after their return this week end from a honeymoon trip to Canada and Eastern United States.

They were married at a quiet and informal ceremony at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Borchert, on Ten Mile Road. Rev. C. H. Schultz performed the ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Doris Schroeder and David Spicer, brother of the groom. A reception followed.

Helen Buck

Helen Buck, daughter of Mrs. Irene Buck, of Jefferson Avenue, Clarencville, became the bride of Kenneth Roche of Redford, in an attractive lawn wedding, at the home of the bride's mother Saturday evening at 7:30. Rev. Mosner, of the Redford Lutheran church, officiated.

The bride wore a delicate blue satin gown, with a veil to match. Her cousin Irene Lydion, of Detroit, the bridesmaid, was also dressed in blue. Russell Buck, the bride's brother, was the groom's attendant.

Miss Buck was given in marriage by her brother, William. The wedding march was played by Kenneth Stone of Detroit, on a vibraphone. The couple are at home on Chatham Avenue, Detroit. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roche of Redford.

You Can Depend on the Man Who ADVERTISES

Nine times out of ten you will find that the man who advertises is the man who most willingly returns your money if you are not satisfied.

He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on him.

He is not in business for today or tomorrow only ... but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good-will.

You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.

Don't miss the advertisements. This very day they call your attention to values that tomorrow you will be sorry you overlooked.
