40 HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS ANSWER FOOTBALL CALL

Flying footballs... Cleats dig, landing tactics... Headers crashing... Drops of sweat... Grimy faces.

That is the picture that will be portrayed daily at the High School Athletic Field from now until September 22. There will be no "Yeah, team" boomed. No fans will cheer. Only the electrified voices

George Higgins, Ferndale automobile dealer, is a Republican Candidate for State Representative. Reared on a farm in Chippewa County for 18 years, an ardent of the public school and high school teacher, Miss. Circumstances made it necessary for him to begin work at an early age. He has been a farmer, drug store clerk, railroad brakeman, shop mechanic and automobile salesman.

In June 1925 he was the champion salesman for one of the major automobile manufacturers, selling more cars than any other salesman in the United States. He then became a dealer.

George Higgins has been active in the Oakland County Lincoln Republican Club for years, and he is now Chairman of the Oakland County Republican Club. He has served on the Ferndale City Commission; as a trustee of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and has represented his City for several years on the Board of Supervisors. He has also served as President of the Automobile Dealers Association.

He is the father of four children; has lived in Ferndale since 1925, and owns his own home. He is a member of the Ferndale Oddfellows, Elks, Masons and Rotary Club.

In regard to his candidacy Mr. Higgins said:

"I pretend to be nothing that I am not. I am a common man and a plain business man. I am also a good Republican. I have made good in my own business and managed to keep my men employed during this recession. I can handle the job as your State Representative."

of the coaches will rise above the swish of football paraphernalia. Farmington has several secret toe-tote with conference opponents, and Coach Paul Shoemaker knows that only a polished eleven can turn the tables this year against Walled Lake and Keego Harbor.

Suits issued Wednesday to some 40 hopefuls who are enthusiastic to slip their wares under the First drill on their fundamentals and calisthenics is being held this Thursday, as this paper is going to press.

Shoemaker has promised his changes two workouts daily, at 9 in the morning and 2 in the afternoon.

noon. The Coach and his Assistant, Benton Ewer, will give their candidates a conditioning program for two weeks, thus cutting down the possibilities of injuries. No scrimmages will be held before then.

Invitations to attend practice were issued to 40 boys, but the Coach believes he might have missed some of the boys and that probably 50 youths will be found on hand to participate in the drills. Practice is open to all of the high school boys, Shoemaker emphasized.

Falls caused 26,673 deaths in the United States in 1936, the U. S. Census Bureau reports.
