Afternoon Rites Unite Wagners

Bonnie Lynn Liebler became the bride of John Paul Wagner in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, Aug. 14, in the Dexter Gospel Church of Dexter, Mich.

for her duties as matron of honor. Her gown had a fitted bodice with daisy trim and a high collar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Liebler of Dexter, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wagner of Livonia are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Henry Campbell officiated. Russel Liebler, the bride's uncle, was soloist, and Mrs. Carlos Markgraf, her aunt, was at the piano.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of white chiffon over taffeta, with fitted bodice, high collar and Schiffl embroidery trim. Schiffl embroidery also trimmed the silk illusion veil that fell from a headpiece of venetian lace daisies, and she carried white daisies.

Mrs. Richard Zeeb, of Pinckney, sister of the bride, wore pink chiffon over taffeta Cynthia Kay Liebler and Kristen Zeeb, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Their dresses were pink dotted swiss.

WILLIAM WAGNER of Detroit, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. The ushers were William Burdick of Detroit and William Hagedorn of Livonia. Richard Brian Zeeb, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

For the wedding and church reception, Mrs. Liebler selected a pink silk gown with an embroidered organza coat. Mrs. Wagner was in mint green.

After greeting 150 guests, the couple left for a northern Michigan honeymoon. They will live in Plymouth Township.
