Losey Corners Hears News From Flood Area

People in the Middle West were concerned with the European crisis for several weeks, and have wrought out Elsie by a furious mother Nature, was subdued in papers as a consequence. Residents of the Losey Corners community were aware of a disaster in the New England states, but it was not until this week that they received a true conception of the calamity.

Losey Corners residents are receiving accurate details this week from two sources, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield, both of whom have relatives in the storm area, received pictures which vividly portray the damage incurred there. Mr. Mansfield's sister was obliged to leave her home, which was flooded, and which is a total loss, according to word received.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rewey, also of Losey Corners, who were visiting relatives there, have returned and are telling of the suffering and loss suffered through that part of the country.

HOLLY WILL OPEN FARMINGTON'S HOME SEASON

Farmington High School's home football season will be opened Friday, October 14, when a veteran Holly team will be the opposition. Coach Shoemaker and the team know it will be the biggest hurdle to date.

Another task awaits the local team before that, however, for Farmington will travel to Milford this Friday, in search of their second conference victory, and third win of the season. The coaches worked hard this week to instill some of the fire that the team displayed in the Flat Rock game, and which was missing last Saturday.

Milford will be out to avenge last year's defeat by Farmington, and have promised the locals a lively time. Milford played Brighton 6 to 6 in their conference opener Friday.

Win Opener
Farmington won their first game of the conference season last week when they defeated a not too impressive Clarkson aggregation, 7 to 0.

The locals scored early in the second quarter after completing a steady march from midfield. Ed Barrons made a five-yard smash through the line to ring up the game's only touchdown. Carl Hunt kicked the extra point.

Student Council members are in the midst of their season ticket campaign, and they urge students and adults to back the football team this year by purchasing passes.

Juniors Will Sponsor Football Dance Soon

The Junior Class of the High School will sponsor a football dance, Saturday, October 14, from 8 p. m. to 11:30 at the gymnasium. It was announced by the advisor, Emory Griffith. Proceeds will be used to help defray expenses for the "J" hop this Spring.

Music will be furnished by "The Mystery Boys," an organization composed of high school students. In charge of arrangements are Virginia Byrnes, Velma Woodley, Norman Parent, Jim Davis, and Betty Pangel.

The Juniors also picked and ordered their class rings this week.

CHANCE OF GOING ON FIRST TRIP THRILLS TEAM

Football players of the Junior High School team are all thrilled about playing their first game "on the road" for a glance at the schedule tells them that they are booked to play at Plymouth, Thursday, October 13. Plymouth is due to open the Farmington Junior High School's first season of football here Thursday, as this paper goes to press.

Being their first attempt at the sport, and their schedule just beginning, Coach William Drucker does not expect wonders from the boys. However, he has drilled them in the fundamentals, and expects them to make a capable showing.

What they lack in technical knowledge, they make up for in enthusiasm, the coach will tell you. All decked out in attractive new uniforms, the boys themselves are raring to go.

The next home game listed on the schedule is to be played Tuesday, October 18, when Farmington plays host to Grand Rapids. Tuesday Day school, in the first of a two game series. There will be no admission charged, and the public is invited to watch the youngsters romp about on the gridiron.

Farmington will join forces with the nation on October 27 in the observance of Navy Day. A proclamation to this effect was made to the residents by Mayor Howard M. Warner this week. The proclamation follows:

"WHEREAS, Navy Day will be observed throughout this nation on Thursday, October 27th, for the purpose of honoring the personnel and officers of our country's sea forces who stand ready to defend our land and institutions against invasion and aggression by sea; and to pay tribute to the memories of those who, since the establishment of our Navy by Act of Congress in 1775, have ever been ready to lay down their lives in the performance of their patriotic duties; and

"WHEREAS, that day will also be nationally observed as the anniversary of the birth of 'The Father of our Modern Navy,' Theodore Roosevelt, who brought sharply to our people the need for an adequate defense by sea; and

"WHEREAS, this nation always has been foremost in giving of its wise counsel for the preservation of worldwide peace, and today desires nothing more than the continued peace of the entire world, proposing to meddle not in the affairs of other nations and maintaining only its right to protect its shores, its institutions, and its people and their liberties;

"THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Howard M. Warner, Mayor of the City of Farmington, Michigan, by the virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do designate Thursday, October 27th, as Navy Day, so to be observed and celebrated in this community by the appropriate display of the national colors, and by means of such programs and patriotic meetings and observances as may be arranged to commemorate the occasion.

"FURTHER, I strongly urge that in all of the churches of this community, proper and appropriate note be made of this anniversary on Sunday, October 23rd, and that prayers be offered to Almighty God that our country may maintain its peace and dignity toward all other nations, at the same time continuing its splendid efforts and influence for peace among all the peoples of the world."

METHODIST CHURCH BRICK WORK IS BEING REPAIRED

The 16-year-old Farmington Methodist brick church is being remodeled, and the work is expected to be completed in about two weeks.

Brick work, particularly on the tower and gables, the cement sidewalk, and the eaves trough will receive the chief attention. The contract has been awarded to John Viver.

Some of the brick work was repaired eight or nine years ago. Little work has been done on the exterior since then.

After these repairs have been completed some might be done on the interior, although no definite plans have been made.

F. H. Nichols is in charge of the building plans. He is being assisted by A. C. Worsfold.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN EXTENSIVE FALL, WINTER PROGRAM

Boy Scouts of Farmington Troop are planning an extensive program for the fall and winter seasons. Each month is to see a new feature, it was decided by the Scouts at their meeting Monday night. To begin the monthly program the boys plan to hold week and hikes, one each month of the year.

Plans for a well formed program for the coming year were discussed Monday at the Scout meeting. Herbert Watson, assistant, and William Drucker, assistant, aided the Scouts in their plans.

Herbert Watson, head of Clinton Valley Council, and John Hunt, Scout Commissioner, were observed at the meeting.

Three Scouts have completed their 14-mile hike tests to gain advancement. They are: Ray McCurdy, Winston Edgar and James Youngblood.

Preparations are in progress for the Court of Honor Day, at which time each scout will be judged on his ability to advance. The local troop has one candidate in line for the Scout award. He is Robert Gullen.

Broken Needle Causes Near Serious Injury

Relief is expressed in the home of the Wray family of Shady Side avenue, West Point Park, this week, for possible disaster to Hilary Wray has been averted. Hilary's mother is reported recovering from an old accident, which, for a week, threatened her with serious injury.

According to an account received at this office the young girl recently was playing, without her mother's knowledge, with a needle which had been found in her mother's mending pile.

The next day Mrs. Wray discovered that the needle in her sewing pile was broken, and part of it was gone. Hurriedly the mother had her child brought home from school. When an examination was made by a doctor it was found that half the needle had been driven into the child's leg, and had penetrated the bone.

But for the prompt action of the neighbors, it is believed that the consequences might have been quite serious.

Epworth League Notes

By Carl Smith

At last that big Sunday in every Epworth League's heart has arrived. It's the day we get our membership cards. One Sunday morning every year, Rev. Stubbs has a special sermon set aside to give to the League. That morning Mrs. Stubbs has arrived and is ready to devote his entire morning service for you.

Imagine, Leaguers, Sunday, October 8th, is your day. That day, by the way, is the Sunday morning when you will take the League pledge and also receive your membership card which entitles you to all the social events that are sponsored by the League. Set this Sunday aside and make a special effort to be there. Bring your parents and friends. We would like to make an impression on the rest of the church and show them what a grand group of young people they have in their church. What do you say? Let's be there one hundred per cent.

It seems that I am always left out when the good things are happening. Take the speech which Ardy Water made last year. From all reports it was the best speech ever made by an Epworth Leaguer. I was out of town at the time but I was told I really missed something that was not to be missed this year because I have set Sunday aside on my calendar as Epworth League Sunday.

That's an idea. Why don't we have Epworth League Sunday? O.E.S. that's what it is. We should all set our previous engagements to the side and be there.

Now, looking into the future, we find on October 22nd, which is a Saturday, the Book festival. That was a big day in our lives last year when we gathered all the canned food and fresh vegetables together and took them over to the Old Peoples Home in Chelsea. Our truck broke down and we had flat tires, and everything seemed to happen but on top of it all every one had a swell time. That is another day we should set aside and plan to be there.

The Cabinet met Monday and picked out committees for each of the Departments. Ask your reporter which committee you are on. Don't worry, there are five of you on each committee and no one has to overwork himself. I'll be seeing you Sunday.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters To The Editor MUST be signed with the name of the person writing the letter. An address and name may be used and the writer's address will be published from publication upon request, but no letter without the true name of the writer will be published.

An explanation referring to my letter to The Enterprise of September 1, where I said I had been held up, robbed and lied about. Gossips and some others seem to think I am sore and flinching faint because I lost my property through the mortgage law, which is not so. At the time did you hear me whine or mention it?

No, I knew what the law was when I signed on the dotted line, but I didn't know and I don't think Gossip knew that property was going to be depreciated as it did.

What I was referring to, was: if some one charged you $6,000 for $4,000, even if they were within the law, what would you call that?

When I said I had been robbed: if you had your furniture, keepsakes, hardware, etc., stored in a room and the party told you you could leave it there until he made up his mind to finish it off. You said, "pardon me, but I don't think someone broke in and took it all without saying anything to you. What would you call that?"

And when I said I had been lied about: if people twisted you of doing something you hadn't done, never did, don't believe in because you weren't brought up to do. They can't prove it and I can prove I didn't. What would you call that?

If you don't understand this, please come to me and I will try to explain it so you will. Mr. and Mrs. Gossip, please come and in the open. Don't get behind a person's back and talk about them. That is what we used to call a cowardly act. If you don't say anything good, it is best not to say anything. What this world needs is more old-fashioned Religion.

Yours for a better understanding,
Henry W. Lee.

World Wide Guild Makes Plans For Future

Members of the Minnie E. Wilbur World Wide Guild of the Baptist church plan to hold, in addition to their regular monthly meetings, an Associational Rally at the Dexter Boulevard Baptist Church in Detroit, October 14, a candle light initiation service in November and a Christmas party.

The Guild gathered for their first meeting of the year Monday evening at the home of their sponsor, Mrs. Gilbert A. Miles, with an attendance of 18 members.

The girls enjoyed a cooperative dinner after which the President, Ardis Greenman, conducted the meeting. Devotionals and a short business session were followed by an interesting program. Mable Ellen Leonard, who represented the local W.W.G.U. at the Youth's Temperance Council Camp at Fort, told of her experiences there. Grace Wilkinson and Margaret Miles, who attended the Michigan Baptist Girls camp at Brighton, related interesting incidents of the week's outing. Wanda Kellogg, a delegate from the Farmington W.W.G. to the State House Party at Kalamazoo College, reported that gathering.

Officers of the organization are: Ardis Greenman, President; Doris Sonnenberg, Vice-president; Arlene Kellogg, secretary, and Audrey Noah, treasurer.

More than a million dollars worth of huckleberries are marketed in good years from the wild growth in Lake County, Michigan. Thousands of berry-pickers, many coming for hundreds of miles, make enough money in a season to carry them through the following winter.

"THE OLD WALNUT" TREE WILL HAVE A FUTURE

Many residents know and are glad for the sake of the school children that the "old walnut" tree has been "cut down" but not too many are acquainted with the fact that a future lies before the old tree.

A magnificent walnut tree, which stood proudly and alone, in sentimental fashion to the South of the grade school building, was been down recently by workmen. The tree was approximately 15 inches in diameter, and 35 feet high.

Because the branches and leaves darkened the grade school class rooms too much, work was sent out to give it "the axe." As a result, the front rooms on the first and second floors are estimated to be 30 per cent brighter. The strip of ground, 30 by 40 feet, in which the tree stood, has been concreted by the workers.

To the Sawmill
The old sentinel may bear no more walnuts on its branches, but the duties of the veteran are not over. No one can say just what will be modified from its interior, but the trunk has been sent to the sawmill, where it was cut, and where it is now being cured. After the wood has been properly seasoned, the building department in school will use it to fashion out articles for class work.

Workmen have also been busy building a stone retaining wall by the bridge that crosses from the school grounds to the athletic field.

School painters were working again this week after the end of the month layoff. Paint work. The Industrial Arts, commercial, science and English rooms have been completed. The assembly on the first floor is about half completed, and the basketball markers on the gymnasium floor have been painted.

Alaska School Roll May Surpass 900

A grade and high school enrollment of 782 after the first few days of school leads H. R. Kelly, Ketchikan, Alaska, School Superintendent, to believe this year's roll will be more than 900 — a record for the region. The attendance for early September is far ahead of any previous year. Last year's total of 571 set a peak mark. The figures do not include the attendance of the new Government school for Indians, which is nearly 100.

Highway Department Is Looking Toward Spring

Although winter has not yet arrived on the Michigan scene, the state highway department looked ahead today to spring in its maintenance planning.

Bids were opened recently by the Department on 141,775 cubic yards of gravel and crushed mine rock. The gravel is to be used in repaving damage from the annual break-up next spring. E. E. Blomgren, maintenance engineer of the Department, pointed out that the early "letting" will give the successful contractor adequate time to produce the gravel during the winter in time for delivery Feb. 1.

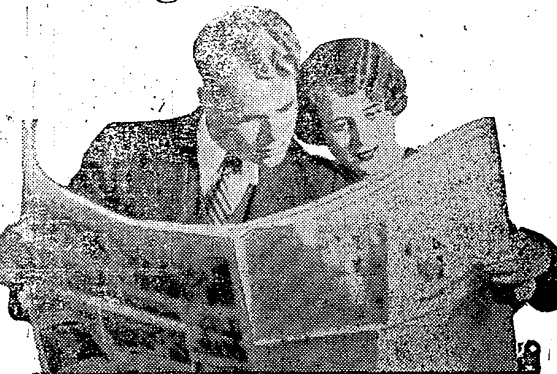

Ample notice of change of address should be given when moving. Notice should be given before changing if possible.
