Epworth League Notes

By Carl Smith

Congratulations, Miss Walters, That speech was presented so clearly and so convincingly that anyone who fails to take up the challenge can't call himself a good Christian.

We are a fortunate League to have two such excellent speakers as Betty and Doug. We shouldn't forget to thank the two.

The meetings are starting off in a number one fashion. We should talk the League up to our friends. They would enjoy them. Try it and see.

For Sunday evening the First Department has asked Mrs. Fred Cook to speak. We look for an exceptionally big turnout for the occasion. How about it, League?

Let's look forward to Saturday, October 22, for our trip to Chelsea. No one of us should miss it.

What do we have to take? Collect all the canned food, vegetables and other food and bring it to the League room or to Beulah Sherman's home on Grand River. We should have enough food to supply the home for a month!

See you Sunday, at 6:30.
