He also said that all money by agreement-will go to the board for allocation. There will be no attempt to control the program.

"There's no way any of us can control this thing. He wad be know if debate needs a interophone? And besides, I don't have the time." (Chesley said. "All we are doing is coming up with the funds."

Chesley relates two incidents that have happened since he and the others alunched the campaign. One involves a college student from Farmington who came to him and gave him $50.

"The student said that he couldn't get involved in activities in high school, but that the school had done so much for him, now he wanted to do something in return," Chesley said.
