EDNA WESTFALL BECOMES BRIDE OF BIRMINGHAM MAN
Miss Edna Westfall, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Westfall, became the bride of Basil Westfall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Multhead of Birmingham Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed in Salem Evangelical church, with the Rev. Carl Schultz officiating. In the presence of one hundred twenty-five guests. The altar was decorated with roses, masonia lilies and delphinium, and baskets of summer flowers, arranged by Clarence Bickling.
The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Howard Westfall, wore a gown of printed organza over white taffeta, with a waist length veil. Her bridesmaids wore white creations, daisies, delphinium and sweet peas. Miss Joyce Schaeper, of Detroit, assisted her cousin as maid of honor, and wore a gown of blue net and carried a large bouquet of white tulips, masonia, ribbon. Alice Marie Casey, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore pink organza and carried pink roses.
Dennis Multhead acted as his brother's best man, and ushers were Harold McClelland and David Seelye.
Mrs. Westfall and Mrs. Multhead both wore dresses of blue elton, with white accessories, and wore coronas of roses and sweet peas. Also attending the ceremony were three grandmothers of the couple.
Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room. The bride's table was centered with a lovely wedding cake, and candles on either side. A large bell was suspended above the cake, which was given to the bride by Mr. A. L. Ross.
Mr. and Mrs. Multhead left on a wedding trip to Toronto, Ontario. The bride chose for traveling a rose crepe dress, with white accessories.
Upon their return they will reside at 33041 Grand River avenue. Mr. Multhead is an employee of the Detroit Edison Company.

Wreck Victims Released From Hospital
Wayne Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Smith, 21627 Albion avenue, is improving rapidly from injuries received last Saturday when the car which he was driving skidded from the road and hit an electric light pole. He suffered a cut about the eye which required nine stitches.
His companion in the car, Miss Shirley Dittmon, of Redford Township, was taken to her home Tuesday from Redford Receiving Hospital, where she had been confined since the accident. Her condition, although dangerous, is said to be improving rapidly. She suffered a fractured skull.
Mr. Norman T. Barrows spent Sunday in Detroit with her mother, Mrs. Rosette, and her sister, Miss Helen Rosette.

A Challenger Appears But Vic's Not Worried
No one has yet publicly come forward to accept Howard Ott's challenge, concerning who can catch the largest fish over the Fourth of July week-end holiday. But a contestant did appear this week against Vic Blakeslee's challenge to drive a car farther than he will.
The challenger is a resident of Novi, who dropped in to notify Vic that he plans to drive to Marquette and back. Vic didn't want to split the Novi man's fun, so he said nothing, although he remarked afterward to friends that he might stop in at Marquette himself—on the last leg of his journey.

Coon's Program Voted Best By Exchangeites
The household of Walter Coon is enjoying the possession of a fine new trophy, a reward for bringing to the Exchange Club what was voted by the club Wednesday night to have been the best program of the six-month term just ended. Mr. Coon won the prize by providing as a speaker Duncan Moore, of Radio Station WJR.
The winning program was voted the best by a wide margin, with eleven first and two second-place votes. Roy Plimpton, who presented Supt. Searle of Ford Trade School, took second place in the voting, and Carl Schellie, who belted out with an equal number of first place votes but not so many seconds, for presenting William Matthews, historian of the Detroit Edison Company.

MRS. ELIZABETH WILKERSON HONORED AT SHOWER
A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by twenty-five members of the O. D. O. club of Clarenceville, Tuesday evening, when they met at the home of Mrs. Tom Wilkerston, of Farmville, to honor Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkerston with a linen shower.
Mrs. Wilkerston's marriage to Charles Wade of Northville, will take place early in July. Many lovely gifts were received by the honored guest, and at the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge.
