

COUNTY SPORTSMEN TO HOLD TURKEY FEAST NOV. 6

More than 400 members of the Outdoor Sportsman's Association of Oakland County will gather November 6, for a big turkey feast at the Sportsman's Hunting Shirt Banquet to be held at the Elks Club in Pontiac that evening. This is a fall get-together, coming between the bird season and the deer season, at which time several distinguished guests and sportsmen will be here.

"One of the features of the banquet will be the wearing of hunting shirts by the sportsmen." Is the announcement made by Dr. A. V. Murtha, President of the association. Another feature of the entertainment will be the showing of the famous animated hunter, cartoon, a humorous picture from the pen of J. N. (Dime) Darling, first President of the National Wildlife Federation. This picture, titled, "The Sportsman," is acclaimed to be one of the best ever produced. Ding Darling, nationally known cartoonist, has long been known as America's No. 1 sportsman. Arrangements have been made for the loan of this film for the occasion. Program arrangements are under way for a very entertaining evening, and a national figure is expected to be the principal speaker at the banquet. A feature of the menu will be a specially prepared turkey feast by the Steward of the Elks Club.

Members of the association and other sportsmen desiring tickets are advised to get in touch with any of the directors of the association to obtain tickets. Howard M. Warner, a Director, will designate a local member to handle tickets in Farmington.

Hunters Can Get Cash For Buck Tails

Hunters say the thrill of downing a buck is worth a million dollars. There is, however, no market for thrills. The buck's tail does have a cash value and the fact that too few successful hunters take the tails to market handicaps the makers of artificial lures for fish. The hairs of a deer are hollow, a fact which accounts for the animal's remarkable buoyancy when in water. The fact also explains why no satisfactory substitute for buck tails is found.

A tail is worth from 20 to 50 cents. One Michigan manufacturer of fish lures, paying the top price, buys 2,500 to 3,000 tails annually and could use several times that number.

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

Described as the most moving school story ever written, "Goodbye Mr. Chips," based on the successful novel by James Hilton, and with Robert Donat in the starring role, opens Friday at the Redford Theater as one of the major movie events of the season.

The new picture, filmed in England by M-G-M, comes on top of such earlier British-made successes as Donat's "The Citadel," hailed by critics as the best picture of last year, and "A Yank at Oxford," in which Robert Taylor scored one of his outstanding hits. "Goodbye Mr. Chips" was produced by Victor Saville who also produced "The Citadel," and was directed by Sam Wood, director of "Lord Jeff," "Navy Blue and Gold" and "A Day at the Races" among other hits.

Together with Donat, the new picture features Greer Garson, lovely English stage star, who makes her first appearance in a motion picture as Donat's wife in "Goodbye Mr. Chips," and is hailed as the most sensational screen "find" since the discovery of Hedy Lamarr. Also in a prominent role is little Terry Kilburn, who came to the fore as a child star for his work in "Lord Jeff" and "A Christmas Carol." A cast of prominent English players fill the supporting roles together with some 2,000 English boys who play themselves in the varied school sequences of the production.

WEST POINT PARK

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON SOCIAL SECURITY

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of questions and answers relative to the amended Social Security Act. Individual questions concerning this subject should be addressed to Walter B. Redman, manager of the Social Security Board field office in Pontiac.)

Question: What is the effect of the new social security legislation on workers who are now 65 or who are approaching that age?

Answer: It is now possible for such persons to qualify for monthly old age insurance benefits starting January 1, 1940.

Question: As an example, a man working throughout 1937 reached age 65 in January, 1938, and received a lump-sum payment to which he was then entitled under the original plan of old age insurance. However, he continued to work at $75 a month. Can he now qualify for monthly benefits?

Answer: Yes. He would be covered employment after December 31, 1939, and before a person became 65, now count toward monthly benefits, regardless of the payment of a lump sum. After January 1, 1939, employment after age 65 also counts toward benefits. Although the worker in this case would not get credit for the wages he earned during the year between his 65th birthday and January 1, 1939, he would still have enough wage credits to get a monthly benefit January 1, 1940, provided he retired.

Question: In case a man who has received a lump-sum payment qualifies for monthly benefits, what adjustment will be made with respect to the money he has already received?

Answer: The amount of the lump-sum payment will be deducted ed from his monthly benefits.

Question: A man earning $40 a month became 65 in April, 1938, and received a lump-sum payment. Then he stopped work. But if he goes back to work in January, 1940, can he get monthly benefits?

Answer: Yes. With the wage credits earned before he quit work in 1938 he will, if he goes back to work, have enough credits to get a monthly benefit before the end of 1940. But the lump-sum he received in 1938 would be deducted from his monthly benefits.

Question: Must a worker over 65 retire in order to receive monthly benefits?

Answer: Yes. But under the revised law his 65th birthday does not necessarily end his participation in the insurance plan. He will continue to accumulate wage credits as long as he works in a job covered by the plan, no matter how old he is.

Question: May a person receiving the monthly benefits return to his job at any time?

Answer: He may, but he will not receive monthly payments for the months he works in employment covered by the plan and in which months he earns more than $15.00.

Red Cross Home Hygiene Groups are Organized

A program in Home Hygiene of the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross has recently gotten under way with classes in various parts of the county. Classes are in session at the present time at Log Cabin School and Clawson School in Troy township and are taught by Mrs. C. E. Honoring, At Leonard, Lake Orion, Pontiac, Rochester and Oxbow Lake, the classes are being taught by Mrs. Ira Herron.

To combat illness and disease the American Red Cross has established classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick among its services. Taught by registered nurses a standard course is presented to women and girls of the community, in which is included helpful information regarding illness and disease in the home and community.

Mrs. Hugh Little of Pontiac is Chairman of the Home Hygiene Committee.

THE BLUE BELL POINTS TO A CONVENIENT SERVICE

Locations for public telephones are selected with a view to their accessibility to the general public. Consequently, most public telephones are situated on the ground floor and in a building which is open at least during the hours when most people wish to make use of the telephone. Public telephones are not placed in a neighborhood that already has enough telephones to meet the public requirements. In the larger cities, however, the needs of the public call for some exceptions to such general rules, and locations not on the ground floor may be considered desirable when special requirements exist, as in the case at large department stores or restaurants.
