SCOUTS RECEIVE ADVANCEMENTS IN COURT OF HONOR

Nine members of Boy Scout Troop No. 45, Farmington, and Scoutmaster Lee Monts, received advancement awards and merit badges in a Court of Honor held Tuesday evening at the West Bloomfield Township Hall.

In addition to the individual awards, an efficiency streamer was presented to the Farmington troop. Represented at the Court of Honor were Troop 45, Farmington; Troop 46, Farmington; Troop 48, Bond School; and Troop 41, Walnut Lake. All belong to the Southern District of the Clinton Valley Council.

Scoutmaster Monts received merit badges for Metal Work, Woodwork, Plumbing, Salesmanship and Bookkeeping. Scouts who were given merit badges were Norman Stewart, Safety; Jack Samuelson, Farm Layout; James Youngblood, Safety; Fred Sieg, Safety; William Kahrl, Safety; Jack Pilot, Safety; Burke Johnson, Gardening; Joseph Caullie, Safety.

Clifford Strelling, of Farmington, advanced from Tenderfoot to Second Class ranking. Don Kos-kusky, of the Bond School troop, received merit badges for Civics and Mechanical Drawing.

The advancement trophy, awarded to the troop having the highest percentage of advancement per membership in the District, was won by Troop 41, of Walnut Lake, under the leadership of Otis Zahm. Presiding over the Court of Honor was Mr. Masterman of Walnut Lake. Other members of the Court staff in attendance were Messrs. Smith and Samuelson, of Farmington; Bingham of Walnut Lake; and Kosmiansky, of Bond School.

CHORAL SINGING CLASS PROVES POPULAR AT SCHOOL

Training in choral and group singing is being offered at Farmington high school, under the direction of Edwin Benner, music director. The classes are open to pupils of any age, and are already proving popular, according to Mr. Benner.

Classes are held three days a week. On Monday the girls meet, on Thursday, the boys. On Wednesday the full choir assembles. Later, as the singers are segregated according to voice range, ability, etc., smaller groups such as trios, and quartets will be organized, said Benner.

The group will have a large selection of numbers from which to choose. Their texts are "Praise the Lord," "The Lord's Prayer," "Voice Chorus Method" and "Keep on Singing" a book which includes a large number of modern numbers as well as old timers.

Benner's main difficulty to date seems to be to get a sufficient number of boys interested. Interest in the classes is spreading, however, and it is hoped that the class will become more balanced in the future.

BOOKS FOR WINTER READING MAY BE HAD AT LIBRARY

Winter reading material for both adults and children may be found among the new books received by Mrs. Florence Leach, Farmington librarian.

Included in the list are: "Rim of the Prairie," by Edith; "High Road," by White; "Magic," by Baldwin; "Smiler With the Knife," by Blake.

"Christ in Concrete," by Di Donato, a story of the boyhood of young manhood of an Italian American bricklayer in a big American city.

"Dr. Hudson's Secret Journal," by Douglas. The author's first novel, "Magnificent Obsession," evoked a flood of letters from readers asking if the complete journal of Dr. Hudson was available. This book is an expansion of the philosophy in Dr. Hudson's experiences, as told in "Magnificent Obsession."

"Count of Monte Cristo" and "Man in the Iron Mask" by Alexander Dumas.

"Calliope Bush," "Hepatic Hawks," by Field. Two books for older girls by the author of "Hetty, Her First Hundred Years."

"Inside Asia," by Gunther; "Kitty Foyle," by Morley; "Capital City," by Sandoz.

Story of Detroit

"Hawk of Detroit," by Pond. The author is a native of Pontiac, and has written several historical novels. This one is an account of money, Cadillac and the founding of Detroit.

"Not Peace, But a Sword," by Sheehan. Personal history of a notorious year, March 1935 to March 1939. In one chapter "The Triumph of the Swastika" is told the events from Prague to Carlsbad.

"Escape," by Ethel Vance. A story of a prisoner held in Germany.

"Moment in Peking," by Lin Yutang. A story of China beginning with the Boxer Rebellion and continuing down to the present with Japan, by the author of "Importance of Living" and "My Country and My People."

Books for juveniles

"I Know a Secret," by Morley; "Fair Play," by Leaf; and "Story Hour Favorites," by Harper, a collection of readable stories including one of Thanksgiving, and three of Christmas. Also is the well-known "Why the Chimes Rang."

DEADLINES FOR CHRISTMAS MAIL ARE ANNOUNCED

Farmington residents are warned to do their Christmas mailing early in order to be sure that their parcels and letters arrive on time and in the best shape. Postmaster Norman C. Lee is asking that all residents cooperate with the postal department by getting their parcels mailed into the postoffice as soon as possible.

"During the holiday season the volume of mail handled by the Post Office is increased," declared Lee. "The same proportion applies to parcel post. With so much extra mail to handle you can readily appreciate how necessary it is to send your Christmas mail early."

"When you use pretty gift boxes be sure they are securely packed in heavy corrugated outer containers. If contents are fragile, the inner box should be surrounded with shredded paper, excelsior, or layers of corrugated board. All packages should be securely packed and bear complete legible address of both sender and addressee. Gift parcels should be insured."

Greeting cards may be sent at the third class rate in unsealed envelopes providing they contain no written matter. Only first class mail, however, can be returned or forwarded in the event of non-delivery. Undeliverable pieces of third class mail are consigned to the Dead Letter Office as waste.

For the convenience of Christmas mailers, Postmaster Lee has a short in the lobby of the post office showing the different zones throughout the United States and when parcels should be mailed in order to reach their destination on time.

The zones are roughly divided as follows:

Zone 1, local or Detroit metropolitan district; Zone 2 and 3, Michigan, Indiana, and Ohio; Zone 4, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Vermont, and Illinois; Zone 5, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida; Zone 6, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, and Texas; Zone 7, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, and Arizona; Zone 8, Washington, Oregon and California.

Mail going to Zones 1 and 2 should be sent not later than December 19; to Zone 3, December 18; Zone 4, December 16; Zone 5, December 15; Zone 6, December 14; Zone 7, December 13; Zone 8, December 12. Mail going to Canada should be sent not later than December 11.

Light Condition Your Home

The bathroom needs good lighting just as much as more than other rooms in your home. You can have it with a new lighting room with the new light adapters, manufactured by Detroit Edison. They can be purchased in many styles and colors at Dickerson Hardware.

Now that Hudson has entered the lowest-priced field, the long established values offered by the Hudson people grow even greater. You don't know what you're missing until you ride in a new Hudson, money saving new Hudson. The agency is Shaw Bros. 2021 Oxford Ave.

When you give jewelry you can be sure that it will be highly appreciated. Good jewelry is for itself. Von Burg's Jewelry Shop, in Redford, has a brand new stock of diamond rings, wrist watches, and innumerable other gift ideas. The quality is of the very finest, and the prices will agree with your pocketbook.

Fits The Weather

There's a difference between the action of your automobile motor in the winter and in the summer. You need a different type of fuel and lubrication in different temperatures. Standard products are made to "fit the weather." Get them at George Middlewood's Standard Service station, Grand River at Cass.

You'll want to look your best for Christmas, especially if you're expecting a lot of company. If your clothes are a bit on the "ired" side send them to Greene's Cleaners and Dyers. Deliveries will be made from and to your home if you hang out the "red" card.

One of the brightest spots in town these days is Hutton's Farmington Hardware. Their toy counter looks like Santa Claus' headquarters, and the rest of the store is filled with all sorts of Christmas bargains you can't afford to miss.

Fortunes by Tea Leaves

Have you ever had the thrill of having your fortune told by tea leaves? If not, you can have it done free of charge at Jack Crowley's Cafe, 2990 Grand River Avenue. Crowley's is an ideal spot to drop in for food and drink.

Two of the best moving picture features of the late 1939 season are to be shown beginning Friday at the Redford Theater. These are "The Raines Cafe" with a cast including Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power, and George Brent; and "These Glamour Girls" with Lew Ayres and Lana Turner.

TEAMWORK

Michigan's army of small game hunters invades fields and thickets with opening of season which is expected to be at least as good as last year, when the take of pheasants estimated $21,000. Grouse also are near peak of cycle of abundance. Protection of hen pheasants is rigidly enforced by augmented squads of conservation officers in heavily-hunted areas.

Three New 1940 Hudsons Feature Luxury, Smart Styling and New Mechanical Features

121 New AAA Performance and Endurance Records Captured Along With New Economy Marks

Three new 1940 Hudsons, presented as the most outstanding offering in low cost luxury, improved performance and economy, and smart styling in the company's 31-year history, are now on display here.

Sweeping improvements occur throughout the entire 1940 Hudson line. In the new Hudson Six in the lowest price field, new features, new fabrics and a new style of upholstery make their appearance in addition to engineering advancements in performance, economy, front and coil springing, riding comfort and roadability never before offered in this price class.

Also spotlighted for 1940 is a wholly new type of low priced straight eight. This new Hudson Eight, which delivers more than one horsepower for every inch of wheelbase, is a further development of Hudson's high power-to-weight engineering practice and is said to attain standards of performance and economy new in the industry. Companion car to this new Eight is the new Hudson Super-Six which is identical in all features except powerplant.

Also 121 new official American Automobile Association records for performance, economy and endurance.

The new 1940 Hudson Eight, driven by John R. Cobb, English speed king, recently broke the Class C record for closed cars for the Flying Mile by averaging 92.8 miles per hour on the famous Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah. The inherent economy characteristics of this new Hudson Eight were also demonstrated in a 1000-mile test over the billiard-table surface of the Salt Flats. Under ideal conditions this new Hudson Eight averaged 27.12 miles per gallon of gas, using the optional overdrive which is available at small extra cost on all models.

The new 1940 Hudson Six, in the lowest price field, also driven by John R. Cobb, recently captured 81 new Class D and unlimited closed car records on the same course. Records from one mile to 10 miles were made at 11.12 miles per hour, and the one-hour trials gave this new 92-horsepower Hudson Six an average of 30.4 miles per hour. A new 20,000-mile endurance mark was also set by this new Hudson Six which covered the distance at an average speed of 70.58 miles an hour.

This endurance mark is not only a record for Class D but also an unlimited closed-car class record, and is faster than any stock closed car regardless of size or price has ever traveled this distance under official observation. All records were certified to by officials of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association.

Articulators of the line are the new Country Club Six- and eight-cylinder Sedans in which interior luxuriousness new to production manufacture is introduced.

For the first time in the lowest price field, Hudson introduces independent front wheel springs with Center-Point Steering which has been further improved by the incorporation of Hudson's patented Auto-Poise Control, which engineers claim, is a basic contribution to front end stability, sureness of control and steering. Engineers in the picture above is indicating with his right hand the Center-Point Steering and with his left, the direct connection of the Auto-Poise Control which helps hold front wheels on their course automatically in heavy side winds, even if it is a time.

MISS SALLY ROGERS MARRIED SATURDAY

The many friends in this area of Miss Sally Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers of Ithaca, will be interested to know of her marriage Saturday, in Detroit, to Carl Miksell of Dearborn. Miss Rogers is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Miksell will make their home in Dearborn.

FUNERAL HELD MONDAY FOR CLARENCEVILLE MAN

Funeral services were held Monday, November 27 at the Heeney Funeral Home for Albert O'Hara, a resident of Clarenceville. He died Saturday, Nov. 25. He is survived by three daughters and one son. The son, Ward, also lives at Clarenceville.

Rev. D. C. Stubbs officiated at the services and burial was at Elmwood cemetery in Detroit.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the members of the Farmington Kiwanis Club for their kindness and generosity in paying the hospital bill of my son, Hans.

Mrs. John Schultz. 6-1-p

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Ethel Middlewood, who died one year ago Saturday, December 2, 1938. Not dead to those who love her. Not lost but gone before. She lives with us in memory. And will for evermore. Sadly missed by her children.

$1,652,054 IN U. OF M. LOANS

Loans totaling $1,652,054 have been granted since the 12,000 students since the first University of Michigan loan fund was established in 1895 by the Literary Class of 1894. Less than 8/10 of one per cent of all the loans granted have since been charged off as uncollectible, and one-half of this non-payment was due to death or total disability. The University now owns and administers 117 loan funds, totaling $542,152, which have been given by various classes, organizations, and individuals.

FORMER PROFESSOR HONORED

The educational leadership of Burke Aaron Hunsdale, University of Michigan professor from 1883-1900 has been given new recognition. His work is the subject of a doctor's dissertation at New York University written by Mrs. Ida S. Gaudes, instructor in education at Brooklyn College.
