

Christmas Trees May Not Be Cut Without Consent

Free Christmas trees do not grow in Michigan.

The cruising motorist who spies one he thinks would look well in his living room in season, and the trucker who wants to make some quick and easy money, alike are warned that removal of Christmas trees without the written consent of the owner of the land is theft, for which the penalty is $25 to $50 fine and up to three months imprisonment.

Any vehicle bearing a Christmas tree may be stopped by a conservation officer or an officer of the department of agriculture or a regular officer of the law, and inspection of the bill of sale or written consent of the owner demanded. Permission is quite as necessary in getting a tree growing on state-owned land as for one on private land. No Christmas trees are cut in state forests.

The law protecting Christmas trees is broad in its application and covers all wild trees or shrubs, including the well-liked spruce and balsam.

RELIEF OFFICES FLOODED WITH WELFARE REQUESTS

Young men who want to work in CCC camps should make immediate application to Capt. John A. Keenan, at 51 West Wilson Avenue, Pontiac, according to an announcement from the Oakland County Welfare Commission.

George W. Burt, of the commission, said it is possible at this time to place a number of young men in these camps but that applications should be made as soon as possible.

Welfare applicants, from units throughout the County, swamped the Welfare office Tuesday and Wednesday. No orders for relief had been issued since Thursday when S. S. Skelton, relinquished his position as administrator to the new commission.

Emergency orders were given out until the commission could re-investigate every request. The welfare commission vacated the buildings formerly rented in the vicinity of Oakley, available to Clark street, and Skelton moved in the basement of the Court House where they are engaged in completing their records preparatory to turning them over to the new commission.

visit. You'll find gifts for the entire family.

Just one look at the new Pontiac will show you why drivers all over the country are enthusiastic about it this year. There's more actual driving value in Pontiac than you've ever before and prices are more reasonable. See them at Keego Harbor Sales and Service Co.

Hosiery always makes a grand present for the feminine side of the family. For the best run-resistant, hosiery stop in at Irene's Apparel Shop. You'll find other gifts that will appeal to you.

In colder weather your body needs more resistance. Drink milk. Call the Farmington Dairy and tell them to bring your milk to your doorstep every morning. You can't get better quality.

And here's one for store-owners. How well lit is the outside of your store? The establishment with the well-lit exterior is the one that draws the customers.

Call Detroit-Edison Co., and consult them about your lighting problems.

Have you run completely out of ideas for presents? If you like Dickerson's Hardware, here some suggestions for you. How about a Toastmaster toaster or waffle iron?

Electrical appliances are among the most practical gifts you can give.

The Redford Theater this week is offering two big features. Beginning Friday and running through Monday is "Four Feathers" in technicolor, and "The Under-pup" with Robert Cummings, Nan Grey, and Gloria Cummings.

If you wish quick cleaning service, call Farmington Cleaners, your old reliable cleaner. Twelve successful years in Farmington, made possible by your patronage.

He Walks Eight Miles a Day

ENOUGH men and women to fill a small city are lifting the face of the New York World's Fair and streamlining it for 1940. Trucks and officials care whiz around its busy streets, and four restaurants and half a dozen stands stand ready for the army of 2,000 still under the eaves. He is one of nine men to three on a eight-hour shift. He walks constantly from one end of the building to the other with emphasis on the vast attic.

Every six minutes each man checks in by telephone from one of the eleven stations of the 100,000 men who make up the vast part of it on Saturday.

Few exhibits will be as much activity as the huge Ford Exposition, where a staff of seventy-five men are at work on the final touches of the Spring opening. A procession of great machines march out. New machines and new exhibits start marching in after Christmas. In this picture a Ford maintenance man is way up under the

SALZBURG TRAPP CHOIR TO APPEAR AT TOWN HALL

The Salzburg Trapp Choir will have its Detroit premiere as the pre-Holiday attraction of the Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theater, next Wednesday, December 13, at 11 a. m. One of the most unusual singing groups in the world, the Trapp family was launched on its professional career by the great Austrian soprano, Lotte Lehmann. After their debut at the 1938 Salzburg Festival they soon became one of the most sought-after attractions in Europe. When Austrian Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg heard them over radio, he invited them to sing in Vienna. Then followed invitations from Mussolini to sing in Rome, and from King Edward VIII to sing in London.

On their first American tour last season they delighted critics with their fine musicianship and their refreshing exuberance of their singing. They travel in their native dirndl and appear in costume for their Austrian folk songs.

Christmas carols and Austrian folk songs will be featured in their program, which will also include a capella octet and serenade on ancient instruments. The Trapp Family Choir is the first group to present the ancient "block flute" music in public.

The ensemble, headed by Frau Maria von Trapp, wife of an Austrian nobleman, consists of their five daughters, Joan, Agathe, Maria, Hedwig, and Maria, and two sons, Rupert, a doctor, and Werner, who is one of the leading skiers of Austria. The youngest of the girls is 16, still wearing pigtail.

The program will include Martin

Luther's Christmas Carol, "Away in a Manger," "Süße, Nachts Heilige Nacht," the Tyrolean carol, "Es wird scho giet dumpa," "God Rest You Merry (Gentlemen)," a group of early masters, including Bach's "How Beautiful Shines the Morning Star," Palestrina's "Agnes Det," and Michael Praetorius' "Es ist ein Res entsprungen." A group of Austrian masters will include Mozart's "Ave Verum" and "Freunde, lasset uns beim Zeichen," Brahms' "Der Buchenlehr Fleider" and Franz Wagner's "Kinder segen" to the poem of a minnesinger, Heinrich von Lichtenberg.

STATE TO SPEND
$1,309,000 FOR
PARK IMPROVEMENT

A $1,309,000 statewide WPA project for improvement of 29 Michigan state parks, supplanting individual projects for each of the parks, is being prepared for submission to regional and national WPA headquarters by the parks division of the Michigan department of conservation in collaboration with the Michigan WPA office.

The proposed state park project would also include 12 WPA park projects now approved or under way as many parks as well as others which have not passed the planning stage. Economy, time saving, quicker preparation of projects, elimination of much detail and clerical work, and greater flexibility of control are advantages sought under the larger plan.

Of the $1,309,000 to be spent on park work, about $1,000,000 will be for labor. The state's contribution will be $327,000 in cash, materials, equipment, supervision, and some labor.

State park problems are comparable to the municipal problems of health, safety, traffic and maintenance of order, W. J. Kilgore, chief of parks division, points out in listing improvements to be made in 29 of the state's 56 well-distributed playground spots. Included are water systems, wells, storm drains, sewage disposal systems, toilet buildings, electrical installations, roads, parking areas, guard rails, landscaping, planting of trees and shrubs, erosion control, cleanup of fire hazards and erection of boundary fences.

Other park work includes camp ground development, tent and trailer sites off park roads, dams, docks and breakwaters, scenic overlooks, foot trails, fire breaks, picnic grounds and picnic tables, playground equipment and winter sports facilities.

Michigan leads in number of tourist anglers

Among the 34 states which make special provision for the tourist fishermen, Michigan continues to lead the nation by a wide margin. Revenue from sale of part-time fishing licenses has tripled nationally in the last five years.

Michigan sold $5,087 of the one dollar 10-day license in 1938, the last year for which national records are compiled. Next in popularity larity with fishermen away from home, according to federal bureau of fisheries reports, is Malone, with a sale of 33,361 such licenses.

Michigan's tourist anglers numbered considerably more than the 93,877 buying the 10-day licenses. For wives of many of them obtained the 50-cent non-resident "wife" licenses. A total of 47,107 non-resident "wife" licenses were issued during the year to wives of holders of either 10-day or annual licenses. The latter, at $2 each, totaled 17,107, which with the 10-day and "wife" licenses brings the year's total for non-resident fishermen in Michigan to 189,301.

Fishing license fees required of non-resident fishermen since 1911, in many varieties, with present moderate fees the most popular.

Advantages sought under the larger plan.

Tuberculosis Leads Death Figures For Persons Between 15 and 45

"White Plague" is far ahead of other diseases as killer of people in their most productive years. Accidents are second cause. While tuberculosis kills 40,453 people in the 15 to 45 age-group in one year, the disease that takes the next highest toll is heart trouble, with 27,738 victims.
