Chris-Craft Opens Factory in Holland

Chris-Craft started production this week on 1940 motor boats in the newly completed Holland branch factory, it was revealed by Harry Coll, local manager. The initial production schedule is for 200 15 1/2 foot runabouts, the first to roll off the line about January 7th, and two additional models to be completed every day thereafter.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

At their meeting on Monday, Girl Scouts of Troop No. 3 held their tenderfoot tests and the following girls have passed, and are now ready for second class work: Valerie Walters, Geraldine Pfoot, Sally Gildemester, Jean Anderson, Mary Mitchell, Joan Aschen, Bronner, Dorothy Eisenlord, Nancy Smith and Margaret Brown. Mrs. Sylvia Anderson assisted the leader, Mrs. Warren Joy, at this meeting. A number of Christmas songs were sung.

At their next meeting the regular season will be postponed, and the girls will visit the Children's Hospital where they will present the gifts they have recently made to the crippled children.

The girls report their bake sale Saturday was a real success, and they hope to have another one soon.
