State Budget's 'Built-ins' Price Tag $220 Million

LANSING — Michigan faces built-in budget increases amounting to $220 million in fiscal 1969-70, according to Charles O. Zoliar, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Next year's $1.5 billion reword-shattering budget compares with estimated spending of $1.3 billion for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

Increasing costs of existing programs, higher salaries, and inflation will help to push up the cost, he added that the Legislature will have "little or no control" over spending increases in education, social welfare, and other fields.

LANSING — Michigan taxpayers paid $13 above the average for states as they paid $323 per capita state and local taxes in fiscal 1967, according to research done by Commerce Clearing House.

Tax burdens grew heavier by $20 per person in each state on the average.

Total state and local tax collections rose to $61.2 billion in 1967, up $4.5 billion over the $56.7 billion collected the year before.

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF. — Many Republican governors have indicated strong support for the retention of Ray Bliss as GOP national chairman in discussions on the incoming administration's relations with the states.

News Round Up

President-elect Richard M. Nixon has reportedly thought of replacing Bliss with a more dramatic figure as head of the party organization machinery.

EAST LANSING — Fund raising has been more difficult in the past two years at Michigan State University because of "an abnormal amount" of student protest activities, according to John R. Kinney, executive director of the MSU Alumni Association.

"There exists among alumni and friends of the university a suspicion that makes fund raising that much more difficult," Kinney said, "but despite this we have done well, which leads to the conclusion that the majority of people who complain would not have contributed anyhow."

LANSING — Zolton A. Ferency, former Democratic state chairman, said that he will refuse to act as a Democratic presidential elector when Michigan casts the state's 21 electoral college votes.

Ferency, who had been a McCarthy supporter, explained that his decision represented a further protest against the policies of President Johnson's administration.

Humphrey's win in the state automatically gave the privilege of casting Michigan's electoral votes to the state of electors chosen at the Democratic State Convention Aug. 31 in Grand Rapids.

WASHINGTON — Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark strongly denied reports that he had directed the rewriting of a critical report on Chicago police violence at the Democratic National Convention.

The report was prepared by a special task force for the President's Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence. The investigation was headed by Daniel Walker, who also denied the charges.

PONTIAC — Sol Lomerson was elected as the new chairman of the Oakland County Road Commission by a combined meeting of the commission and the Board of Supervisors Road Committee.

PONTIAC — A rerouting and extension of Telegraph Road west and north of Pontiac has been tentatively approved by the State Highway Department and the Oakland County Board of Supervisors' ways and means committee.

The new route would utilize present Telegraph for the northbound lane and reroute southern traffic along the Service Center Drive behind the Pontiac Mall.

The plans also provide for the extension of Telegraph north from Dixie Highway joining Baldwin and reaching to I-75.

INKSTER — Darnell Summers, a spec. 4 in the U.S. Army, has been brought back from Vietnam to face charges of attempted murder in the shooting of two Inkster patrolmen last summer.

The Army turned Summers over to Inkster and Michigan State Police in San Francisco. He is charged in the shooting of Patrolmen Thomas Freeman and John Knight. He faces preliminary hearing on Wednesday in Inkster Municipal Court.

WHITE CASTLE, LA. — No sign has been found of the 17 missing crewmen who were aboard a Coast Guard ship sliced in half by a Formosan freighter in the murky waters of the lower Mississippi.

The hull of the 133-foot ship was found in about 75 feet of water 18 hours after it sank in the Mississippi Saturday night. Only three of the cutter's 20 crewmen were rescued after it collided with the Helena, a ship registered in Formosa.

CHICAGO — More than 190,000 members of four operating railroaders' unions have voted on a proposal to merge their brotherhoods into one powerful, more economical and expandable organizations.

If the unification plan is approved, it will create the United Transportation Union from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Switchmen's Union, and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.
