

COMMUNITY FUND
GROWS RAPIDLY
IN FIVE YEARS

There has been a steady increase in the percentage of collections of Community Fund pledges in the last five years according to figures released recently by Percival Dodge, managing director of the fund. As of Dec. 31, 1939, the fund had collected 98.7 per cent of the total pledged for that year.

"Detroit's record of payments on collections always has been good," Dodge said. "Of recent years, however, it has been almost phenomenal. For the last four years our collections have been over 98 per cent."

In 1935 the amount collected was 96.1 per cent; in 1937 it was 96.5 per cent; in 1938 it was 96.3 per cent and in the fifth year, 1939, it was 98.7 per cent.

The amounts pledged in the years from 1935 through 1939 were $112,730 in 1935; $2,047,460 in 1936; $2,248,936 in 1937; $2,298,256 in 1938; and $2,220,767 in 1939.

Continuously smaller amounts have had to be written off as losses because of deaths, removals from the city and various other causes, Dodge pointed out. These figures have dropped every year since 1934, although the trend of campaign totals has been largely upwards.

"It must be remembered," said Dodge, "that as time goes on many back pledges are paid up and that even the percentage figure quoted for each year will rise. Detroit should be proud of its record in the payment of pledges to its community fund."

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

Garbo sings. Garbo dances, and Garbo laughs in her first picture in two years and her first picture in a sophisticated modern romantic comedy. The picture is "Ni-nochka," in which the Swedish star comes Friday to the Redford Theater.

Teamed with Melvyn Douglas, who also played opposite her in "As You Desire Me," Garbo was directed by Ernst Lubitsch. Many whimsical "Lubitsch touches" enliven the story.

Garbo plays a stern Soviet commissar sent to Paris by the Russian government to sell a noblewoman's confiscated jewels. The noblewoman and a French count fight the deal in court. Garbo and the count fall in love. The noblewoman maneuvers to get Garbo back to Russia but the count maneuvers to have her sent to Constantinople where they are married.

Ina Claire plays Garbo's love rival, Ben Lugosi is seen as the stern chief commissar and the picture introduces a new comedy trio in Felix Bressart, Sig Ruman and Alexander Granach, as three Russian commissars "gone Paris."

Other players include Gregory Gaye, Rolfe Sedan, Edwin Maxwell, and Richard Carle.

Garbo plays an ultra-modern swing with Douglas, slugs a French chansonette with the three commissars, and introduces a new "Garbo" hat to the world of fashion.

The story abounds in brilliant dialogue and Garbo learned a hundred per cent more lines than in any of her previous pictures for her first ultra-modern role in some years. It had long been her ambition to play in this type of story.

Leroy Willoughby, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willoughby, of Mayfield avenue, is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Professor Duncan McPhail of Detroit University gave a very interesting and amusing lecture at the Pierson P. T. A. last Thursday evening. His subject was "Putting Your Foot in Your Mouth." Sixty people attended this splendid lecture.

The six Texas Ranch Boys entertained the members and friends of the Livonia Civic Association last Wednesday. The members of this orchestra were dressed in cowboy attire and played lively modern and old-time music. Among the instruments was an electric violin. This excellent music and entertainment was sponsored by the Ford Motor Company. They will play again at the next meeting on Wednesday, March 6.

Miss Lorraine Donovan and Miss Virginia Redding attended the Shrine circus in Detroit last Saturday.

Miss A. Beale and Mrs. Warren Joy of Farmington P. T. A. were visitors at Pierson P. T. A. last Thursday evening.

Miss Mary Redding of Farmington Road, is one of the seniors of this orchestra high school, selected to play in the forthcoming play.

Beverly Hey, a pupil in Pierson school, reported early in the week to be suffering from scarlet fever, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Dobyard of Hubbard avenue, has been quite ill for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Rhon of Mayfield avenue, is slightly improved after an illness of two weeks.

Albert Owen was confined to his home with an attack of appendicitis this past week.

The infant child of Dr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss has been ill this past week.

Miss Marjorie Heichman has been ill with the flu for a week.

For those who cared to take part and handsome printed linen towels were bestowed as prizes on the winners.

The Sunshine Sisters met at the home of Mrs. Homer Coolman Friday afternoon. Nineteen adults including several visitors were in attendance. Rev. Roy Aldrich, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Detroit, and Mrs. Aldrich were present. In place of the Bible study period, Rev. Aldrich gave a very fine address, explaining the difference between believing in God by the heart and by the mind, thus distinguishing between the nominal and genuine Christians.

Mrs. Gordon Cameron, who usually has charge of the devotional period, called on Miss Lora Ault to explain how the missionary work conducted by Rev. Gordon Cameron, is carried on, with the Folker subdivision as a center. As a tribute of regard for Miss Ault, at whose invitation the Thursday night service were started, they organized the Sunshine Sisters, and who secured Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cameron to arrange meetings for boys and girls, Mrs. Robert Fredericks, who has known the community well for a number of years made a beautiful speech, presenting her with a handsome bouquet of daffodils and carnations.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Coolman, the hostess, served delicious refreshments. The Sunshine Sisters are meeting again at the home of Mrs. Lucian Gilbert on Friday afternoon of this week at two o'clock. The group will probably meet each Friday afternoon during Lent, places will be announced.

Rev. Gordon Cameron's Bible and song service was held at the home of Homer Coolman this last Thursday evening. In spite of inclement weather, and a large amount of sickness, twenty persons were present.

Mrs. Edwin Tamm of Farmington, who is soon to leave for a visit to St. Petersburg, Florida, was a visitor at the Sunshine Sisters meeting this week and pleased all with a lovely vocal rendering of a beautiful hymn.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser in Hattigton Woods.

Half a dozen new boys and girls turned out at the young people's meeting, bringing the attendance to nearly thirty. The Year-old Dorothy Attaway, a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, gave a demonstration of knowledge of Bible verses showing a remarkable memory. Nine year old Phyllis Ault won a prize for reciting the books of the Bible rapidly and correctly. This coming Friday evening the boys and girls will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Willoughby on Mayfield avenue and a Valentine party is promised them.

Edward White of Detroit was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clarke.

LOSEY CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon attended a meeting of the Michigan Dairy Goat Association at Ann Arbor, Friday. Mr. Dixon was the wife president at the State meeting at Lansing during Farm Week.

Principal Alex Yeoman gave a skating party for the boys and girls of the safety patrol. It was held at Wilcox lake and had all the trimmings, hot dogs, toasted marshmallows, etc. were furnished the children. All but a few turned out to enjoy the treat. Mr. Yeoman provided for them. The party was held Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howe, with their daughter, Virginia, moved to their home recently built at Five points. The neighbors wish them happiness in their new home and will miss them in the community.

Rev. John Yeoman and wife.

while touring in the South included a visit to New Orleans, to enjoy watching the Mardi Gras.

WINTER MAGIC

The mail of stories my eyes have seen,
With the snow piled high on the evergreen,
The naked boughs of the willow tree
Gathered its share of jewels free.

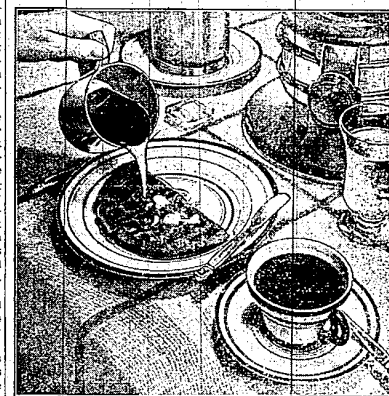

A beautiful carpet of purest white
Was laid for the fairies who danced all night.
An old gray owl from a hollow tree
Danced with a squirrel and laughed with glee.

The sun in the heavens grew warm and bright,
And touched the snow so pure and white.
Away went the fairies and jewels rare,
Melted the snow and the trees were bare.

Mrs. Robert Fredericks

Have Coffee Waffles — and Coffee!

COFFEE in the cup and coffee in the waffles—there's a breakfast that will get you up in the morning! It's the modern version of an old-fashioned morning meal, so make your coffee always fresh (the correct strength is one heaping tablespoon to each cup) and serve it piping hot. Its fragrant aroma is the best alarm clock, and its favorite companion for winter breakfast is coffee waffles you can make two at a time with the modern double-baker, with this better batter:

Coffee Waffles:
1 1/2 cups sifted flour,
2 teaspoons phosphate baking powder

1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup double strength freshly-made coffee
1/2 cup irradialized evaporated milk
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 egg whites

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Beat egg yolks until light, add cooled coffee, evaporated milk, and butter. Pour the liquid mixture into the dry ingredients and stir only enough to blend thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and fold into the batter. Bake according to directions given for your waffle iron. 6 waffles.

Styles HAVE CHANGED!

The MODERN Gas Range IS...
REVOLUTIONIZING The Routine of COOKING

Yes ladies, styles have changed. However this statement does not begin to explain the many amazing features of today's modern automatic GAS range. It is so different from the one you bought even a few years ago.

This unbelievable improvement in the old familiar gas range is no haphazard development, nor are the changes confined to superficial streamlining and gadgets. The new ranges are the results of intensive research and study by the entire gas range industry. Each improvement is basic, affecting the performance of every part of the range. The exterior designs have been modernized and convenient new features are included to complete the transformation and assure you greater economy, greater freedom and greater cooking results.
