Snedcor's Howell Cleaners, 20-1-C

It was the pleasure of the West Farmington school boys and girls to listen to Miss Dorothy Kurtz of 13 Mile Road, on Friday morning when she played some piano selections, among which were Stedinger's "Rattle of Spring" and Percy Granger's "Country Garden." She concluded with the Star Spangled Banner, accompanied by the pupils singing. Miss Kurtz, who is a piano instructor, previously attended the West Farmington school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Checketts and Bill Wiley were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Checketts' friend, Miss Lee Cole, of Royal Oak. Miss Cole is an art instructor in the Royal Oak Schools.

Second Meeting Called For New V. F. W. Post

A second meeting has been called for Farmington veterans and persons interested in organizing a new Veterans of Foreign Wars post here, according to an announcement made by Ambers Stulec, representative of the Department of Michigan, V. F. W.

The meeting will be held at the Victory restaurant, Saturday, March 9, beginning at 7:30 p. m. All veterans who would like to join this new post are invited to attend this meeting.

Girl Scouts Hold Birthday Party

Farmington Girl Scouts will hold a gala celebration during the next month to mark their third year of active scouting. Troop No. 7 of Farmington Girl Scouts was organized in October, 1937, under the direction of Mrs. Robert G. Cate, then a new-comer to the community. Ten members were enlisted at that time and by March of 1939, there were 21 active members, and a waiting list of 20. The need for additional leadership was noted, and Miss Frances Erickson, sixth grade teacher, acted in the capacity of assistant scout leader for two years.

Much interest was manifested in the Girl Scouts, until at the present time there are two troops, under the direction of Mrs. Cate and Mrs. Warren Joy, and two Brownie Packs, led by Mrs. Dolores Hansen and Mrs. Lee Moates, with a total membership of 75 girls, and four committees of 19 members. Many girls are still waiting for the opportunity to join one of the troops.

The success of Girl Scouting in Farmington is largely due to the untiring effort of the leaders and the committee members. All mothers who are interested in scouting for their daughters, are urged to take an active part in scouting, and to enlighten their daughters.

During March the 28th anniversary of National Girl Scouting will be observed, and it is only fitting that the Farmington troops should celebrate and lend their aid. A birthday party will be held on Thursday, March 14, at seven o'clock in the auditorium of the High School. Committees for the affair have been named, with the Entertainment Committee consisting of Mrs. Warren Joy, Mrs. Marie Testhagen, Mrs. Robert Cate, Mrs. Dolores Hamlin and Mrs. Lee Moates. Acting on the Reception Committee will be Mrs. G. T. Aschenbrenner, Mrs. Wesley Goodfellow and Mrs. Ivar Anderson.

The refreshments are in charge of Mrs. Homer Eisenrod, Mrs. Carl Goers, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Charles Elkin and Mrs. Leo Hendryx, and acting on the Service Committee are Mr. F. J. Nash, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. Ed Faulkner, Mrs. Albert Deals and Mrs. Edwin Smith.

OPERATING ROOM MEANT "HOSPITAL" TO THIS LAD

A group of school children was being taken through a telephone exchange in the Philadelphia Building, and when they reached the "operating room," said the guide, "we're going to the Operating Room." A boy in the crowd looped up, blanched, and, with definite "stomach" shudder, "Not no, please, can't see with the wind."
