

Guthrie Watson Rites

Linda Jane Watson became the bride of David N. Guthrie in a recent double-ring ceremony in the Highland Park Baptist Church of Southfield, with the Rev. William Bock officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Watson of Clawson, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guthrie of Bretton Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the bridegroom.

A DINNER RECEPTION in the church hall followed the ceremony.

Rhoda Wilkinson of Montreal was the bride's honor attendant, and the bridesmaids were Donna Guthrie of Livonia, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Dennis

Schulers Wed In Farmington

Kathie Lynn Fetherston took a flower from her bridal bouquet and placed it in Stephen Bradford Schuler's boutonniere as part of the double-ring ceremony that united them in marriage.

Their vows were spoken in the First United Methodist Church of Farmington, with the Rev. Hugh C. White officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard James Fetherston of Gill Road, Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Schuler of Glen Orchard Drive, Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white shantung with Venice lace trim featuring a Victorian collar, empire waist, and wattle train with lace inserts. Lace also trimmed her veil, and her bouquet was a gathering of stephanotis, baby's breath, cornflowers, violet statice and aqua cornettes.

Her three attendants wore aqua chiffon pants dresses and carried similar flowers.

Sharon Siegler of Southfield, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were another cousin, Jo Ann Martin of Lakewood, Ohio, and Mrs. James McGregor of Milford.

Harry D. Schuler of South Livonia was best man for his brother and the ushers were James H. Fetherston, brother of the bride, and Don M. Chamberlin of Milford.

MRS. FETHERSTON chose a peach silk shantung dress, and Mrs. Schuler was in mint green silk shantung.

The couple greeted guests at a reception in the Farmington Elks Lodge before leaving on a Toronto honeymoon.

They will live in West Bloomfield.

Both are graduates of Farmington High School. The new Mrs. Schuler attended Oakland Community College and is a claims representative with League General Insurance Co. Her husband studied at Ferris State College and is a production coordinator for Gaylord Printing Co.

Couple Married In St. Genevieve

MRS. DENNIS JAMES PETHOLSKY
(Christina Agnes Papi)

St. Genevieve Catholic Church in Livonia was the scene of the recent nuptials of Christina Agnes Papi and Dennis James Petholsky.

Mr. and Mrs. Enzo Papi of Deering Street, Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Francis V. Petholsky of Perth Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the couple.

The Rev. Richard Schmidberger officiated, and the bride was given in marriage by her father and mother.

GALON LACE over crystal peau de soie fashioned the bride's A-line gown. Her headpiece of pearls and lace held a bouffant fingertip veil, and she carried stephanotis, phalaenopsis orchids, roses and peach-tinted baby's breath.

Nancy Kawalski was maid of honor. Her dress had a bodice of white lace over taffeta and a peach chiffon over taffeta skirt, and she carried a nosegay of peach daises and white baby's breath. Her headpiece was made of matching flowers.

Similarly gowned in turquoise and white were the bridesmaids, Becky Papi, sister of the bride, Mary Ellen Palo and Cheryl and Carol Mahoney.

Bridet Papi, as flower girl, wore a yellow and white dress and carried a basket of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath.

GEORGE MATUS, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Seating the guests were Gary Coffman, Paul Mancinelli, Dave Nawrot and Bruce Bailey of New York, also a cousin.

Danny Shafer was ring-bearer.

Mrs. Papi selected a gown of yellow chiffon and lace over taffeta. Mrs. Petholsky wore turquoise chiffon and taffeta.

The reception for 450 guests was held in the P.L.A.V. Hall in Dearborn.

The newlyweds are living in Norfolk, Va., where the bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Navy. He and his bride both are graduates of Bentley High School.

Wisda-Olson Rites Held In Plymouth

Jenni Lee Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Olson of Drury Lane, Plymouth, became the bride of David John Wisda in an Aug. 14 ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wisda of Birmingham.

Salvation Army Col. S.W. Franzen performed the ceremony, with the Rev. Paul M. Cargo reading the scripture.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown with a calla lily neckline and long bishop sleeves. A pearl cap held her illusion veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses, daisies and chrysanthemums.

Her attendants wore lace-trimmed silk organza gowns in rainbow shades and carried baskets of daisies, roses and carnations.

Therese Biegert of Minneapolis, the maid of honor, was in blue. Wearing pink, green and yellow were the bridesmaids, Lisa and Carrie Olson, sisters of the bride, and Nancy Wisda, sister of the bridegroom.

DALE GRAZAK was best man and the ushers were Craig Simcock, Wayne Meir and Phillip McEroy.

Mrs. Olson chose a floor-length turquoise dress with floral embroidery and Mrs. Wisda's dress was pink and white checked.

Guests for the wedding and Fellowship Hall reception included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Olson of Chicago.

The couple honeymooned in northern Michigan and will live in Plymouth. The new Mrs. Wisda attended Schoolcraft Community College and her husband went to Oakland Community College.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Baird recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a party in their home in Tracy, Calif. Mrs. Baird is the former Barbara Ryall of Farmington and is a 1938 graduate of Farmington High School.
