

LOSEY CORNERS

Mrs. Mary Goodfellow has returned home from the Redford Receiving Hospital where she was taken with an infection in her hand. She is now able to be around and visited her sister, Mrs. Rose Dearborn, Monday. Mrs. Helen Dixon accompanied her.

Mrs. William Breitenbach of Saline visited Mrs. Robert Fredericks Tuesday afternoon.

Scarlet fever is still prevalent in the Wilcox district. The latest case to be reported are those of the Merrifield children on Clinton. There are four other children in this family, one a three weeks old baby. The neighbors are doing all that's possible to prevent a spread of the disease in this locality.

Mr. Roy Davis left for the home of his father in Altona, Pa., Sunday night. Mr. Davis, Sr., 81 years of age, has been ill for some time and little hope for his recovery is held.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fredericks Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George Carr of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miner of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mansfield of 18855 Maplewood.

The Farmington Enterprise, a paper that has quite a touch of wanderlust, is reported as having left the home town to carry greetings and news to Mr. H. B. Bylow, editor of the Gulfport Tribune, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lutz of Ann Arbor. Mr. Lutz is president of the Michigan Dairy Goat Producing Society.

About 30 attended the Father and Son banquet at Hope Chapel Friday of last week. The Ladies Aid put on the supper. Rev. Lomas had, charge of arrangements.

Mrs. L. A. Mansfield and Mrs. Robert Fredericks were guests for Easter breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Foster of St. Mite and Middle Belt.

Mrs. Ruth Noble entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon Saturday evening of last week.

Friends of Mrs. Edwin K. Tamm, formerly of Farmington, will be interested to know she won a prize at a cooking exhibit in St. Petersburg, Florida. The prize was a beautifully hand painted salad bowl. Her entry was a sponge cake.

"TO MY SISTER"
A word of six letters I have in mind,
Look for its meaning and you will find.
One that is loyal, kind hearted and true;
One that will love you be skies gray or blue.

She'll told you defend you, and help where she may,
She'll share all she has without thought of pay.
The word "Why is sister", I thought you knew!
Sister, God bless her, with heart of true blue.

Lovingly dedicated to my sister Mrs. George Strasburg, Thomas, Connecticut.

—Mrs. Robert Fredericks.

SAKS CO. PLANS NEW STORE IN DETROIT SOON

Charles T. Fisher, president of Fisher & Company, announced this week that Saks Fifth Avenue, one of America's best known fashion headquarters, is to establish a Detroit store in the New Center Building.

Mr. Fisher points out that it is a distinct tribute to the strategic location of the New Center Building, adjoining as it does the Fisher and General Motors Buildings, to have one of America's most exclusive retail establishments set up above all others for its Detroit store.

In announcing the lease, terms of which were not disclosed, Mr. Fisher pointed out that Adam L. Gimpl, president of Saks Fifth Avenue and Bernard F. Gimpl, chairman of the board, have visited Detroit on numerous occasions. They have been impressed with the New Center location and the opportunity it offers their company to join with other high quality shops in this city in entering to discriminating Detroiters.

The Detroit Saks Fifth Avenue store, will occupy the major part of the first floor, the entire second floor and the basement. The total area will exceed eighty thousand square feet. Detroit will be the sixth Saks Fifth Avenue store in America. In addition to the parent store in New York, Saks Fifth Avenue has stores in Chicago, Beverly Hills, California; Miami Beach and Palm Beach.

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

A brilliant screen transmutation of Victor Hugo's renowned novel, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" will open Friday at the Redford Theatre, with Charles Laughton in the title role, with a star-studded feature cast, with a record roster of atmospheric players, and with a vivid pageant of medieval Parisian life staged against dazzling sets of monumental proportions.

Treating of that significant period of European history just before Columbus discovered America, when thinkers everywhere were throwing off the shackles of superstition and ignorance and were awakening to a new world of progress, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" has long been a classic of literature. Written in 1830, the book created a world-wide sensation and established the name of Victor Hugo.

Its immortal tale deals with Quasimodo, the deformed but loyal orphan who rings the great bells of Notre Dame. A beautiful dancing cynic, Esmeralda, comes to Paris for the annual Feast of Fools in the winter of 1482. She arouses the sinister interest of the boy or girl who owns a harmonica, or other musical instrument is asked to bring it along.

Rev. Gordon Cameron's Bible and song service for adults was held this past week on Friday night in the church. The service is intended to be the custom and at the home of Russell Ault, it will meet on Friday night again this week at the home of Frank Willoughby on Mayfield Avenue. The service is intended to be national, and anyone attending will find a welcome.

Miss Florence Stator of Detroit was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clarke.

The West Point Bible church service are being well attended both morning and evening. Rev. H. Vandercock is taking charge of the services while Miss Evangeline B. Farnum will be out on tour organizing some branches of this Bible church. Miss Farnum will be absent about eight weeks. Please read the church notices.

Miss Shirley Zwalton was the dinner guest Friday of Miss Olive Grimwade of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rigney, daughter Patricia, of Farmington, were Sunday dinner guests of Miss Shirley Zwalton.

Mrs. A. E. Fuller of Northville, with her son Howard Fuller, of Detroit, were guests Saturday afternoon of Mrs. Arthur Williams.

The executive board of the P. T. A. wishes to thank Mrs. Homer Colman, Mrs. Leigh Minx, and Mrs. L. Hutchins, who served on the committee for the successful card party held last Thursday for the benefit milk fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heichman were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carey of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zwalton were Sunday evening luncheon guests of Captain and Mrs. O. L. Ducommun of Rosedale Park, Detroit.

Rev. H. Sandercock will hold a series of cottage prayer meetings each Wednesday at the home of George Grevels on Meridian Court.

Dinner's Always Ready,

Thanks to Pigeon Post LONDON—"Fed-up" with not getting his dinner on time when he arrived home from work, William Ramsey, a Tibbury, Essex, bus conductor, has found a way out.

Now every day he takes a pigeon to work with him, and shortly before leaving at night he writes a note to his wife, saying when he expects to reach the house. Then he ties it to the pigeon's leg and releases the bird.

can't complain about their meals. It's up to you to choose feeds that do the job right. Thousands of poultrymen place their confidence in the LARRO PULLET RAISING PLAN. It's easy. Only two mashes instead of three. The first 12 weeks feed Larro Chick Builder, then change to Larro Egg Mash for the rest of their lives.

Biggest motoring SURPRISE
since Lincoln-Zephyr!

IN its own way, Mercury 8 has done again, at a lower price, what Lincoln-Zephyr did a few years ago. It has gathered together the good things its price would normally buy... then topped them off with still more good things its price never bought before! It flashed to instant, brilliant success by being a brilliant new kind of car!

Drive it and you soon see how truly new it is! You find it big... big to look at, big to ride in. You find it marvelously comfortable. You find it superbly powered... with a '95 horsepower V-8 engine that stands already as one of the country's most respected performers. You find it faultlessly fitted... with fingertip gearshift on the steering post, interior luxury peculiarly its own, sleek lines, rich colors... safe with steel and Safety Glass throughout.

And then you hear owners tell of mileage up to 20 per gallon... and your wife exclaims that, for all its size, it's the easiest car she ever drove... and you know that another new Ford-built car has opened another new world of motoring satisfaction!
