Few advertisements in your newspaper start that way. Yet most of them are just as personal, and almost as promising.

Manufacturers and merchants must know your needs and wants, or go out of business. They must know, for instance, that about the first of next month you'll be very much interested in a new hat, or a new lamp, or new towels. They must foresee your wishes-and have what you'll want when you want it.

And they do-constantly striving to suit, at the lowest possible prices. Then telling you in advertising of the gifts they have brought from the far corners of the earth, to please Your Royal

Read the advertisements in this paper. They are addressed to you-personally. They bring you news of better things to have and easier ways to live. Intimate news, of immediate interest.

Old Shells Recovered Unexploded shells are still being found in the war zone of France 18 years after the World war. |A private company which was engaged six years ago to hunt and destroy them is still actively operating with quarters in Couty-le-Chateau near the emplacement of the. "Big Bertha," which shelled Paris. Besides doing its own hunting, the company is informed of the accidental finding of shells. It sensit is special trucks, fitted for handling explosives, and the shell is taken to the exploding ground. It has responded the 4,530 reports of found shells, on 1,550 to 1,55

NUMBER OF "GYP" SYRUP SALESMEN ON DECREASE

The late season and the indi-cated shortage of maple products has tended towards the elimination of the pseudo syrup salesmen in Michigan, according to the records of the Department of Agriculture. Ordinarily at this time of the year,
