County Dairymen Plan Sire Sale in Rochester.

A purebred datry sire sale without an auctioner is to be attempted again this fail by Oaksland County distrymen. It is to be held at the horse barn on the farm of the Perry-Morse Seel Breeding Station, 2 miles south of Rochestér, on Thursday, October 31 and Friday, November 1. The idea back of the sale is to permit farmers who are interested in purchasing better dairy sires to make a study and special selection of the pedigree and production record of the family of cattle back of each animal. This is a recognized means of improving the efficiency of production of a dairy herd.

More than 40 dairy bulls ranging in age from six months up to two years will be shown and offered for sale. Each animal in the sale must qualify by having been producted from a dam with a record
