Gene Tutney, undefeated heavy-weight champion of the world, friend of boys and crusader against the "Isns" which he believes are now threatening American young people, will speak before the De-troit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre: Wednesday, December 4, at 11 a.m., on the subject "Amer-tean Youth." be visits to the Grand Canyon, the Painted Desert, Bryce, Zion, and at 11 a. m., on the subject "American Youth."

Idol of millions for more than a decade, Mr., Timney has devoted a large part of the past few years to helping American youth in its problems, and to organizing boys' cituds throughout, the country. He has figured in the mitional headlines during recent months for; his denunciation of the American Youth Congress for fits subversive "ism" doctrines, and his establishment and leadership of the National Foundation for American Youth, and repair of the propaganda.

The caregor of Gene, Tunney reads like an Horatio Alger story, Born a poor boy, he rose to the top because he had that impregnable combination—confidence in himself and no bad habits. He learned to bo with the Marines in rrange ing the World War. A far cry are his recent achievements a Shakespearian student, top-n resiness executive, successful
