E. M. SMITH APPOINTED TO EXECUTIVE BOARD

Recognition of the advances being made in Scouting throughout the Farmington area, came last week at the Clinton Valley Boy Scout Council annual dinner and dance, held at the Hotel Waldron, Smith of 2320 Farmington Road, committee man of Troop 45, was elected to the Executive Board of the Council. This body is the governing board of Cubbing, Boy Scouting and Sea Scouting. The Council and Masonic County organizations, Mr. Smith has been an active member of Troop 45 committee for the past twelve months and has served as a member of the Southern District's Court of Honor.

It was through the persistent efforts of Mr. Smith that it was possible to secure the local Scout Hall stove at a substantial discount. He is an ardent supporter of Scouting as the proper medium to teach our children the principles of Americanism, self-reliance and the advantages of outdoor life.

CIVIC THEATRE OFFERS FINE BILL JANUARY 26-28

On Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, January 26, 27 and 28 the Civic Theatre will present a fine double-feature entertainment, plus a color cartoon.

"Arise My Love" starring Claudette Colbert and Ray Milland is an entertainment both gay and fast moving. It tells the story of an American girl who is called upon to help a Frenchman escape from a prison camp.

The second feature is "Tin Pan Alley" with Alice Faye, Betty Grable, Jack Oakie and John Payne. This picture is a comedy drama with some very fine tunes, including such well known numbers as "K-K-Kat", "Moonlight Bay", "When You Were a Tulp and I Wore a Big Red Rose", "The Sheik of Araby" and others.

The story is about vaudeville in the year 1900. A pair of struggling time-servers, played by Payne and Oakie borrow money from a sister act, Alice Faye and Betty Grable, to purchase a song that has been composed by a piano player in a cheap neighborhood. The song writers meet with success and Payne and Alice Faye fall in love. She continues to plug the songs written by the boys, and her sister, Lily, becomes a star in a show.

When the show breaks out, the boys are broke again after Katie leaves them to rejoin her sister, and they enlist and are sent overseas. In London they meet, differences are patched up and when the girls return home after the war, their favorite tune "K-K-Kat" becomes the marching song for the A.E.F.

Fred Hamlin Dies At Home In Clare

The many friends of Delos Hamlin, Farmington merchant, were sorry to learn of the death of Fred Hamlin of Clare, early Wednesday morning. Mr. Hamlin was 69 years old, and died of cerebral hemorrhage following a stroke.

Surviving him are his three sons, St. Clair of South Lyon, Belter of Lamont of Howell.

Prayer services will be held at the home in Clare Friday morning at ten o'clock, with funeral services at Vernon, Michigan at two o'clock Friday afternoon.

Air Corps Taking New Enlistments

Sergeant William M. Gates, in charge of the army recruiting station in the chamber of commerce offices at Hotel Waldron, in Pontiac, announced this week that an unlimited number of young men are being accepted for the air corps technical service. Enlistees will be sent either to Chanute Field or Scott Field, both in Illinois, he said. Men between the ages of 18 and 35 are sought. The recruiting office is open from 7:30 a. m. to 4:20 p. m. and evenings by appointment.

By allowing as much time as possible to make changes in addresses, readers will avoid delay or missing issues of the paper as well as costly confusion in the postoffice.

'Back-Passing' Is Natural For Persons of All Ages

When a woman realizes that her next birthday will take her out of the youthful twenties, and make her 30 years old, she becomes lithe and fearful of entering this new decade. Vaguely, she worries lest she may have missed something important in life. She hungers for romance, fearing that old age may soon be upon her, when she erroneously believes romance cannot exist. Women are dangerous and in danger of being taken in by a young man by flirt with the idea of more romance. If their husbands aren't feeding them a heavy romantic diet of compliments about their youth and beauty they may even enter the thoughts of some secret flirtations.

There is, moreover, an old saying that it takes a thief to catch a thief. This means, in substance, that guilty people tend to believe others are guilty. When a person begins to accuse others falsely and to excess, we often find such behavior is an evidence of "projection" or of blaming the other party for our own faults.

When a child awkwardly strikes his shin against a chair, he doesn't hit himself, but grows angry at the chair, maybe giving it an additional kick for retaliation. Even adult men will throw a hammer on the floor when they have pounded their children over before they take when the captain reprimands the lieutenant, the latter scolds the corporal, who then bawls out the private, who finally kicks the mule.

This back-passing is called "projection" meaning the act of blaming another person for our own sins or faults.

Boys Strike When Girls Use Salt in Lemonade

They had a wagon, the two little girls, one of those express wagons which children own before they take it apart to make two other things out of it.

This one was in pretty fair condition, and at the moment was upon a large cracked picher full of pale liquid in which a few mysterious things were floating, and two jelly glasses, one large, one small. In the case anyone might not understand the significance of these props, a sign leaning against the wagon explained all:

LIMONADE Big GLASS 4c. SMALL GLASS 2c.

The two little girls stood proudly on either side of the wagon and took turns calling their wares. "Lemonade," they called in chorus. "You take a big glass! They also took turns sampling just to make sure their product continued up to standard.

Up to this time the story is quite usual. But presently up the street came three small boys each bearing a cardboard sign on a stick. The lettering on the signs, executed in ink upon a piece of blue-blackening, read:

GIRLS UNFAIR TO BOYS. BEWARE. GIRLS USE SALT IN LIMONADE.

Business, apparently was affected by this labor trouble. There were no customers in evidence.

Plan Rooms for Exposure

The influence of geographic location can have considerable effect on a home and should be considered when planning room exposures.

In localities where winters are long and severe, a compact plan and low ceilings are said to be desirable to permit ease of heating with economy. In such locations full advantage of the radiant heat of the sun is desirable in as many rooms as possible, as well as some form of protection from cold winds.

In a warm climate the opposite is required and less compact plans are needed in order to take advantage of prevailing breezes and to secure cross and through ventilation in as many rooms as possible. In this case protection from the heat of the sun is needed, and the most desirable rooms are those which are cool and shaded.

Don't Be Too Smart

One way to keep the other fellow from marking you down as dumb or misinformed is to confine your position to a qualified opinion on the subject or subjects on which you are an authority. When the talk is down your alley be as positive as you like, but when it goes around to the other fellow's field, let him tell you.

The reason this simple rule is so hard to follow is that the average fellow is afraid to admit he doesn't know everything about everything. He is afraid that if he asks questions and try to learn from the other fellow, he'll think he is smarter. Proof that nothing like that happens occurs all the time. A man who is completely ignorant of the subject in which he is most interested, interrupting only to ask an intelligent question. And the other fellow will say, "There's a smart person."

Pies in Refrigerators

A device you may borrow from commercial pastry makers is that of holding ready-to-bake pies in the refrigerator for an hour or more before baking. Thoroughly chilled pie, when baked, will have a more tender crust than a pie which enters the oven at room temperature.

SENIOR PROM WILL BE FEBRUARY 8

Residents of Farmington will want to mark their calendar with a ring around Saturday, February 8, for that is the date of the Farmington High School Senior Prom.

This year the Seniors have planned something a little different for the Prom, inasmuch as it will be called "style." Tables will be set up about the gymnasium, and refreshments will be served throughout the evening. Bobby Ambers' Orchestra will supply the music for dancing, from 8:30 to 12.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the Senior Class. Table reservations may be made for four persons, by asking the Senior from whom the tickets are purchased. There are no reserved tables for two, but two couples may reserve a table together.

Remember the Prom is Saturday evening, February 8, at the High School Gymnasium.

Comparison of angling pressure from creel censuses on typical northern Michigan warm water lakes and on trout streams shows that the trout streams are fished about seven times as heavily as the lakes.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their many kind expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. Also to Rev. Stubbs for his comforting words.

REVERTED LAND SALE REACHES $124,715.48

Sales of tax-reverted lands former owners asked to be auctioned in 16 of the 47 northern counties where the conservation department administers these lands already sold for $124,715.48.

Revenues from sales are distributed by the office of the state's auditor general to counties, townships, cities, villages and school districts in proportion to their respective tax equities in the property at the time of reversion to the state.

The most recent sales disposed of 12,322 acres of the 29,000 acres offered in Luce, Chippewa and Mackinac counties, at an average sale price of 91 cents an acre, and of 94 of the 119 parcels of platted property offered in these counties.
