"Please Deliver 1,000 Miles of Telephone Wire"

Sounds like a staggering order, doesn't it? But to Western Electric it's commonplace. The resources of this central supply unit are great enough to meet stupendous demands. Through scientific purchasing and standardized, large-scale production, it provides the companies of the Bell System with the best of telephone equipment at low cost. At this time, when rapid expansion of telephone service is a defense necessity, the Michigan Bell can rely on this dependable source of supply.

CIVIC THEATRE SCHEDULES HITS FOR COMING WEEK

"Christmas in July" which comes to the Civic Theatre Friday and Saturday, stars Dick Powell, praised in newspaper, and magazine for his performance in "I Want a Divorce." Powell is seen as the winner of a radio contest whose experience is the core of the story, with Ellen Drew as the girl with whom possession of the prize money makes marriage possible. The other picture is "Rangers of Fortune." Scene of the story is a town north of the Mexican border called Santa Marta. To this town come three adventurers (played by Fred MacMurray, Albert Dekker and Gilbert Roland) brinche a newspaper publisher and his daughter, 13. It is a sequence of strance, baffling and thrilling incidents that is bundled together, executed with spirit, resolution, dash and a touch of humor.

Coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, is "The Westerner" with Gary Cooper. Sharing honors with Cooper is the performance of Walter Brennan, who as the colorful frontier personality, the rascally renegade "Judge Roy Bearer" makes memorable screen moments. "Bittersweet," also to be shown on these dates, co-stars the famous team of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy. Supporting the two singers are George Sanders, Paul Hunter and Felix Bressart. Music and lyrics for "Bittersweet" were written by Noel Coward.

First motion picture to deal with the topical subject of aerial crop dusting, Universal's "Give Us Wings" which will be shown at the Civic on Wednesday and Thursday will offer something different in the way of screen entertainment. The cast is headed by the famed Dead End Kids and the Little Tough Guys. Thrilling aerial scenes, including several spectacular crashes, interesting closeups of crops being dusted from the air, and the inimitable comic antics of his youthful stars are reported to be highlights of the new production.

Companion feature to "Give Us Wings" is Bob Burns' latest starring vehicle, "Comin' Round the Mountain. Burns receives able support from Una Merkel.
