

Newlyweds Have Home On Campus

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jay Jenny are making their home in an apartment on the Taylor University campus at Upland, Ind., following their recent marriage in Covenant Community Church in Redford Township.

Mrs. Jenny is the former Geraldine Carolyn Covert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Covert of Cranston Avenue, Livonia.

Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick of Livonia, Kathy Lesher of Jenny of Glenview, Pa. The Rev. John L. Drummond officiated for the Aug. 14 candlelight service.

SOLOISTS for the wedding were the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Burt of Madrid, Spain, who were married there in June. Mrs. Burt also served as matron of honor for her sister.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line gown of silk organza with venetian lace trim, and ruffles at the wrist and hemline. With it she wore a white picture hat and carried a toptary ball with blue cornflowers, white daisies and baby's breath, red sweetheart roses and yellow mums.

Her attendants, along with Mrs. Burt, were Mary Jane Rice of Dubuque, Iowa, maid of honor, and Barbara Osborn of Livonia, Kathy Lesher of Grove City, Ohio, cousin of the bridegroom, and Janice Covert of East Lansing, sister-in-law of the bride. Susie Boos of Livonia was flower girl.

Their chasms gowns were floral printed in red, blue, yellow and green on white, and they wore yellow picture hats and carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Jenny wore an aqua gown and Mrs. Covert was in yellow. The couple greeted 250 guests in a reception in the church's Fellowship Hall before leaving on a New England and Canada honeymoon. The new Mrs. Jenny is continuing her studies as a junior at Taylor University.

Her husband, a Taylor graduate, is a graduate student at Ball State University and teaching math at Marion, Ind.

Spotlight on Women

Perry Jamieson Wed

Perry Jamieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jamieson of Farmington, claimed Stephanie Deats as his bride in an Aug. 21 ceremony in the Hartford Street Presbyterian Church in Natick, Mass.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Deats of Holliston, Mass., wore a white dotted Swiss gown with a picture hat trimmed in pale yellow.

Her sister, Mrs. Gary Saubedissen, was her only attendant and wore a similar gown of yellow with forest green trim.

Assisting the bridegroom were Gary Saubedissen as best man and Russell Deats III and Frederick Deats as ushers.

The newlyweds had a honeymoon trip south into Virginia and will live in Clawson.

The new Mrs. Jamieson graduated from Michigan State University in 1970 and is nursing at Pontiac State Hospital. Her husband, a 1969 MSU graduate, is working on his master's degree at Wayne State University.

Deborah Dunn Is New Bride

Deborah Ann Dunn became the bride of Jeffery E. Fitzgerald in a reception ceremony in Niagara Falls, N.Y.

A reception for the couple was held in the Farmington Country Club, and they are living in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, all of Farmington.

Garden Club Will Meet

Garden therapy will be discussed by Mrs. John Passfield, a member of Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington, at the 8 p.m. Oct. 6 meeting of the Livonia Garden Club.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held in St. Matthew United Methodist Church, 30900 Six Mile, Livonia. Women interested may contact Mrs. Steven Russell, 7262 Westbrooke or Mrs. Al Marshall, 17749 Parklane.

Penelope Dale Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stokes of Beck Rd., Plymouth, is a recent graduate of the Harper Hospital School of Nursing.

Local Lamaze Class Starts

A series of six classes for expectant parents offered by the Lamaze Childbirth Preparation Association will begin Oct. 5 in Plymouth.

Interested couples can contact Mrs. Alan Woodworth, 171 Blank, Plymouth (447) registration.

The course includes films, lectures, and exercises to prepare both husband and wife for the birth of their child. It provides a thorough understanding of the birth process. Since it was started three years ago, 400 Plymouth couples have participated.

The Gourmet Adventurer

DICK BENSK

Most of us don't realize it, but authorities tell us that vegetables are an acquired taste, not an inherent one. In fact, vegetables probably started as starvation foods — foods people ate when they couldn't get meat. The bean, for example, is very old. Samples of it have been found as far back as the Neolithic period. The turnip is also very old, so old that no one has been able to trace the date when it was first cultivated. The original turnip, too, is lost in antiquity. The carrot, on the other hand, comes to us from the eighteenth century, when it was first cultivated, and the popularity of the potato is due to Louis XIV and Frederick the Great. Gradually then, we have acquired our vegetable tastes. Spinach today. Who knows, maybe South Seas sea urchin tomorrow!

Today — Tomorrow — Always! — You'll find only the finest of foods cooked and served at DANISH INN CORP., 32305 Grand River Ave., 478-5320. We honor most credit cards and have a complete menu for your selection including three daily specials on our lunch menu. Open 11 a.m. — 2 a.m. with dinners during the week until 10 p.m. Fri. and Sat. until 1 a.m. Reservations online welcomed.

HELPFUL HINT: To wash beans, put them in your flour sifter and let water run over them. The water will both wash the beans, and dissolve those little hard pieces of dirt.

DIRECTOR KEN CHOMONT (right) is shown with Errol Fortin and Jenny McLean, the two stars of the comedy "The Tiger," set for production the first two weekends in October by the Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild. Mrs. Daniel Borovik, 34948 Grove, Livonia, is in charge of ticket sales.

Metamorphosis At Churchill

The Churchill High School Band will present the Symphonic Metamorphosis in concert Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 8 p.m.

The Metamorphosis, the rock ensemble from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will perform in the high school auditorium, 8900 Newburgh, Livonia.

Tickets will be on sale at the school and at the door.

In the afternoon, at 1:30, the group will give an hour and a half clinic for Livonia music students.

THE GROUP HAS just returned from appearing at the new Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. During the summer it was a rock group — in residence at Oakland University and was featured in performances at Tanglewood Music Festival with Ray Charles.

In the group are seven young men, all presently members of the Detroit Symphony. Dave Krenbiel is principal French horn with the symphony and Tom Bacon is assistant. Krenbiel is also director of the Brass Choir of Wayne State University. He plays the bass trumpet and bass guitar.

Wes Jacobs, who plays tuba with the symphony, was bass guitar for four years with the Carpenters. He has also played for the American Ballet Theatre.

Erv Monroe, who is principal flute with the symphony, is a composer, lead guitarist, flutist and vocalist for the Metamorphosis.

Larry Bagland, who traveled with the Jimmy Dorsey Band, plays bassoon with the symphony, and sax and bassoon with the Metamorphosis.

Sam Tundo is a percussionist and also does vocals with the group.

Casting Call

The Plymouth Theatre Guild will hold tryouts for its first production of the season Monday, Oct. 4, at 8 p.m., in Central High School (the old Plymouth High School), Church and Main.

The play "Never Too Late" by Sumner Arthur Long is tentatively scheduled for production Dec. 9, 10 and 11.

Poetess To Speak

Poetess Anne Waldman will make two appearances at Schoolcraft College to read and discuss her work, kicking off the fall series of visiting poets on campus.

Miss Waldman will be at Schoolcraft at 3 and 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 6, in the lower level of Waterman Campus Center. The public may attend. There is no charge for admission.

Miss Waldman is a resident of New York City where she directs the poetry project at St. Mark's Church in The Bowery, and is co-editor of Angel Hair Books. Her books include "Baby Breakdown," "Giant Night," and "No Hassles."
