

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

readers as a magazine serial and later as a novel, "Chad Hanna's" success on the screen was virtually assured.

After purchasing the rights to "Chad Hanna," 20th Century-Fox assigned the task of bringing it to life on the screen to the combination which had so much to do with the success of "The Grapes of Wrath"—Associate Producer Nunnally Johnson, who also wrote the screen play, and the star Henry Fonda. Two other important starring roles went to Dorothy Lamour and Linda Darnell. Filmed in brilliant Technicolor and directed by the veteran Henry King, "Chad Hanna" starts his engagement on Friday at the Redford Theater.

"Chad Hanna" tells the appealing story of colorful people, earthy humor and tender romance in a wandering tent show. The romance revolves about Chad, portrayed by Henry Fonda, and another girl, Linda Darnell, who goes on to become one of the show's leading performers. But when the exciting gorgeous Albany Yates, played by Dorothy Lamour, rides into Chad's simple, country boy world, he is garbled by her sultry allure.

A brilliant featured cast listing some of the screen's top names was hand-picked for the projection of vivid characters of the peace-loving, light characters from Edmonds' past novel. Seen in fine roles are Guy Kibbee, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Ted Daryl, Roscoe Ates, and Ben Carter.

Rains Came" and "Drums Along the Mohawk."

And when Walter D. Edmonds' "Chad Hanna" was first appearing in the Saturday Evening Post, it was hailed as a masterpiece of the genre. It was natural that production companies would bid heavily for it. Acclaimed by millions of
