

Abe Fortas Will Replace Warren As Chief Justice

National Roundup

WASHINGTON -- President Johnson has nominated Abe Fortas, associate Supreme Court justice, to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice.

The President has also picked Homer Thornberry, U.S. circuit judge for the fifth Judicial Circuit, to replace Fortas as associate justice.

Forbes, 66, a long-time friend and adviser to the President, had a prominent law practice in Washington prior to being named to the Supreme Court in 1958.

WASHINGTON -- Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler has proposed a 30 cent tax on daily spending over $10 during travel outside the United States.

This figure represents a trim in the administration's original proposal, which called for a tax of 15 to 30 cent on amounts above $7 a day.

WASHINGTON -- The level of fighting in South Vietnam has increased and will remain high and periodic, go higher, Secretary of Defense Robert Clifford said in addressing the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

WASHINGTON -- The Senate has passed a bill to extend its action on a bill to take three national holidays from their traditional places on the calendar and make them fall on Monday every year.

Under legislation now awaiting President Johnson's signature, Washington's Birthday would fall on the third Monday in February rather than Feb. 22; Memorial Day on the last Monday in May instead of May 30; and Veterans Day on the fourth Monday in October instead of Nov. 11.

The measure would also create a new national holiday, Columbus Day, and assign the second Monday in October instead of Oct. 12, the day it is celebrated by unofficial tradition.

COLUMBUS, OHIO -- Hundreds of Communists, some armed with pipes and broken bottles, have rioted at Ohio State Penitentiary, setting 10 major fires and attacking guards.

WASHINGTON -- The government has agreed it will build the largest post office building in the world in New York City at a cost of $100 million. The structure, to be completed early in 1974, will cover a two-block area in Manhattan.

WASHINGTON -- The Rev. Ralph Abernathy has begun a 20-day jail sentence and a $1,000 fine he has refused to pay. He has been ordered to stick to a strict diet, but the Poor People's Campaign continues to run at a reduced rate.

The Rev. Andrew Young, Abernathy's chief assistant, told a news conference about plans for clergymen to march on the Capitol grounds, despite a law forbidding demonstration there.

NEW YORK -- Rev. Jimi, a militant black nationalist who was instrumental in convincing the Congress of Racial Equality from a multiracial group to Negro membership only, has temporarily replaced Floyd McKissick as CORE's national chairman.

McKissick is taking a leave of absence to undergo medical treatment for a back ailment.

Three poems by David W. Perkins, English instructor at Schoolcraft College, have been published by Cornell University.

The poems are "The Phoenix," "An Old Plum Tree, New-York Pruned," and "In The Rare Book Room." Perkins has been a member of the Schoolcraft College faculty since 1954, received his B. A. degree from Montana State University, and his M. A. degree from the University of Michigan.

OAKLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE and the Court Theatre present

SUMMER THEATRE IN THE COMMUNITY

Gala Opening: July 12 at Farmdale High School, 801 Farmdale, Farmdale, Michigan.
IN WHITE AMERICA -- July 12, 13, 21, 28, August 19, 17
-- a chronicle of the Negro in America
THE PRIVATE EAR AND THE PUBLIC EYE -- Shaffer -- July 14, 19, 20, August 4, 24 -- two delightful comedies
THE FANTASTICKS -- Jones and Schmidt -- the most popular off-Broadway musical ever
THE DRAGON -- Schwartz -- August 2, 3, 10, 23, Sept. 1
-- a satiric fantasy of charm and wit
JULY

FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
AMERICA 12	AMERICA 13	EAR/EYE 14
EAR/EYE 18	EAR/EYE 20	AMERICA 21
FANTASTICKS 26	FANTASTICKS 27	AMERICA 28
AUGUST
DRAGON 2	DRAGON 3	EAR/EYE 4
AMERICA 9	DRAGON 10	FANTASTICKS 11
FANTASTICKS 16	AMERICA 17	BAND CONCERT 18
DRAGON 23	EAR/EYE 24	JAZZ CONCERT 25
FANTASTICKS 30	FANTASTICKS 31	DRAGON Sept. 1

Children's Show -- July 6, 20 -- 1:00 p.m.
"PLEASE DON'T SNEEZE" -- August 10, 18, 24
-- 50¢ Children & Adults

FRI. SAT. 8:30-9:30PM. SUN. 7:30-8:30PM
Phone Reservations -- L 12-2255
BOX OFFICE OPENS JULY 1st
Series Rate: 40¢ Pay for the first 15¢ (except children & adults)

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT J.L. HUDSON'S
NORTHLAND SHOPPING CENTER
For further information, call 476-9400 ext. 518
or 642-8211

2 Unions Barrier In News Strike

DETROIT -- No immediate cure to the Detroit newspaper conflict is in sight despite a breakthrough agreement between the unions on non-economic issues, still serve as the barrier to a final solution to the 23-day-old strike.

Negotiations on the non-economic issues between these two unions and the publishers are expected to bring about agreements but not before some more "tough poker" is played.

Meanwhile, prison officials were searching for important links that were reported missing and presumed to be in the hands of the inmates.

An intensive investigation has been ordered into the riot and accompanying fires which caused an estimated $1-million damage and left 50 persons injured.

NEW YORK -- The Association of American Universities made up of 48 public and private universities has voted to support a federal commission for general across-the-board increases in financial aid for all types of institutions, ranging from junior colleges to graduate schools.

In issuing their statement, the educators pointed to the increasing gap between university incomes and expenditures.

LANCASTER, PA. -- Twenty passengers were injured as the last eight cars of the Broadway Limited derailed here. The Penn Central's New York-to-Chicago train was hurtling at 80 miles an hour through southeastern Pennsylvania when the mishap occurred.

Seven of the injured were admitted to hospitals. The others were treated and released.

A railroad spokesman said shortly after the derailment, "nobody has any idea what caused it."

WASHINGTON -- The government has agreed it will build the largest post office building in the world in New York City at a cost of $100 million. The structure, to be completed early in 1974, will cover a two-block area in Manhattan.

WASHINGTON -- Rev. Ralph Abernathy has begun a 20-day jail sentence and a $1,000 fine he has refused to pay.

The Rev. Andrew Young, Abernathy's chief assistant, told a news conference about plans for clergymen to march on the Capitol grounds, despite a law forbidding demonstration there.

NEW YORK -- Rev. Jimi, a militant black nationalist who was instrumental in convincing the Congress of Racial Equality from a multiracial group to Negro membership only, has temporarily replaced Floyd McKissick as CORE's national chairman.

McKissick is taking a leave of absence to undergo medical treatment for a back ailment.

for $17,624 has been awarded by the Detroit City Council to Harold Thomas Nursery of Livonia for planting 104 shade trees and 71owering ornamental trees along Plymouth Rd. to the US-23 freeway.

Planting will begin in fall when widening of that part of Plymouth Rd. is complete.

PONTIAC -- Pontiac voters have approved an open housing ordinance by a 4,852-3,103 margin.

About 28 per cent of the city's registered voters turned out for the balloting which approved a measure patterned after open housing laws in Ann Arbor, Flint, Birmingham, and Saginaw.

GRAND RAPIDS -- Baking firms and company officials have approved a bill to raise state support programs aimed at fighting alcoholism.

The alcoholism bill requires five per cent of the total liquor retailers license fees collected by the state to be credited to the program for prevention, rehabilitation, care and treatment of alcoholics.

Company officials were given 45 days to comment on the bill, and the legislature has voted to credit the amount to the program.

ANN ARBOR -- A contract

State And Local

News Round Up

sales of the firm exceeded $200 million.

LANSING -- Sen. Charles O. Zollar, Re-Banan Harbor, has been named to succeed Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, as chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee. Beadle is retiring this year after 18 years of Senate service.

Zollar has been a member of the Senate since 1966 and has served as vice chairman of the appropriations committee for the past 18 months.

Company officials were given 45 days to comment on the bill, and the legislature has voted to credit the amount to the program.

ANN ARBOR -- Public bus service in Ann Arbor is due to begin again early in July on routes and schedules that were followed until May 22 by City Bus Co.

A one-year contract with St. John Transportation Co. of Dayton, Ohio, effective July 1, has been approved by the city council.

LANSING -- About 45,000 Michigan residents have been given a brief state tax respite.

The 1968 quarterly state income tax return was due June 15, but delays within the Treasury Department postponed some of the billing notices from being delivered until this week.

The 45,000 taxpayers, mostly self-employed professionals or trades people, will be given 10 days to make their payments.

DETROIT -- Dr. Robert F. McClellan has settled out of court his damage suit against Northern Michigan University and has been reinstated to the NMU faculty as an assistant professor of history for the 1968-69 school year.

LANSING -- With the new fiscal year rapidly approaching, the Michigan Legislature has yet to resolve spending in three important areas--mental health, public health, and higher education.

The salary levels range from a low of $7,300 for bookkeepers who work a 40-hour week to a high of $48,400 for deans of special programs who work a 52-week schedule.

ANN ARBOR -- Dr. Gardner C. Quarton, will take over

July 1 as director of the University of Michigan Mental Health Research Institute, according to Dr. William N. Rutherford of the U-M Medical School.

Quarton has been a psychiatrist on the staff of Massachusetts General Hospital since 1948, and has been program director of the Neurosciences Research Program at Massachusetts Institute of Technology since 1965.

PLAINFIELD -- Five of the six working members of the police department in Plainfield have resigned. The resignations apparently resulted from a feud with Chief Harold Frye.

Money Makers

Get 43% guaranteed profit on your savings

Your savings earn an average annual rate of 6% (5% rate compounded daily) when you keep our new Guaranteed Certificates for 86 months. That's a 43% profit on your savings that Livonia National Bank guarantees to pay. If you need to redeem your certificates before the 86-month maturity, you may do so at any 90 day interval following purchase with no interest penalty.

Guaranteed Certificates are available in multiples of $1,000... available at any Livonia National Bank office. Make a Guaranteed investment in your future with new Guaranteed Certificates.

Open Monday through Saturday until 4:30 p.m. ... 11:30 p.m. Friday

LIVONIA NATIONAL BANK

4 Offices to Serve You / Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Five Mile Road near Farmdale Road, Wonderland Shopping Center, Middlebelt and Seven Mile Road, Plymouth Road at Wayne Road