CIVIC THEATRE PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Coming to the Civic Theatre on Friday and Saturday, September 19 and 20 is a new Gene Autry picture, "Under Fiesta Stars". The companion picture is "That Uncertain Feeling" with Merle Oberon and Melvyn Douglas. Burgess Meredith is also seen in the picture.

"That Uncertain Feeling" shows Merle Oberon and Douglas happily married, but when she is stricken with hiccupps, the doctor tells her it is her married life that is the cause for the hiccupps. The seed of doubt has been planted, though she would like to regard it as ridiculous. She meets another man at the doctor's office, and in her happy married bliss, he only drives her farther away. However a reconciliation is effected.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the double feature is the Dead End kids in "Hit The Road" and "Million Dollar Baby" with Priscilla Lane and Jeffrey Lynn. A March of Time will also be shown. "Million Dollar Baby" shows Priscilla Lane as a department store clerk, who is given a million dollars, which rightfully belonged to her father. She does not want the money, however, and turns it down for a life with her play-acting boyfriend, Peter.

On Wednesday and Thursday nights, Constance Bennett comedies will be given free of charge, to each lady attending the movie. A 50c lipstick is the gift this week.

The double feature program on these nights is "Scattergood Baines" with Guy Kibbee and Carol Hughes, and "The Nurse's Secret" with Lee Patrick and Regis Toomey.
