IN MEMORY

In memory of Charles Manzel, who passed away three years ago today, September 13.
I haven't forgotten your words
lightly said,
Nor the sound of your voice or the lift of your head;
I haven't forgotten the wherefore
and why,
Nor the smile on your lips, nor the hope in your eye.
I remember, but I can't forget,
But someday perhaps in the autumn
of life,
Death will balance the debt.
