

Raymonds Married In Bellaire

The Community United Methodist Church of Bellaire, was the setting for the recent marriage of Laurie Weeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weeman of Livonia, and Max Raymond.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Raymond of Prudenville, Mich. The Rev. Gerald Welsh officiated.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a chantilly lace gown with mandarin collar, long, full sleeves, and a train edged in pearly and scalloped chantilly lace.

A lace petal headpiece held her cathedral length veil, and her flowers were yellow and white daisies and baby's breath.

MARCIA GREENFIELD of Grand Rapids, maid of honor, wore a moss green chiffon gown with a fitted lace midriff and carried white daisies and baby's breath.

Dressed like her were the bridesmaids, Laurie Weeman, sister of the bride and Mrs. Douglas McCall of Highland, cousin of the bride, and the

Both are 1970 graduates of Stevenson High School and attending Schoolcraft Community College. A May 5 wedding is planned.

Joyce Hanzek Wed

A brunch and evening reception for 250 guests in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Schoolcraft Road, Livonia, followed the wedding of Joyce Caroline Hanzek and Robert F. Biga.

The Rev. Andrew J. Forish officiated at the nuptial high mass in St. Michael Catholic Church, Livonia.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hanzek of Livonia, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Biga, also of Livonia.

Arlene Chudzinski of Southfield sang "Love One Another" at communion and Schubert's arrangement of "Ave Maria" as the bride presented a bouquet of white chrysanthemums to the Blessed Mother.

The bride wore a traditional gown of alencon lace with bishop sleeves and a square neckline. Her French illusion veil was secured by a crown of lace, miniature pearls and teardrop crystals. She carried her mother's Holy Matrimony prayer book with white orchids and a cascade of Stephanotis.

Jan Hanzek, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore an aqua and white gown in a colonial style with three-quarter length sleeves and an empire waist. The bridesmaids wore similar gowns in pink and white, and all wore miniature fresh carnations in their hair and carried baskets of carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Chudzinski was the bridesmaid, and Jean Hanzek and Jayne Hanzek, the bride's sister, were the junior bridesmaid and flower girl, respectively.

They are taking up residence in Westland.
