What happiness is the Bible alone shows clearly and certainly, and points out the way that leads to the attainment of it—Coleridge.

Happiness and virtue rest upon each other; the best are not only the happiest, but the happiest are usually the best.—Bulwer.

WEST POINT PARK
Mrs. William Zwahlen

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heichman and Mrs. Petrel Coffin were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Pickard of Plymouth.

Mrs. Marvin Addis, her grandson Harold McVicar Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Guard Parks of Detroit were guests Monday at their uncle's, Frank Sharpe of Howell.

The Community Club held its first meeting of the season in the P.T.A. hall on Wednesday afternoon. After a potluck luncheon officers were chosen to serve for the next twelve months. Mrs. Albert Owen is president, Mrs. Jack Marvin Addis is treasurer, and Mrs. Viola Gilbert is secretary. Mrs. Albert Heichman is honorary president. The group has decided to take up some war relief work for the winter. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday in November at the home of Mrs. Edw. Jonsson and will be preceded again by a pot luck luncheon.

Gerald Peace and family have moved to the Midland section.

Miss Lucille Carter is quite ill. In the "Little church" and Sunshine sisters sponsored a shower Wednesday afternoon in honor of the new little son in the Grant family on Farmington Road. A dozen ladies were in attendance and others sent interesting gifts. Devotional exercises suitable to the occasion were conducted and kindergarten nymus sung.

Mrs. John Weigle is this week finally completing her house on Norfolk avenue. She expects soon to go into the city to live, having her house to be taken over by new occupants.

Mrs. Albert Martin, who has been seriously ill at home or her daughter, Mrs. Edward Strosch, near Wayne, was able to return to her home on Hubbard avenue last Sunday. She is considerably improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borland of the east side, Detroit, were callers on relatives in this vicinity, last Monday.

The marriage of Mildred Bolvard, nee Bolvard, to Loren Austin, formerly a resident of this vicinity, is scheduled to take place on Saturday, October 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson and wife were guests Saturday, at the Silver wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borland of Detroit. They also attended the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Borland's daughter, Cecile, whose marriage was an event of the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffman of Detroit, called on Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault Sunday evening.

Irvin Bollinger was on the sick list this last week.

Mrs. Carl Tallman was ill in bed the latter part of the week.

Piereson School, was visited Friday afternoon, by a number of former pupils now attending Farmington High. When Walled Lake, because of damp grounds refused to play Farmington High, Friday, these before mentioned students decided to see a ball game, anyway, in the old familiar location. However, there was no ball game at Piereson, either, and they became guests instead of mere spectators.

Harold McVicar with two of his fellow workers were weekend hunters at St. Ignace.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

A potluck meeting was scheduled for the girls of Troop 1, to be held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. R. Locker, troop leader. The girls now are preparing to aid in Red Cross work. They plan to start with knitting.

A farewell party for Elizabeth Goodfellow was held Monday by Troop 5 at the Scout Hall. Elizabeth was presented a Girl Scout compact and an autograph book bearing the names of all the girls in the troop. Box lunches provided supper for the group. The entertainment consisted mostly of games, and the girls had a grand time. Next week Troop 5 will welcome Nancy Robertson, who has been transferred from Troop 7.

A potluck supper was planned for Wednesday by the girls of Troop 7 as a farewell party for Mrs. Mary Goodfellow, troop leader and Wilma Goodfellow. More on this next week.

At the first meeting of the fall season, held two weeks ago, the girls of Troop 6 adopted the project of dressing dolls for the Goodfellows organization. It is reported by Mrs. Michael Plautz, troop leader. Carol Brunette was elected scribe, and Edna Fischer and Mary Anne Plautz were chosen as patrol leaders by the girls. Lillian Beemer and Rita Funt were visitors at the meetings, and plan to join the troop. Last week the girls went on a hike and played games.
