

American Legion

Notes

All residents and all veterans of Redford, Farmington and vicinity are cordially invited to attend the public installation of officers of the Redford Post, American Legion, to be held Friday evening, October 10, at 8:00 o'clock at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall at 1874 Lahser Road, near McNichols Road.

At 8:00 sharp Captain Seamon, captain of the Wayne County Volture 102, Fort 4 and Eight Ritual Team, National champions, will dedicate the new Post Colors and Post furniture. Wolverine Post 171, Veterans of Foreign Wars, color guard, under command of Bill Strother, captain, will advance and retire the new post colors.

Vouage 411 Fort 4 and Eight Ritual team, Oakland County, under command of Ernie Reinke, captain, will install the following officers: Mason B. Giberson, Jr., commander; George Madison, Senior vice commander; Albert Kahler, Junior vice commander; Frank G. Russell, adjutant; Charles Frech, finance officer; Rev. Richard Van der Roest, chaplain; Arno E. Hartenstein, historian and Mike Kartonta, sergeant-at-arms.

District Commander W. B. Gambee will be installing officer. Herman F. Luhrs of Flint, department commander of the State of Michigan American Legion will be on deck. Hernalin is an ex-marine, and the Department Commander will deliver a short message.

After the ceremonies a buffet luncheon will be served.

The installation of officers of the Redford-Detroit Post 358 is the opening gun for 1942, and all friends are invited to come out and witness this colorful ceremony.

If you see a distinguished looking Legionnaire circulating around with pencil and paper, he will no doubt be Frank Lewtje of Groves Walker Post, Farmington. Frank is 17th District Publicity Director, and he'll be out looking for news.

The Youth Temperance Council expects to go to Oxford Friday night to attend the last session of the Seventeenth District W.C.T.U. convention. They will provide the program for the evening.
